The Mermaid Beside the Stream Stephen David Eteng,2015-07-29 The Mermaid beside the Stream is a philosophical fiction that depicts an uncommon characteristic of a fledgling entity too soon given to the pursuit of independence It is a tale about a stripling who desires to be allowed to do things on his own at an age when most children are still totally dependent on their mothers for everything including blowing their noses The young one finally got what he was looking for an opportunity to enjoy a couple of hours of freedom free of adult monitoring But as almost always happens albeit in disparate forms and shapes to those stubbornly striving for yet unattainable heights he would encounter a mermaid beside the stream a terror inflicting meeting that complicated his world and doomed him and his relatives and friends to a lifetime of adversity It seeks to look in depth into family values the troubles faced by parents in the upbringing of children it exposes the mistake inherent in the modern trend of not whipping children when they go astray with an underlying criticism of embracing the white mans culture at the expense of pure tradition handed down by our African forefathers It exposes the debilitating effects of fear and seeks to educate and liberate those who have allowed themselves to be shackled by it This book will appeal to all classes for like the stages of life it unfolds with bloodcurdling suspense life from cradle to early adulthood with each stage underscored by lively original poetry

The Telling: One Family, Two Centuries Daniel Tabor,2024-10-18 The Telling is a story of European Jewish identity set against the backdrop of the chronicles of one family going back through history as far as Napoleonic times Author Daniel Tabor tracks the experiences and changing perceptions of his family as they find themselves having to move locations often needing to flee oppression but also to take up new opportunities The approach to the writing is based on the time honoured Jewish tradition of older family members passing on their life stories and insights to younger ones as one way of keeping the family culture alive The book looks back at those who lived many years ago during the nineteenth century in the days when the family was establishing itself in Europe particularly in the Russian Pale and in Germany These stories are combined with those of his more recent relatives who travelled in Europe but also as far away as Israel and Australia to find safe havens from oppression or to make better lives for themselves How all these changes affected their perceptions of their identity is a central theme running through the book as are the influence of the places they lived in and how they remembered their life stories The book focuses heavily on the author's parents David and Hanna and their individual families But Daniel Tabor brings in the life stories of other relatives on both sides of his family too Overall the author has brought together the stories of twenty members of his family While there are tales of sadness there are also many tales of joy as the family members set about making the most of their lives dealing with numerous challenges thrown in their path displaying perseverance resilience courage and determination along the way The book is written in an engaging anecdotal style and includes many evocative family testimonies and photos providing a vivid picture of life in times gone by The Telling will appeal to those interested in Jewish history in general Jewish family histories the Holocaust the formation and development of the modern state of Israel the topic of people migration and also those interested in how others have overcome significant adversity to make a better life for themselves Finding a Life Partner Rajendra Gour,2011-04

For the Love of a Man Amrinder Bajaj,2016-08-31 Amrita is forced to submit to an arranged marriage though she loves another As long as she remains the image of glorified Indian womanhood she blends into the background She grows corns standing on the pedestal and steps down to do what pleases her A few breaths of unfettered air were all she could take before her virtue is irrevocably stained by an unsuitable lover All too soon the price of illicit love exceeds its pleasures Her parents condemn her her sons despise her and her husband tightens the net of matrimony despite her infidelity There is shame and blame and a devouring isolation In an attempt to retain her sanity she flees to the Himalayas In those lofty reaches she finds a startlingly simple solution to her problems she has to look inwards for the peace that eluded her No one else could give her that Filled with rich imagery beautiful prose and an occasional poem to more fully express overwhelming emotional moments this is the story of a woman torn between fulfilling the ideals she was raised to believe in and answering an internal need to experience life to greater depth When one is choked of all joy and possibility in life is it better to grab for the oxygen mask or allow oneself to die In presenting her story the narrator here poses these questions without apology or justification Recommended reading by US Review of Books Semi autobiographical this novel pulls on the author's experiences to build a rich wholly developed character in Amrita She is a protagonist we see grow from the start of the novel all the way to the last page Her journey feels unique to her particular circumstances but at the same time there are bits and pieces most women could pull examples from their own lives understand and relate to and learn from This is a book which will be remembered long after finishing Pacific Book Review a heart rending story of love and strife Bajaj arrestingly evokes the splendors and deprivations of India in the second half of the 20th century and makes a penetrating case for women forced into marriage and who can't even spend the salary that they earn Although Rosy too often finds neither sympathy nor understanding from the men in her life including eventually her own son Bajaj all but guarantees that she'll find sympathy from readers as she struggles with both her desires and the potential collapse of her family A passionate absorbing story of love rejection and the burden of tradition Kirkus Reviews Love Faith Death Tara Shah,2014-09-29 Cancer sucks death sucks even more But we humans don't have the power to stop either of them from messing with our lives They enter our lives whenever and wherever they choose to Cancer is so common that each one of us have known someone who has dealt with the disease some of us have lost a loved one to cancer Common does not always mean simple and it also does not mean we know everything about it The diagnosis of cancer regardless of the disease's curability is almost always nerve wracking even for healthcare providers like the main character of this book who is a veteran nurse This book is written in first person the subject is a middle aged woman who had been separated from her boyfriend some thirty years ago and then after three decades when she searches for an oncologist for treatment of an aggressive cancer that she was recently diagnosed she finds her ex boyfriend's name and decides to see him That brings back the memory of their past together and she starts going through her old diary she had written some thirty years in the past Part of the story is set in Nepal from the diary and the other part is set in the USA this takes place after her cancer diagnosis The main character of the story was born with Manglik cosmic influencer meaning that the planet Mars mangal Graha was in such position in the solar system at the time of her birth that it would have strong negative effect on her husband if she married a man who was non Manlik a person born at the time when the planet Mars was not in such position What happens next changes the lives of the main characters

