Round The Twist:

Round the Twist, 2001 Horrifying Children Lauren Stephenson, Robert Edgar, John Marland, 2024-03-07 Horrifying Children examines weird and eerie children's television and literature via critical analysis memoir and autoethnography. There has been an explosion of interest in the impact of children's television and literature of the late twentieth century. In particular, the 1970s, 80s, and 90s are seen as decades that shaped a great deal of the contemporary cultural landscape. Television of this period dominated the world of childhood entertainment, drawing freely upon literature and popular culture like the Garbage Pail Kids and Stranger Things, and much of it continues to resonate powerfully with the generation of cultural producers, fiction writers, screenwriters, directors, musicians, and artists that grew up watching the weird, the eerie, and the horrific, the essence of 21st-century Hauntology. In these terms, this book is not about children's television as it exists now but rather as it features as a facet of memory in the 21st century. As such, it is the legacy of these television programmes that is at the core of Horrifying Children. The haunting of adults by what we have seen on the screen is crucial to the study. This collection directly addresses that which scared us in the past, inasmuch as there is a correlation between individual and collective cultural memory, with some chapters providing an opportunity for situating existing explorations and understandings of Gothic and Horror TV within a hauntological and experiential framework. Children, Youth, and International Television Debbie Olson, Adrian Schober, 2022-03-29 This volume explores how television has been a significant conduit for the public consumption of changing ideas about children, childhood, and national identity via a critical examination of programs that prominently feature children and youth in international television. The chapters connect relevant cultural attitudes within their respective countries to an analysis of children and/or childhood in international children's programming. The collection addresses how international children's programming in global and local context informs changing ideas about children and childhood, including notions of individual and citizen identity formation. Offering new insights into childhood and television studies, this book will be of great interest to graduate students, scholars, and professionals in television studies, childhood studies, media studies, cultural studies, popular culture studies, and American studies. Bloodbath Patricia Edgar, 2006-01-01 Patricia Edgar has been named one of the ten most influential people in the development of Australian television production. Her candid memoir offers a rare behind-the-scenes look at the television industry and its politics. It also tells her own story of how a young girl from Mildura became a leading innovator in Australian children's television production and a voice to be reckoned with in a tough business. As a regulator and policy maker, Dr Edgar's take no prisoners style won her great fans and made her bitter enemies. Dr Edgar was the first woman appointed to the Australian Broadcasting Control Board. For ten years, she fought for more locally produced first-release children's drama on Australian television. In the early 1980s, she helped establish the Australian Children's Television Foundation, creating some of the most celebrated television ever produced for Australian children, including the Round the Twist series, which sold into more than 100 countries During her twenty year tenure the ACTF won multiple awards including a coveted Emmy and made co productions with the BBC Disney and Revcom Along the way Dr Edgar worked with a host of notable Australians including Janet and Robert Holmes O Court Bruce Gyngell Hazel Hawke Phillip Adams Gulumbu Yunupingu and her brothers Galarrwuy and Mandawuy Steve Vizard Hilary McPhee and Paul Jennings Bloodbath sets its author s triumphs and setbacks in the television industry into the wider perspective of political and economic change the forces of consumerism and the global marketplace This memoir reveals Dr Edgar as she really is a sensitive thoughtful determined woman still working to make the media environment one of quality not pap and a force for learning as well as entertainment Bloodbath is a must read for every Australian in the media industry every parent raising a child every woman who ever strove for career success and anyone interested in how leadership works , Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1823 English/German Dictionary of Idioms Professor Hans Schemann,2013-04-15 This dictionary is the ideal supplement to the German English Dictionary of Idioms which together give a rich source of material for the translator from and into each language The dictionary contains 15 000 headwords each entry supplying the German equivalents variants contexts and the degree of currency rarity of the idiomatic expression This dictionary will be an invaluable resource for students and professional literary translators Not for sale in Germany Austria or Switzerland Writing Feature Stories Matthew Ricketson,2020-07-29 Good writing engages as it informs and feature journalism offers writers the opportunity to tell deep affecting stories that look beyond the immediate mechanics of who what where and when and explore the more difficult and more rewarding questions how and why Whether you re a blogger a news journalist or an aspiring lifestyle reporter a strong voice and a fresh informed perspective remain in short supply and strong demand this book will help you craft the kind of narratives people can t wait to share on their social media feeds Writing Feature Stories established a reputation as a comprehensive thought provoking and engaging introduction to researching and writing feature stories This second edition is completely overhauled to reflect the range of print and digital feature formats and the variety of online mobile and traditional media in which they appear This hands on guide explains how to generate fresh ideas research online and offline make the most of interviews sift and sort raw material structure and write the story edit and proofread your work find the best platform for your story and pitch your work to editors A wide ranging much needed master class for anyone who tells true yarns in this fast changing journalistic marketplace Bruce Shapiro Columbia University Useful and thought provoking Margaret Simons journalist and author A must read for any digital storyteller who wants to write emotive engaging believable content Nidhi Dutt foreign correspondent The Complete Practical Machinist: Embracing Lathe Work, Vise Work, Etc Joshua Rose,1876 The Complete Practical Machinist Joshua Rose,1885 The New Technical Educator ,1895 The Practice of Midwifery Alfred Lewis Galabin,George Blacker,1910 Notices of the Proceedings Royal Institution of Great Britain,1924 Chambers 21st Century Dictionary Allied, History of the Parsis Including Their Manners, Customs,
