YOUNGHUSBAND (GEORGE
JOHN.), George John Younghusband

Relief Of Chitral:

The Relief of Chitral George John Younghusband, Younghusband, 1895 The Butcher of Amritsar Nigel Collett, 2006-10-15 On 13 April 1919 General Reginald Dyer marched a squad of Indian soldiers into the Jallianwala Bagh in Amritsar and opened fire without warning on a crowd gathered to hear political speeches This is an account of the massacre set in the context of a biography of a man whose attitudes reflected many of the views common in the Raj Chitral Sir George Scott Robertson, 1899 The Relief of Chitral Sir Younghusband (Francis), 1897 The Relief of Chitral Sir George John Younghusband, 1895 Indian Army List January 1919 - Volume 4 Army Headquarters, India, 2012-02-06

Volume 4 of 4 The January and July issues of the Indian Army List contain not only the distribution of officers on the active list of the Army in India including officers of British army regiments battalions etc stationed in India but are supplemented by the addition of Orders of Knighthood Honours and Awards including Foreign Orders by the non effective officer list and the War Services of officers of the Indian Army Details of each officer include dates of birth except for wartime commissioned officers date of first commission of appointment to the Indian Army and dates of promotion Officers are grouped according to their rank and by seniority within that rank and are again shown under their regiments battalions In the case of British units their date of arrival in India is shown and with Indian units their date of formation and changes in title since plus details of the backgrounds of men recruited e g Sikhs Punjabis Dogras Rajputs etc This army list also includes all native Viceroy Commissioned Officers Subadar Majors Subadars and Jemadars and their war services Major HQs and their staffs divisional and brigade commanders and their staffs schools colleges Administrative Departments of the Army are all shown Non regular Indian Defence Force units such as 22nd Bengal and North Western railway Battalion and the Indian Army Reserve of Officers are all there along with British Warrant Officers serving in departments of the Indian Army In 1914 there were 116 Indian and 10 Gurkha Regiments all with one battalion apart from the cavalry 32 Indian and one Gurkha regiment had been formed and the majority of the original regiments had raised second and sometimes third battalions This splendid four volume work reflects the tremendous contribution made by the Indian Army to the Empire s war effort A full index is included The Relief of Chitral [Illustrated Edition] Capt. G. J. Younghusband, Capt. Sir Francis E. Younghusband, 2016-07-26 Includes over 15 illustrations including detailed map of the area of operations The Chitral Expedition was a military expedition in 1895 sent by the British authorities to relieve the fort at Chitral which was under siege after a local coup After the death of the old ruler power changed hands several times An intervening British force of about 400 men was besieged in the fort until it was relieved by two expeditions a small one from Gilgit and a large one from Peshawar To all who can enjoy military history this will be a fascinating book It is written in conjunction by Captain F E Younghusband formerly political officer at Chitral and during the campaign correspondent of the Times and his brother Captain G J Younghusband of the Guides who was with his regiment in General Low s force through the whole affair Its information is therefore all firsthand and as it is charmingly written even the ordinary reader while anathematising a few sentences of detail only interesting to soldiers will find himself unable to lay it down The cause of the war the arrest of Captain Ross the advance of General Low Colonel Kelly's rush the defence of Chitral and the relief of Chitral are all described with a lucid brevity and clearness which never fatigue It was a wonderful little campaign but to our minds the most interesting part of the book is the incidental proof it contains that in spite of the success of Colonel Kelly's small force the military authorities were in the right in their careful preparations The Spectator The Relief of Chitral SIR FRANCIS. YOUNGHUSBAND YOUNGHUSBAND (GEORGE JOHN.), George John Younghusband, 2024-03-09 Comprehensively suitable for military historian academic researcher or simply for general interest An excellent account of a siege on the northwest frontier of the great game The siege and successful relief of Chitral was a key episode in British Imperial history coming as it did just a decade after Britain's humiliation in Khartoum and three years before their long delayed response against the Mahdi at Omdurman About the author Sir Francis Edward Younghusband born May 31 1863 Murree India died July 31 1942 Lytchett Minster Dorset England British army officer and explorer whose travels mainly in northern India and Tibet yielded major contributions to geographical research he also forced the conclusion of the Anglo Tibetan Treaty September 6 1904 that gained Britain long sought trade concessions Younghusband entered the army in 1882 and in 1886-87 crossed Central Asia from Beijing to Yarkand now in the Uygur Autonomous Region of Xinjiang China Continuing on to India by way of the long unused Mustagh Muztag Pass of the Karakoram Range he proved the range to be the water divide between India and Turkistan On two later expeditions to Central Asia he explored the Pamirs mountains After repeated British attempts to gain trading rights with Tibet Lord Curzon viceroy of India authorized Younghusband to cross the Tibetan border accompanied by a military escort to negotiate trade and frontier issues July 1903 When efforts to begin negotiations failed the British under the command of Major General James Macdonald invaded the country and slaughtered some 600 Tibetans at Guru Younghusband moved on to Jiangzi Gyantze where his second attempt to begin trade negotiations also failed He then marched into Lhasa the capital with British troops and forced the conclusion of a trade treaty with the Dalai Lama Tibet's ruler This action brought him a knighthood in 1904 britannica.com The Nation, 1896 The Relief of Chitral G.
