or expanded to the west of America However in the reporting of these expeditions so far food has rarely taken a central role It is possible to take a different stance and look at our time on trails with food as the leading character Here Demet G zey offers a fun and interesting read on the social and cultural history developments and challenges in food on trails and in the wild She explores personal accounts news articles and anecdotes to highlight how food has accompanied us in mountaineering desert travel and pilgrimage in the army or on the street From tinned foods to foraging in the wild worm infested hardtack to palate dulling army rations loss of appetite in high altitude to starvation at the trenches no stone is left unturned in this tour of how we manage food on foot and how disasters happen when we do not manage it so well Readers will delight in both the stories of many of the famous explorations and the more current journeys The Human
