Interactions Nicholas Grene, Patrick Lonergan, Lilian Chambers, 2008 For over fifty years the Dublin Theatre Festival has been one of Ireland's most important cultural events, bringing countless new Irish plays to the world stage while introducing Irish audiences to the most important international theatre companies and artists. With contributions from leading scholars and practitioners, Interactions explores and celebrates the Festival's achievements since 1957, featuring essays on major Irish writers, directors, and theatre companies, as well as the impact of visiting directors and companies from abroad. An especially valuable feature of the volume also is a complete listing of the shows that have appeared at the Festival from 1957 to 2008.

BOOK JACKET This Rough Magic Daniel Lindley, 1993-11-30 Teachers in Lindley's view perform the equivalent of Prospero's rough magic in classrooms day in and day out. They do this as Shakespeare's magician did by combining their own stories, their own lives with the art and craft of teaching. Lindley sets out to heighten the awareness of experienced and novice teachers alike by connecting concrete illustrations of the teaching/learning process with the teacher's inner world. Lindley emphasizes the practical in his discussion of what happens when teachers and students interact in real classrooms. He makes use of his own and others' school teaching, his long experience as a director of a teacher education program, and his training in Jungian psychoanalysis. In the process, he has created a book to re-energize the in-service teacher and to educate the pre-service teacher. Parents, administrators, indeed anyone interested not only in teaching but in communicating across generational and cultural gaps will find this book fascinating and useful.
