Rosie Carpe European Women Writers Series:

Rosie Carpe Marie NDiaye, 2021-02-16 When pregnant Rosie Carpe her fatherless five year old son in tow arrives in Guadeloupe looking for her elusive brother Lazare the world already seems a plenty confusing place Could the man who comes to meet her an elegant black man calling himself Lagrand actually be her disheveled white brother Are her parents who abandoned her in Paris rediscovering themselves in an outrageous second youth of outlandish affairs or have they simply lost their minds And does Rosie have a hope of slipping the sticky grasp of her former employer and seducer who moonlights as a video pornographer If it seems unlikely that the feckless Lazare missing for five years as he followed his own twisted path might help or that carnivalesque Guadeloupe where murder and mayhem are the natural outcomes of business ventures might be the place for Rosie to find peace then Marie NDiaye may have a few surprises in store for her reader Amid the blurring boundaries and shifting values the indistinct realities and confusing certainties of Rosie Carpe a love story unfolds and all that is ambiguous and tenuous in short all of Rosie's world is underpinned with a measure of tenderness

Contemporary French Women's Writing Shirley Ann Jordan, 2004 In the 1990s the French literary arena was enlivened by the emergence of a new generation of women writers This book selects six of its most distinctive voices and addresses important questions about the very new in French women's writing What are young women choosing to write about What do they tell us about changing perceptions of feminine identities What does it mean to write and to read as women at the start of the new millennium An introductory chapter explores key issues such as the woman writer in the public imagination and continuity and change within French women's writing since the 1970s It also highlights thematic threads which recur across the work of the authors studied history and time wandering and exile self and other the body and sexuality and writing and telling The remaining chapters propose productive approaches to the fictional worlds of Marie Darrieussecq Virginie Despentes Marie Ndiaye Agnès Desarthe Lorette Nobcourt and Amélie Nothomb through close readings of their most challenging popular or telling texts They focus on perennial preoccupations in women's writing which are given new treatment by these writers and discuss important developments such as uses of the pornographic myth and fairy tale and parody and irony in new women's writing

Decolonizing Translation Kathryn Batchelor, 2014-04-08 The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub-Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation

The Cambridge History of French Literature William Burgwinkle, Nicholas Hammond, Emma Wilson, 2011-02-24 The most comprehensive history of literature written in French ever produced in English

From Francophonie to World Literature in French Thérèse Migraine-George, 2020-03-01 In 2007 the French newspaper Le Monde published a manifesto titled Toward a World Literature in French signed by forty four writers many from France's former colonies Proclaiming that the francophone label encompassed people who had little in common besides the fact that they all spoke French the manifesto's proponents the so called francophone writers themselves sought to energize a battle cry against the discriminatory effects and prescriptive claims of francophonie In one of the first books to study the movement away from the term francophone to world literature in French Thérèse Migraine George engages a literary analysis of contemporary works in exploring the tensions and theoretical debates surrounding world literature in French She focuses on works by a diverse group of contemporary French speaking writers who straddle continents Nina Bouraoui H l ne Cixous Maryse Cond Marie NDiaye Tierno Mon nembo and Lyonel Trouillot What these writers have in common beyond their use of French is their resistance to the centralizing power of a language their rejection of exclusive definitions and their claim for creative autonomy

Quand la folie parle Gillian Ni Cheallaigh, Laura Jackson, Siobhan McIlvanney, 2014-06-26 Quand la folie parle presents a timely reinvigoration of the complex subject of madness and its literary manifestations This stimulating study authored by a range of young and talented international scholars is of key importance in defining and refining our ongoing endeavours to theorise and analyse the literary representations of the problematics of mental health By including discussions of texts that speak of madness as well as those that speak from madness this volume demonstrates that in fact the non sense of madness achieves a force of expression often more powerful than the usual order of logic Embracing the scientific the religious the medical the psychoanalytic the historical the erotic and of course the properly literary this wide ranging historically informed collection is particularly significant in its exploration of both the madwoman and the madman and exhibits an inclusiveness which extends to the genres and modes of the texts examined The authors discussed from Nerval and Houellebecq to NDiaye and L provide a refreshingly balanced picture of mental illness presenting madness or depression as a contestatory creative stance against often mind numbing social racial or consumerist conventions while refusing to play down the inevitable difficulties accompanying this isolating condition The dialectic effect referenced in the title of the collection extends not only to the dynamics at work within the volume itself as the different contributions implicitly dialogue with one another but equally to the reader of these essays who is engaged throughout in the debates put forward

