Rough Road Home Stories By North Carolina Writers:

The Rough Road Home Robert Gingher, 2016-08-01 This anthology of twenty two short stories by contemporary North Carolina writers selected by Gingher the longtime book review editor of the Greensboro News and Record is a testament to the vitality of the literary tradition of the state Contributors include Alice Adams Maya Angelou Doris Betts Fred Chappell Clyde Edgerton Kaye Gibbons Allan Gurganus Randall Kenan Reynolds Price and Lee Smith This is where We Live

Michael McFee, 2000 A collection of twenty five short stories by North Carolina writers showcases the southern flavors and literary pyrotechnics born of this state's rich storytelling traditions Simultaneous The Companion to Southern

Literature Joseph M. Flora, Lucinda Hardwick MacKethan, 2001-11-01 Selected as an Outstanding Academic Title by Choice Selected as an Outstanding Reference Source by the Reference and User Services Association of the American Library Association There are many anthologies of southern literature but this is the first companion Neither a survey of masterpieces nor a biographical sourcebook The Companion to Southern Literature treats every conceivable topic found in southern writing from the pre Columbian era to the present referencing specific works of all periods and genres Top scholars in their fields offer original definitions and examples of the concepts they know best identifying the themes burning issues historical personalities beloved icons and common or uncommon stereotypes that have shaped the most significant regional literature in memory Read the copious offerings straight through in alphabetical order Ancestor Worship Blue Collar Literature Caves or skip randomly at whim Guilt The Grotesque William Jefferson Clinton Whatever approach you take The Companion's authority scope and variety in tone and interpretation will prove a boon and a delight Explored here are literary embodiments of the Old South New South Solid South Savage South Lazy South and Sahara of the Bozart As up to date as grit lit K Mart fiction and postmodernism and as old fashioned as Puritanism mules and the tall tale these five hundred entries span a reach from Lady to Lesbian Literature The volume includes an overview of every southern state's belletristic heritage while making it clear that the southern mind extends beyond geographical boundaries to form an essential component of the American psyche The South's lavishly rich literature provides the best means of understanding the region's deepest nature and The Companion to Southern Literature will be an invaluable tool for those who take on that exciting challenge Description of Contents 500 lively succinct articles on topics ranging from Abolition to Yoknapatawpha 250 contributors including scholars writers and poets 2 tables of contents alphabetical and subject and a complete index A separate bibliography for most entries Chapel Hill in Plain Sight Daphne Athas, 2010-07-21 A memoir by novelist Daphne Athas about coming of age in Chapel Hill during the Depression life during WWII and the McCarthy era Athas delves into the world of Southern writers and the shifting of a small college town into the New South's technocracy juggernaut These tales snatch the veil off racism classism politics and Vanity Fair worthy scandals that haunt says writer Randall Kenan Vale of Humility George Hovis, 2007 This is an inviting look at the influence of the yeoman's small farm on six modern southern writers In a deft analysis of works by Doris Betts Reynolds Price Fred Chappell Lee Smith Clyde Edgerton and Randall Kenan Vale of Humility explores the lives of the plain folk white and black who populate the worlds of contemporary North Carolina fiction Hovis explains that a wealthy planter elite was significantly less prominent in North Carolina than in neighboring regions and as such the state's plain folk did not develop a class identity based as deeply in relation to a superior planter class Instead the identification of the yeoman's small farm rather than the plantation as necessary to the ideal life has been a distinguishing feature of the state's literature In this first full length study of North Carolina's contemporary fiction Hovis examines the work of six representative writers from the state's three geographic regions Lee Smith and Fred Chappell from the mountains Doris Betts and Clyde Edgerton from the Piedmont and Reynolds Price and Randall Kenan from the coastal plain The work of these six writers is explored within the broader southern literary tradition with attention to how they have revised such modes as pastoral family saga and southwestern humor in order to portray their own regional experiences Although these writers celebrate the egalitarianism at the heart of the yeoman ideal they also expose the forms of racism sexism and classism that have also marked the state's history

Bargains in the Real World Elizabeth Cox,2001-05-15 In this finely crafted collection acclaimed writer Elizabeth Cox examines the lives of common people and how they deal with life when uncommon things happen to them how they accept their fate sometimes choosing to move on sometimes not The stories many set in the South deal with questions of loyalty betrayal discovery sexuality death birth and the inner dynamics that drive the choices we make The characters struggle with a complex mixture of kindness and violence and their final choices reveal a flawed but finally compassionate humanity Elizabeth Cox has an extraordinary talent for inhabiting her characters and capturing place sense and time This commanding group of stories will prove unforgettable The Greensboro review , The Virginia Quarterly Review ,1994 Kaye Gibbons Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2015-01-24 With novels like Ellen Foster and A Virtuous Woman award winning writer Kaye Gibbons has gained both critical acclaim and a large devoted following among readers This literary companion equips the reader with information about characters plots dates allusions literary motifs and themes from the bestselling author's works After an annotated chronology of Gibbons life the work presents 103 A Z entries that include Snodgrass's analysis cover the writings of reviewers and critics and provide selected bibliographies Appendices offer an historical timeline with references to corresponding historical events from Gibbons novels along with a list of 42 topics for group or individual research projects Shenandoah ,1993 Tar Heel Dead Sarah R.
