Rough Living Catherine Robinson, 2010-01-01 Rough Living Surviving Violence and Homelessness reveals the ways in which intense chains of disadvantage incorporating homelessness are triggered by very early experiences of violence Drawing on biographic interviews with six men and six women the book bears witness not only to horrendous repeated experiences of physical and sexual violence but discusses what may be understood as related multi dimensional vulnerability in areas such as physical and mental health education employment and social connectedness A picture of the long term cycles of violent victimisation and homelessness and their compounding traumatising effects are made clear and the importance of trauma informed service delivery is outlined as a key way forward Rough Living Tokuda

Shusei, 2001-02-28 Humorous and poignant Rough Living Arakure follows the fortunes of an ambitious young seamstress Oshima as she strives to survive and prosper in Meiji Japan Written in 1915 by Tokuda Shusei 1872 1943 the great chronicler of Japan s working class Rough Living explores the social transformations the country underwent in the early twentieth century from the perspective of a young woman who personifies the hungry entrepreneurial spirit of the times Through Oshima s eyes we see the formation of the structures of modern everyday life under capitalism as they evolved in Japan from the time of her birth in 1884 until the end of the novel around 1910 An unwanted child Oshima is adopted by a prosperous family but runs away repeatedly after refusing an arranged marriage to a young man with the feudal mentality of a slave Oshima endures a series of ineffectual husbands and lovers and failed business ventures but refuses to be the victim She does not tolerate derogatory treatment by men and shocks the citizens of Tokyo by wearing Western style dresses and riding a bicycle around the city to promote her tailoring business Largely through her efforts she and her common law husband prosper but in the end she relinquishes her hard won success for a chance to start a new business with an attractive employee she hopes to seduce Homelessness in Australia Chris Chamberlain, Guy Johnson, Catherine