New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005

Narratives of Mothering Gill Rye, 2009 Mothers have been both idealized and demonized in Western cultures With Simone de Beauvoir s feminist analysis of motherhood in The Second Sex as her point of departure Rye Germanic and Romance studies U of London studies how French autobiographical and fictional narratives of mothering since 1990 differ from those told about them In the context of societal changes she explores themes including loss and trauma related to childbirth literally and figuratively ambivalence and guilt power and powerlessness and lesbian and single parenting in the works of Christine Angot Genevieve Brisac Marie Darrieussecq Camille Laurens Leila Marouane and Marie Ndiaye among others

Culture and Customs of France W. Scott Haine Ph.D., 2006-10-30 The French are of perennial interest for among other things their style their cuisine and wine and their cultural output Culture and Customs of France is a thoroughly jam packed narrative through the glories that France continues to offer the world The volume is a boon for preparing country reports a must read for travelers and perfect for culture studies Chapters on the land people and history religion social customs gender family and marriage cinema and media literature food and fashion architecture and art and performing arts are current and pleasurable to read

Courtivron, 2016-04-30 This volume a collection of essays by a number of high profile personalities working in philosophy literature sociology cinema theatre journalism and politics covers a number of recent and crucial developments in the field of French Feminisms that have made a reassessment necessary Beyond French Feminisms proposes to answer the question what is new in French Feminism at the beginning of the twenty first century The essays reflect the shift from the theoretical and philosophical approaches that characterized feminism twenty years ago to the more social and political questions of today Topics include the parity and PACS debates the France USA dialogue the multicultural issues and the new trends in literature and film by women

The Cambridge Introduction to French Literature Brian Nelson, 2015-06-11 An engaging highly accessible and informative introduction to French literature from the Middle Ages to the present

Redefining the Real Margaret-Anne Hutton, 2009 What is the literary fantastic and how does it manifest itself in the texts of French and francophone women writers publishing at the close of the twentieth and start of the twenty first century What do we mean today when we talk of the real and realism These are just some of the questions addressed by the papers in this volume which derive from a conference entitled The Fantastic in Contemporary Women's Writing in French held in London in September 2007 This book sets out to refocus through a non realist lens on the works of high profile authors Darrieussecq Nothomb Germain Cixous and NDiaye and some of their less highly publicised contemporaries It analyses and mobilises a wide range of both gendered and non gendered practices and theories of the contemporary fantastic whilst critically interrogating both of the latter terms and their inter relation

Feminist Periodicals, 2005

Affaires de famille, 2007-01-01 Famille je vous ai encore et toujours l'esprit je vous aime un peu beaucoup ou je vous hais norm ment What are families like in contemporary France And what begins to emerge when we consider them from the point of view of recent theoretical perspectives faulty cohesion fake coherence carefully planned or subversive deconstruction loss of love confidence or credibility or even utter chaos and alarming confusion Which media revamp old stereotypes generate alternative reinterpretations and imply more ambiguous answers What images scenes or frames stand out in contemporary representations of the family Uneasy contradictions and ambiguities emerge in this bilingual collection of approaches and genre studies The family plot seems to thicken as family ties appear to loosen Has the family been lost from sight or is it being reinvented in our collective imaginary This book proposes a new series of perspectives and questions on an old and familiar topic exploring the state and status of the family in contemporary literature culture critical and psychoanalytic theory and sociology

Women in French Studies, 2005

French Fiction Today Warren Motte, 2017-06-23 French Fiction Today focuses on the French novel in the twenty first century examining a series of works that are exemplary of broader currents in the genre Each of these texts wagers insistently upon our willingness to speculate about literature and its uses in an age when the value of literature is no longer taken as axiomatic Each of these texts may be thought of as a critical novel a form that calls upon us to engage with it in a critical manner promising that meaning will arise in the articulation of writing and reading Each of these authors participates in a debate about what the novel is as a cultural form in our present and about what it may become in a future that begins right now

New Daughters of Africa Various Authors, 2022-08-25 Three decades after her pioneering anthology Daughters of Africa Margaret Busby curates an extraordinary collection of contemporary writing by 200 women writers of African descent including Zadie Smith Bernardine Evaristo and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie A glorious portrayal of the richness and range of African women's voices this major international book brings together their achievements across a wealth of genres From Antigua to Zimbabwe and Angola to the USA overlooked artists of the past join key figures popular contemporaries and emerging writers in paying tribute to the heritage that unites them the strong links that endure from generation to generation and their common obstacles around issues of race gender and class Bold and insightful brilliant in its intimacy and universality this landmark anthology honours the talents of African daughters and the inspiring legacy that connects them and all of us