Music to My Ears Neville Krasner,2018-01-03 Liverpudlian Tommy Jackson's life has its ups and downs He is being rehabilitated in Headley Court after losing a leg in Afghanistan and shares his hospital room with double amputee Jimbo and blind Cammy all injured in combat Tommy was recently married and has a baby daughter but he is soon to be discharged from the Rifles and left to find his own way in life He has no job to go to and his young family is in danger of outstaying their welcome at his in laws small house Steve Chalmers is an ex marine invalided out of the service after serious injuries to his leg His club Steve's Squaddies of which Tommy was a founding member takes on difficult youngsters to teach them self defense on condition that they make some contribution to the local community Murphy thug leader of the eponymous Pipe Band because of their use of copper pipes to instill fear in the population of Wavertree is Steve's sworn enemy and has promised to destroy the club and all it stands for Will Murphy succeed in disrupting Steve's newfound family life and his visionary work with the youngsters he mentors Pigeon Man Jim Emerton,2019-01-18 Jim Emerton bred and raced birds for 40 years and had birds return to the loft from as far as 879 miles away Now in retirement from active racing he devotes his time and energies to sharing his experiences his observations and his expertise with the rest of the fancy Here in one volume is a comprehensive collection of his thoughts about pigeons and pigeon racing ranging from short pieces originally written for the leading fanciers magazines to full length articles and interviews What unites us in principle is the common good of the sport and with this in mind I do what I can for others it all oils the cogs of the sport Some will see me as a know all yet I am a quiet little man making my mark that s all What is true is that I have made a life study of pigeons and as a teacher I like to impart knowledge and experience My aim is purely to tell it as it is to me and if this is illuminating to others then so be it Pink Knight C J Harvey,2019-03-06 Some ten thousand years ago Earth was visited by beings from another planet in the Barnard s Star system The Babylonians recorded that beings they called the Oannes were amphibious creatures who came to Earth for the welfare of the human race The historian Hellandus describes them as having fishlike features but the head feet and arms of a man They instructed humans in everything a civilized nation should know They built a city beneath Antarctica near the Davis Sea and have lived there peacefully and secretly ever since But now a rogue Dwarf Star called Zarama threatens the very existence of both Earth and the home planet Nazmos Their mythology predicts that a being from another planet will avert disaster Enter Ashley Bonner into this scenario He has been granted special gifts and the Oannes think he may be the predicted one Can Ashley really prevail against a star a third more massive than the sun This is the story of Ashley s development to manhood from age four to seventy and his ultimate sacrifice to save both worlds C J Harvey The Holocaust: A Guide to Europe's Sites, Memorials and Museums Rosie Whitehouse,2024-10-04 New from Bradt is The Holocaust Europe s Sites Museums and Memorials a unique travel guidebook to European locations that tell the story of the greatest crime ever perpetrated the Nazi genocide of 6 million Jews and other persecuted groups In recent years countries once reluctant to delve into the dark corners of their past have begun to document the history of the Holocaust and its aftermath Europe has many new ground breaking museums and memorials that tell us as much about the present as they do the past Chapters are dedicated to each country or region occupied by Nazi Germany plus nations like the UK and neutral Sweden which played a vital role both before and after the Holocaust Organised around city hubs in each country this Bradt guide helps visitors explore numerous destinations whether infamous well known or comparatively unexpected This is much much more than a guide to notorious sites such as Auschwitz Birkenau Buchenwald or Dachau You can take a walking tour in Vienna to view the new wall of names Or visit the Memorial des Martyrs de la Deportation in Paris Anne Frank House in Amsterdam or the Jewish Museum in Ferrara And you can learn how babies were smuggled out of the Kovno ghetto in potato sacks in Lithuania or read about Bavaria s Kloster Indersdorf a remarkable children s home that cared for survivors Written by a journalist and travel writer specialising in Jewish history Bradt s The Holocaust Europe s Sites Museums and Memorials provides the traveller with not only a list of must see sites in each country but also a comprehensive list of organisations that run tours commemorations and volunteer schemes Suggestions of where to eat and stay including Kosher restaurants and hotels ease the traveller s way as do descriptions of local Jewish organisations and tips on how to pace potentially difficult journeys into Europe s dark past Bradt s The Holocaust Europe s Sites Museums and Memorials is the first comprehensive travel guide to the genocide and the first to help the traveller understand the Holocaust by seeing the places where it
