Perspectives on Prehistoric Trade and Exchange in California and the Great Basin Richard E. Hughes, 2012-03-13

This volume investigates the circumstances and conditions under which trade exchange direct access and or mobility best account for material conveyance across varying distances at different times in the past Pushing Boundaries in Southwestern Archaeology Stephen E. Nash, Erin L. Baxter, 2023-04-07 Pushing Boundaries in Southwestern Archaeology draws together the proceedings from the sixteenth biennial Southwest Symposium In exploring the conference theme contributors consider topics ranging from the resuscitation of archaeomagnetic dating to the issue of Athapaskan origins from collections based studies of social identity foodways and obsidian trade to the origins of a rock art tradition and the challenges of a deeply buried archaeological record The first of the volume s four sections examines the status history and prospects of Bears Ears National Monument the broader regulatory and political boundaries that complicate the nature and integrity of the archaeological record and the cultural contexts and legal stakes of archaeological inquiry The second section focuses on chronological big data in the context of pre Columbian history and the potential and limits of what can be empirically derived from chronometric analysis of the past The chapters in the third section advocate for advancing collections based research focusing on the vast and often untapped research potential of archives previously excavated museum collections and legacy data The final section examines the permeable boundaries involved in Plains Pueblo interactions obvious in the archaeological record but long in need of analysis interpretation and explanation Contributors James R Allison Erin Baxter Benjamin A Bellorado Katelyn J Bishop Eric Blinman J Royce Cox J Andrew Darling Kaitlyn E Davis William H Doelle B Sunday Eiselt Leigh Anne Ellison Josh Ewing Samantha G Fladd Gary M Feinman Jeffrey R Ferguson Severin Fowles Willie Grayeyes Matthew Guebard Saul L Hedquist Greg Hodgins Lucas Hoedl John W Ives Nicholas Kessler Terry Knight Michael W Lindeman Hannah V Mattson Myles R Miller Lindsay Montgomery Stephen E Nash Sarah Oas Jill Onken Scott G Ortman Danielle J Riebe John Ruple Will G Russell Octavius Seowtewa Deni J Seymour James M Vint Adam S Watson Dinéjį Na`nitin Robert S. McPherson, 2018-08-20 A knowledgeable and sensitive description of some of the basic aspects of traditional Navajo teachings thought and language Utah Historical Quarterly Traditional teachings derived from stories and practices passed through generations lie at the core of a well balanced Navajo life These teachings are based on a very different perspective of the physical and spiritual world than that found in general American culture Din j Na nitin is an introduction to traditional Navajo teachings and history for a non Navajo audience providing a glimpse into this unfamiliar domain and illuminating the power and experience of the Navajo worldview Historian Robert McPherson discusses basic Navajo concepts such as divination good and evil prophecy and metaphorical thought as well as these topics relevance in daily life making these far ranging ideas accessible to the contemporary reader He also considers the toll of cultural loss on modern Navajo culture as many traditional values and institutions are confronted by those of dominant society Using both historical and modern examples he shows how cultural change has shifted established views and practices and illustrates the challenge younger generations face in maintaining the beliefs and customs their parents and grandparents have shared over generations This intimate look at Navajo values and customs will appeal not only to students and scholars of Native American studies ethnic studies and anthropology but to any reader interested in Navajo culture or changing traditional lifeways

Performance in Popular Culture Sharon Mazer, 2023-08-31 Performance in Popular Culture reveals the intricate relationship between performance and popular culture by exploring how theatrical conventions and dramaturgical tropes have informed the way the social is constructed for popular consumption Staged as a series of case studies this book considers the diverse ways the social is imagined and produced in live and mediated performances in images and texts in interactive experiences and in cultural institutions By looking at performance in popular culture the world we live in becomes more visible open to investigation and perhaps to change Performance in Popular Culture engages a wide range of disciplines and theoretical frameworks performance theatre and cultural studies comparative literature and media studies gender and sexuality critical race and post colonial theories Designed for accessibility at an undergraduate level the case studies make use of visual materials moving images and texts that are readily available to lecturers and students to scholars and to the general public

Defining Memory Amy K. Levin, 2007-03-01 Defining Memory uses case studies of exhibits from around the country to examine how local museums defined as museums whose collections are local in scope or whose audiences are primarily local have both shaped and been shaped by evolving community values and sense of history Levin and her contributors argue that these small institutions play a key role in defining America's self identity and should be studied as seriously as more national institutions like the Smithsonian and the Metropolitan Museum of Art

