Lavoie, 2014-11-05 Christian mystic astrologer and spiritualist Charles Carleton Massey 1838 1905 underwent an eclectic spiritual journey that resulted in a series of articles letters and booklets that have largely been neglected by modern society Massey was a child of privilege formally trained as a barrister of law at the Westminster School and the son of the English Minister of Finance for India He devoted his life to solving the metaphysical mysteries of existence leading him into the world of religious philosophy that placed him in the middle of a crossroads between Victorian science religion and philosophy Beginning his journey as a Spiritualist Massey continued on a course that brought him into the Theosophical Society eventually becoming the founding president of its British branch going through the ranks of the Society of Psychical Research and ultimately into his final role as a Christian mystic This indispensable work combines Massey s collected writings with never before published letters organized topically in order to define Massey's unique world view for a new generation of readers. This book covers a range of topics from the nature of God to the microcosm and macrocosm to Satanism and reincarnation all the while allowing the reader a rare glimpse into Victorian England and the social and religious issues of this time period. The recollections recorded in this book though written over a hundred years ago are dealt with in such a simple yet profound way that remain relevant to modern spiritual seekers of all types. The Mirror of Relationship J Krishnamurti, 2022-09-09

The answer to the question What are you Seeking is simple. We want to find truth. God. everlasting peace. The real question says Krishnamurti is Why do you seek at all. Knowing conflict repression self doubt and fear as consistent companions we naturally wish for them to come to an end. So begins the search for relief the search for everlasting peace through ideas religions self help self analysis etc and we think of this search as a right action towards finding what we are looking for. But do we know what we are looking for or are we merely seeking relief from what is happening presently. Are we seeking at that point only an idea the supposed opposite of the emotion that we are experiencing now. It is the search that maintains the present emotion and its projected opposite in a state of mutually co-existent conflict inherently.

Western Esotericism and the Science of Religion International Association for the History of Religions. Congress, International Association for the History of Religions, 1998

This volume is based upon papers read during the innovative section Western Esotericism and the Science of Religion organized at the 17th International Congress of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR in Mexico City August 5-12 1995. The section was created in order to fill a long standing hiatus in the academic study of religions whereas phenomena such as gnosticism and hermetism in antiquity and even the occult sciences of that period have long been recognized as subjects worthy of serious investigation the history of similar and related phenomena in more recent periods has hardly received the same measure of scholarly attention and recognition. The present volume is devoted to the academic emancipation of these areas as constituting a legitimate domain of research which may be referred to by the generic label western esotericism. Preceded by an introductory essay on the birth of this new discipline in the study of religion the volume provides a sample of current research in the field and devotes special attention to some central methodological questions.
