Heuving,2016-05-19 The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics is a probing examination of how the writing of sexual love undergoes a radical revision by avant garde poets in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Today the exploration of love by poets long a fixture of Western poetic tradition is thought to be in decline with love itself understood to be a mere ideological overlay for the more real entities of physical sex and desire In The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving claims that a key achievement of poetry by Ezra Pound H D Robert Duncan Kathleen Fraser Nathaniel Mackey and others lies significantly in their engagement with the synergistic relations between being in love and writing love These poets she argues have traded the cliché lover of yore for impersonal or posthuman poetic speakers that sustain the gloire and mystery of love poetry of prior centuries As Robert Duncan writes There is a love in which we are outcast and vagabond from what we are that we call falling in love Heuving claims that this writing of love is defining for avant garde poetics identifying how such important discoveries as Pound's and H D's Imagism Pound's Cantos and Duncan's open field poetics are derived through their changed writing of love She draws attention to how the prevailing concept of language as material is inadequate to the ways these poets also engage language as a medium as a conduit enabling them to address love afresh in a time defined through preoccupations with sexuality They engage love as immanent and change it through a writing that acts on itself The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics ascribes the waning of love poetry to its problematic form a genre in which empowered poetic speakers constitute their speech through the objectification of comparatively disempowered subjects or beloveds Refusing this pervasive practice the poets she highlights reject the delimiting one sided tradition of masculine lovers and passive feminine beloveds instead they create a more nuanced dynamic poetics of ecstatic exploration what Heuving calls projective love and libidinalized field poetics a formally innovative poetry in which one perception leads directly to the next and all aspects of a poem are generative of meaning *The Cambridge Companion to H. Los Angeles District, 1963 A Companion to Modernist Poetry David E. Chinitz, Gail McDonald, 2014-06-23 A COMPANION TO MODERNIST POETRY A Companion to Modernist Poetry A Companion to Modernist Poetry presents contemporary approaches to modernist poetry in a uniquely in depth and accessible text The first section of the volume reflects the attention to historical and cultural context that has been especially fruitful in recent scholarship The second section focuses on various movements and groupings of poets placing writers in literary history and indicating the currents and countercurrents whose interaction generated the category of modernism as it is now broadly conceived The third section traces the arcs of twenty one poets careers illustrated by analyses of key works The Companion thus offers breadth in its presentation of historical and literary contexts and depth in its attention to individual poets it brings recent scholarship to bear on the subject of modernist poetry while also providing guidance on poets who are historically important and who are likely to appear on syllabi and to attract critical interest for many years to come Edited by two highly respected and notable critics in the field A Companion to Modernist Poetry boasts a varied list of contributors who have produced an intense focused study of modernist poetry
