Hopkins,2009-11-03 It is an honor to have been asked to write an introduction to The Noblest which is a collection of some of the work of a small group of people from different walks of life who came together in a writing workshop I gave at the John Noble Maritime Museum a few years ago Together we shared our writings we listened to each other and we grew into a family of friends As you read their thoughts their ideas their stories you will come to glimpse them as I have been privileged to do Their poems stories and memoirs speak for themselves They have opened their hearts and souls in their writings Initially I did not want to detract from their accomplishments with my own writings but they are a persistent group and they prevailed Tread softly as you read our works and enter into our lives We hope our writing speaks to you and that you find a friend or two in these pages and that the words conjure memories stimulate imagination take you to special places and give you pause to think May I start you on your journey with a poem of my own The letters leak from pens and pencils Like twisted linguine from aged grinders Into word salads that whisper feelings Sometimes buried sometimes throbbing Sometimes happy sometimes sobbing Pictures form of people Living quiet lives in troubled times Laughing crying sighing Dreaming loving praying Probing wondering remembering They are the seasons of the years The colors of the rainbow Their images cling and clang Stir and penetrate invigorate and celebrate They sing like the sunrise That while much may be taken Much abides and flourishes Read our words and listen to our hearts With reverence kindness gratefulness and awe And learn once more we are not alone And all of us including you still have much so much more to give Thank you George R Hopkins

Hieroglyphic Modernisms Jesse Schotter, 2017-11-22 Explores hieroglyphs as a metaphor for the relationship between new media and writing in British modernism In the British Museum one object attracts more tourists than any other the Rosetta Stone The decipherment of the Stone by Jean François Champollion and the discovery of King Tutankhamun's tomb in 1922 contributed to creating a worldwide vogue for all things Egyptian This fascination was shared by early twentieth century authors who invoked Egyptian writing to paint a more complicated picture of European interest in non Western languages Hieroglyphs can be found everywhere in modernist novels and in discussions of silent film appearing at moments when writers and theorists seek to understand the similarities or differences between writing and new recording technologies Hieroglyphic Modernisms explores this conjunction of hieroglyphs and modernist fiction and film revealing how the challenge of new media spurred a fertile interplay among practitioners of old and new media forms Showing how novelists and film theorists in the modernist period defined their respective media in relation to each other the book shifts the focus in modernism from China poetry and the avant garde to Egypt narrative and film Key Features Argues for the connections among discourses about film phonography digital media and literature in the twentieth century through the recurrent invocations of hieroglyphs Shows how novelists and film theorists in the modernist period defined their respective media in relation to each other Shifts the focus in accounts of visual languages in modernism from China poetry and the avant garde to Egypt narrative and film Establishes a dialogue between Egyptian writers of the 1920s and 30s and canonical British modernists
