Regnal Formulas In Byzantine Egypt:

Regnal Formulas in Byzantine Egypt Roger S. Bagnall, K. A. Worp, 1979
Chronological Systems of Byzantine Egypt: Second Edition Roger Shaler Bagnall, K. Klaas Anthony Worp, 2004 Egypt is the richest source of primary documents for the society of late antiquity Its thousands of papyri provide insight into everyday life and topics ignored by ancient authors This handbook is an indispensable tool in navigating these documents
Settling a Dispute Traianos Gagos, 1994 Family squabbles and fights over real estate were no less complex in sixth century Egypt than they are in the modern world In this unusual volume Peter van Minnen and Traianos Gagos investigate just such a struggle as described in a two part papyrus some five feet long Composed by the ancient equivalent of a notary public the papyrus describes the outcome after mediation of a family dispute about valuable real estate Traianos Gagos and Peter van Minnen offer an English translation and a clear Greek text of the two papyrus fragments as well as an important discussion of the nature of such mediation its role in contemporary society a consideration of the town of Aphrodito and its social and political elite as well as many other topics that spring from this kind of document The use of methodologies from modern jurisprudence and anthropology together with an accessible style of writing mean that Settling a Dispute will be of interest to persons in many fields including history Classics and Near Eastern studies All Greek is translated and an extensive commentary offers much helpful information on the text Traianos Gagos is Associate Archivist of the University of Michigan's papyri collection Peter van Minnen is Senior Research Associate in the papyri collection at Duke University
New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity, 3 G. H. R. Horsley, Stephen Llewelyn, 1997-12-02 This series seeks to keep New Testament and early church researchers teachers and students abreast of emerging documentary evidence by reproducing and reviewing recently published Greek inscriptions and papyri that illumine the context in which the Christian church developed Produced by the Ancient History Documentary Research Centre at Macquarie University the New Docs volumes broaden the context of biblical studies and other related fields and provide a better understanding of the historical and social milieu of early Christianity
Staying Roman Jonathan Conant, 2012-04-12 This is the first systematic study of the changing nature of Roman identity in post Roman North Africa
Sixty-five Papyrological Texts F. A. J. Hoogendijk, Brian Paul Muhs, 2008 This volume contains editions of sixty five Greek Demotic Coptic and Arabic texts from Egypt contributed as a token of friendship and respect by forty six of Klaas Worp's colleagues and co authors upon his retirement from the Papyrological Institute of the University of Leiden in August 2008 The contents are as diverse as Klaas Worp's own wide range of interests and provide a vivid impression of life and culture in Graeco Roman Egypt The texts are written on papyrus potsherds parchment paper and wood They include both literary and documentary papyri and ostraca and date from the third century BC to the eleventh century AD They are published fully most for the first time with transcriptions and translations and are accompanied by photographs and the Will of Diocletian William Lewis Leadbetter, 2009-12-04 Drawing from a variety of sources literary visual archaeological papyri inscriptions and coins the author studies the nature of Diocletian's imperial strategy his wars his religious views and his abdication The author also examines Galerius' endeavour to take control of Diocletian's empire his failures and successes against the backdrop of Constantine's remorseless drive to power The first comprehensive study of the Emperor Galerius this book offers an innovative analysis of his reign as both Caesar and Augustus using his changing relationship with Diocletian as the principal key to unlock the complex imperial politics of the period Reading Papyri, Writing Ancient History Roger S. Bagnall, 2003-09-02 The ancient Mediterranean world brought to us by Herodotus Thucydides and Tacitus is one of politics war and the power elite of Greece and Rome There was another ancient world in which ordinary people made a living sold land ran their towns and sued one another This is the world that the papyri bring to life this book is about how they do so Reading Papyri Writing Ancient History demonstrates how historians can put together information from scattered and often badly damaged documents to build up a picture of the society economy and culture of the multicultural world of antiquity Through discussion of contemporary historical work on the documents Roger Bagnall scrutinises alternative ways of approaching these sources He shows how the ancient historian can use the methodologies of anthropology comparative history and statistics alongside more traditional tools to turn these texts into questions and answers Students and teachers of ancient history will find Reading Papyri Writing Ancient History an indispensable guide to using these ancient texts in their own work Coptic Perspectives on Late Antiquity Leslie S.B. MacCoull, 2024-12-11 The transitions from Antiquity to the Middle Ages continue to demand explanation in the case of Egypt there is the added question of why the Coptic language died out following the Arab conquests In these studies Dr MacCoull draws on the extensive papyrological evidence in both Coptic and Greek to explore the Egypt of the 6th-8th centuries its culture religion and society One group of articles focuses on the figure of the lawyer poet Dioscorus of Aphrodito in others she examines the adjustments made by Christian Egyptians as they became a minority under Muslim rule as well as the methodologies of studying this society Les différents passages de l'Antiquité au Moyen Âge nécessitent encore un certain nombre d'explications dans le cas de l'Égypte s'ajoute la question de l'extinction de la langue copte la suite des conquêtes arabes Au cours de ces études le Dr MacCoull s'appuie sur l'abondante documentation papyrologique en langue grecque et copte afin d'explorer l'Égypte du 6^e au 8^e siècle sa culture sa religion et sa société Un groupe d'articles se concentre sur le personnage du poète juriste Dioscore d'Aphrodito d'ailleurs elle examine la façon dont les Chrétiens égyptiens se sont adaptés alors qu'ils devenaient une minorité sous l'empire des musulmans ainsi que la méthodologie relative l'étude de cette société
Galerius
