There's Never Been a Show Like Veggie Tales Hillary Warren,2005 A sociological examination of the production and audiences of Veggie Tales a popular evangelical video series for children

Belief in Media Mary E. Hess,2020-07-24 Most works on media developments and Christianity approach the subject from the perspective of the implications of new media technologies for traditional Christian practices or how churches can use new media to further their goals The common framework of analysis is a given reality of traditional institutional Christianity and how it interacts with affects and is affected by media Media are treated as a separate cultural reality This book presents in an accessible form the new directions that approach the interaction of media and religion from a cultural perspective and illustrates these new directions by a number of international and intercultural case studies and explorations Looking at how global media are constructing cultural forms structures and processes the authors show how these have become the life out of which individual and social meaning is created and practised Examining how individuals create religious meaning by interacting with media of various kinds crossing boundaries of traditional religious cultures and contemporary media cultures this book reveals how Christian institutions are also defined in the process of living culturally within their broader media context The Miracle Lady Amy Collier

Artman,2019-03-19 A smart powerful charismatic preacher brought back to life On October 15 1974 Johnny Carson welcomed his next guest on The Tonight Show with these words I imagine there are very few people who are not aware of Kathryn Kuhlman She probably along with Billy Graham is one of the best known ministers or preachers in the country But while many people today recognize Billy Graham not many remember Kathryn Kuhlman 1907 1976 who preached faith and miracles to countless people over the fifty five years of her ministry and became one of the most important figures in the rise of charismatic Christianity In The Miracle Lady Amy Collier Artman tells the story of Kuhlman s life and in the process relates the larger story of charismatic Christianity particularly how it moved from the fringes of American society to the mainstream Tracing her remarkable career as a media savvy preacher and fleshing out her unconventional character Artman also shows how Kuhlman skillfully navigated the oppressive structures rules and landmines that surrounded female religious leaders in her conservative circles

Religion and American Cultures Gary Laderman,Luis León,2014-12-17 This four volume work provides a detailed multicultural survey of established as well as new American religions and investigates the fascinating interactions between religion and ethnicity gender politics regionalism ethics and popular culture This revised and expanded edition of Religion and American Cultures Tradition Diversity and Popular Expression presents more than 140 essays that address contemporary spiritual practice and culture with a historical perspective The entries cover virtually every religion in modern day America as well as the role of religion in various aspects of U S culture Readers will discover that Americans aren t largely Protestant Catholic or Jewish anymore and that the number of popular religious identities is far greater than many would imagine And although most Americans believe in a higher power the fastest growing identity in the United States is the nones those Americans who elect none when asked about their religious identity thereby demonstrating how many individuals see their spirituality as something not easily defined or categorized The first volume explores America s multicultural communities and their religious practices covering the range of different religions among Anglo Americans and Euro Americans as well as spirituality among Latino African American Native American and Asian American communities The second volume focuses on cultural aspects of religions addressing topics such as film Generation X public sacred spaces sexuality and new religious expressions The new third volume expands the range of topics covered with in depth essays on additional topics such as interfaith families religion in prisons belief in the paranormal and religion after September 11 2001

The fourth volume is devoted to complementary primary source documents
