Packard,2011-09-08 The Film Novelist is the first primer on writing film novels whether you are a beginning novelist a seasoned writer wanting to cross over into script novel writing or a creative writing teacher looking for proven ways to launch new writers So what is the difference between a screenplay and a film novel Screenplays indicate solely what the audience is to see or hear on screen Film novels are short and take about as long to read as a feature film takes to watch The description dialogue and narration of a film novel can simply be lifted out and used as the description dialogue and voice over narration for a script The author has devised a fifteen week program starting from a one sentence pitch to the novel itself which includes filming a scene from your script novel He grounds the discussion of early film novels like The Maltese Falcon Of Mice and Men and The Misfits to provide historical and theoretical background while detailing the practical sequential approach for completing a short novel and script Radical Innocence Bernard F. Dick,2021-08-24 On October 30 1947 the House Committee on Un American Activities concluded the first round of hearings on the alleged Communist infiltration of the motion picture industry Hollywood was ordered to clean its own house and ten witnesses who had refused to answer questions about their membership in the Screen Writers Guild and the Communist party eventually received contempt citations. By 1950 the Hollywood Ten as they quickly became known which included writers, directors and a producer were serving prison sentences ranging from six months to one year. Since that time the members of the Hollywood Ten have been either dismissed as industry hacks or eulogized as Cold War martyrs but never have they been discussed in terms of their professions. Radical Innocence: A Critical Study of the Hollywood Ten is the first study to focus on the work of the Ten: their short stories, plays, novels, criticisms, poems, memoirs and of course their films. Drawing on myriad sources including archival materials, unpublished manuscripts, black market scripts, screenplay drafts, letters and personal interviews, Bernard F. Dick describes the Ten's survival tactics during the blacklisting and analyzes the contributions of these ten individuals not only to film but also to the arts. Radical Innocence captures the personality of each of the Ten including the arrogant Herbert J. Biberman, the witty Ring Lardner Jr., the patriarchal Samuel Ornitz, the compassionate Adrian Scott and the feisty Dalton Trumbo. Motion Pictures Library of Congress, Copyright Office, 1951. When a young screenwriter goes online to check out the promotional website for a new poker movie called Rounders, he's shocked to discover how similar it is to a screenplay he wrote a few years earlier and submitted to a number of studios. When he later sees the Miramax-produced film in theaters, he is astonished by the number of overlapping elements: the protagonist playing Texas Hold'em to pay his way through college while deceiving the girlfriend who believes he's quit; the loss of everything he has in a single hand of high stakes Hold'em; a character named Worm; and many other commonalities that form the foundation of what will become his lawsuit against Miramax. He leaves the theater that day feeling that not only has the studio stolen his script but his life which had encompassed years of professional poker playing that informed the screenplay he hoped would open the door to a writing career in Hollywood Against all odds he proceeds to take on Miramax and the Hollywood system with the help of an ingenious lawyer Jeffrey Grosso simply has to prove how it could have happened and convince a judicial system that often favors studios over writers that he is a victim of intellectual property theft which results in a ten year landmark legal battle against Hollywood's most notorious studio Part comic legal thriller part nail biting poker memoir Dirty Dealing Grosso v Miramax Waging War Against Harvey Weinstein and the Screenplay that Changed Hollywood is the entertaining look at one man's fight to get the credit he believes he deserves Does he have a case or are the similarities just an illusion the mind plays on a creator Perhaps there are only five stories in Hollywood as his lawyer points out and no idea is truly original You be the judge Portobello Road Francis DiPietro, 2001-10 One man carries the weight of Generation X Kyle Waterman a mild mannered insurance agent from Denver quits his job and leaves his family to hop the first Greyhound to anywhere He thought he was escaping but with the help of a drug laden Indian named Emerson Redcreek and a macho arrogant wreck named Bill Capresci Kyle finds himself transported to the world of Portobello a Naked Lunch type universe where gophers talk drugs are king and Kyle is the leader of a growing anti establishment cult called Silverdew Gincane With members joining at every stop Kyle's cult quickly becomes one of the greatest enemies of the U S government He relocates his people to Paraguay only to have an army and the ghosts of his past follow and destroy him A seminal tour de force DiPietro is on the cutting edge of dangerous fiction with Portobello Road Breakfast with Sharks Michael Lent, 2007-12-18 What They Didn't Teach You in Your Screenwriting Course Screenwriters listen up Breakfast with Sharks is not a book about the craft of screenwriting This is a book about the business of managing your screenwriting career from advice on choosing an agent to tips on juggling three deal making breakfasts a day Prescriptive and useful Breakfast with Sharks is a real guide to navigating the murky waters of the Hollywood system Unlike most of the screenwriting books available here's one that tells you what to do after you've finished your surefire hit screenplay Written from the perspective of Michael Lent an in the trenches working screenwriter in Hollywood this is a real world look into the script to screen business as it is practiced today Breakfast with Sharks is filled with useful advice on everything from the ins and outs of moving to Los Angeles to understanding terms like spec option and assignment Here you'll learn what to expect from agents and managers and who does what in the studio hierarchy And most important Breakfast with Sharks will help you nail your pitch so the studio exec can't say no Rounded out with a Q A section and resource lists of script competitions film festivals trade associations industry publications and more Breakfast with Sharks is chock full of take this and use it right now information for screenwriters at any stage of their careers Motion Picture and Television Almanac Terry Ramsaye, 1954 Dramas and Works Prepared for Oral Delivery Library of Congress.
