Rivers that sing, trees that cry: Images of the jungle in Spanish American narratives

Abstract: Literary texts are a window to explore the environmental dimension of the human condition. For this reason, seeking to explore key themes in the canon of jungle narratives, this book studies the images and representations of the jungle in Latin American novels and stories from 1905-2015 where the action takes place in the Amazon, Latin American jungle environment par excellence, as well as in the Paraná basin, the humid forests of Central America and other relevant environments. While the preferred methodology consists of tools provided by ecocriticism, political ecology and environmental ethics, the research also draws on recent developments in ecological philosophy, rainforest biogeography, environmental history and cultural anthropology. Thus, using this multidisciplinary approach, Rivers that sing, trees that cry opens a fruitful dialogue between literary criticism and other areas of natural, social and human sciences by providing ideas and points of view that contribute to the construction of a different, symbiotic and not simply extractive relationship between human societies and natural ecosystems.

Keywords: Hispano American narratives of the jungle, political ecology, environmental ethics, Amazon rainforest, humid tropical forests, environmental history of the Amazon, Amazonian anthropology.

Los desterrados 1926: una colección de ocho cuentos ambientados en la selva misionera es una prueba del dominio de Quiroga sobre la forma breve. La clara intención unitaria que se percibe en las narraciones dota de mayor consistencia a la obra y representa un gran logro literario.

Ibero American Ecocriticism: Cultural and Social Explorations presents a distinct view of the diverse social and physical geographies of the Americas, their political and cultural connections to the Iberian Peninsula and their relationship to the environment in its diverse representations. The topics, ranging from myths and legends, poetics, young adult literature, arts and performance to cinematography, by women, dialogue across chapters reveal a persistent usage of nature and environment as recurrent themes. Through visual and plastic arts, as well as poetic narratives of social utopias, dystopias, the contributors provide original readings on the effects of societal views and struggles to protect and consciously exploit the natural world. The uniqueness of this book relies therefore on the geographical and cultural approach to the poetics of nature.
