Federalismo y descentralización en la Nueva Granada Paola Ruiz Gutiérrez, 2021-10-01 Federalismo y descentralización en la Nueva Granada Autonomía local y poder municipal en la constitución del Estado 1848 1863 busca responder a tres interrogantes cómo caracterizar el federalismo de mediados de siglo XIX en la Nueva Granada cuáles fueron sus contenidos y manifestaciones a partir de qué coordenadas se articuló un proyecto federal Cuestionando el relato histórico sobre el federalismo que se construyó en los albores de la Independencia que lo asoció con la guerra civil el desorden y la inestabilidad política en este libro se analiza la manera como se enunció un proyecto federal que intentó responder al desafío de construir un Estado nacional capaz de equilibrar las fuerzas regionales y diseñar un aparato institucional que le diera sentido a la diversidad política social cultural y geográfica del país. El federalismo neogranadino encontró su propia identidad en el cruce con el proceso de descentralización política administrativa y fiscal que se adelantó desde la década de 1840. A partir de la discusión en torno a los límites, la naturaleza y el significado de la autonomía local y el poder municipal, la descentralización se consolidó como un proyecto político que reformuló las relaciones entre las localidades y las autoridades nacionales y abrió el camino para el establecimiento de la república federal. El libro explora de esta manera el desarrollo del federalismo y la descentralización en la Nueva Granada a mediados del siglo XIX, sus alcances y limitaciones, las tensiones que produjeron y las transformaciones políticas que desencadenaron.