The Making of Public Historical Culture in the American West, 1880-1910 Amanda Laugesen, 2006 This book is a study of the establishment and development of historical societies in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century American West It concentrates on the people who created the historical societies of Kansas Oregon and Wisconsin from the first charter generation through to the first generation of professional historical society workers This study fills an important gap in our knowledge of the role those outside of the academy have held in the process of history making namely the role of state historical societies China, Cultural Heritage, and International Law Hui Zhong, 2017-11-27 China is a country that is rich in antiquities but it is also a victim of looting that occurred during the period from the First Opium War to the end of the Japanese Occupation 1840 1945 when innumerable cultural objects were lost overseas The Chinese Government insists on asserting its interest over its wrongfully removed cultural heritage and has sought for the return of lost cultural heritage by all means in accordance with relevant international conventions and Chinese laws However securing the return has been and continues to be problematic Little research has been done regarding the question as to whether China has a legal basis for recovery which is the first legal hurdle that China needs to get over In addition China does not have a legal basis for all cultural heritage taken during the period of 1840 1945 Claims for return without a legal basis are usually silenced or at best discussed only but very rarely facilitated This book provides an answer for the return of Chinese cultural heritage It examines the law contemporaneous to the removal of Chinese cultural heritage and its application For this lack of a legal basis this book argues that a new customary international law is emerging according to which the interests of the states of origin in their wrongfully removed heritage should be prioritised This proposed customary rule supports the return of wrongfully removed heritage Once this proposed customary rule is accepted it will provide a stronger argument not only for China but also for other states of origin with a similar dilemma including South Korea Egypt Greece Cambodia Turkey Peru and Italy to recover their wrongfully removed heritage While dealing with a large pool of return cases this book is valuable to museums and art collectors in the event of buying and accepting art objects and settling recovery disputes with states of origin It will also be of interest to researchers academics policymakers and students in the fields of cultural heritage law international law international trade and human rights law Revisiting Vietnam Julia Bleakney, 2006 First Published in 2007 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Utah Historical Quarterly J. Cecil Alter, 2008 List of charter members of the society v 1 p 98 99 The Fur Trade Revisited Jo-Anne Fisk, 2011-06-01 The Fur Trade Revisited is a collection of twenty eight essays selected from the more than fifty presentations made at the Sixth North American Fur Trade Conference held on Mackinac Island Michigan in the fall of 1991 Essays contained in this important new interpretive work focus on the history archaeology and literature of a fascinating growing area of scholarly investigation Underscoring the work s multifaceted approach is an introductory essay by Lily McAuley titled Memories of a Trapper s Daughter This vivid and compelling account of the fur trade life sets a level of quality for what follows Part one of The Fur Trade Revisited discusses eighteenth century fur trade intersections with European markets The essays in part two examine Native people and the strategies they employed to meet demands placed on them by the market for furs Part three examines the origins motives and careers of those who actually participated in the fur trade Part four focuses attention on the indigenous fur trade culture and subsequent archaeology in the area around Mackinac Island Michigan while part five contains studies focusing on the fur trade culture in other parts of North America Part six assesses the fur trade after 1870 and part seven contains evaluations of the critical historical and literary interpretations prevalent in fur trade scholarship

Museums as Ritual Sites Lieke Wijnia, James S. Bielo, 2024-10-14

Museums as Ritual Sites critically examines the assumption that museums inherently function as ritual sites and in turn are poised to exert influence on cultural and societal change. Bringing together a diverse international group of interdisciplinary scholars and curators, the volume celebrates and critically engages with Carol Duncan's seminal work Civilizing Rituals. Presenting a wide-ranging exploration of how museums function as liminal zones in broader societal contexts, the book discusses major topics identified as functioning at the heart of the above-mentioned paradigm shift: diversity and inclusion, consumption, religion, and tradition. These topics are studied through the lens of their ritual implications in museum practice. Presenting case studies on ethnographic art, history, community, and memorial practices in museums, the book reflects the diversity of the contemporary international museum field. As such, the volume presents a critical and updated revision of the ritual perspective on museums, both as it was presented by Duncan and as it has since been developed in the field of museum studies. Museums as Ritual Sites will be essential reading for academics and students working in museum studies, heritage studies, cultural anthropology, religious studies, and ritual studies. Museums as Ritual Sites will also be of interest to those working across the humanities and social sciences who are interested in the intersection of museums or archives with indigeneity and decolonization.

Cultural Dynamics in a Globalized World

Melani Budianta, Manneke Budiman, Abidin Kusno, Mikihiro Moriyama, 2017-12-14. The book contains essays on current issues in arts and humanities in which peoples and cultures compete as well as collaborate in globalizing the world while maintaining their uniqueness as viewed from cross and interdisciplinary perspectives. The book covers areas such as literature, cultural studies, archaeology, philosophy, history, language studies, information and literacy studies, and area studies. Asia and the Pacific are the particular regions that the conference focuses on as they have become new centers of knowledge production in arts and humanities and in the future seem to be able to grow significantly as a major contributor of culture, science, and arts to the globalized world. The book will help shed light on what arts and humanities scholars in Asia and the Pacific have done in terms of research and knowledge development as well as the new frontiers of research that have been explored and opening up, which can connect the two regions with the rest of the globe.

Silk and Religion Xinru Liu, 1998
