Royal Air Force Builds For War:

The Royal Air Force Builds for War Great Britain. Air Force Department. Air Historical Branch,1997 This text looks at the less glamorous war efforts such as constructing Nissan huts airfields and sewage disposal schemes in Middle Wallop conducting bomb trials in Orfordness devising mud hut officers messes in Nigeria and carved out caves in Massawa This is a facsimile edition of a declassified Royal Air Force publication entitled Works It is an engineer s history of the work of the Air Ministry Directorate General from 1935 to 1945 and a technical paper on ten years of constructional work The RAF and Aircraft Design, 1923-1939 Colin Sinnott,2001 This work describes the vital role of the Air Ministry in the development of the RAF s fighters and bombers before WWII The RAF and Aircraft Design Colin S Sinnott,2014-05-22 This work examines the evolution of the RAF s operational requirements for its home defence air force for bombers to mount a deterrent counter offensive and for fighters to provide direct defence of Britain It discusses the management processes policies and decisions relevant to operational requirements on the basis of a detailed study of Air Ministry papers of the time By tracing the development of operational requirements the author exposes the thinking behind the RAF s quest for effective fighter and bomber aircraft He describes the ideas and concepts of air warfare that were adopted in the 1920s and shows how these evolved into the Air Staff s requirements for the aircraft which the RAF entered and fought in World War II

Two Roads to War Robin Higham,2012-06-15 Noted aviation historian Robin Higham has written this comparative study of the evolution of the French and British air arms from 1918 to 1940 to determine why the Arm e de l Air was defeated in June 1940 but the Royal Air Force was able to win the battle over Britain in September After analyzing the structure men and material of the air arms and the government and economic infrastructure of both countries he concludes that the French force was dominated by the Arm e de Terre had no suitably powerful aero engines and suffered from the chaos of French politics In contrast the independent RAF evolved into a sophisticated scientifically based force supported by consistent government practices Higham s thorough examination however finds the British not without error The Royal Air Force in the Cold War, 1950-1970 Ian Proctor,2015-01-30 Soon after the Second world War wartime allies became Cold War adversaries and by 1950 the perceived threat of a Soviet strike on Western Europe or Britain dominated military planning For the next forty years the Royal Air Force was in the front line of the Cold War In Britain and Germany light bomber crews exercised in preparation for a future conflict while interceptor pilots stood by ready to counter incursions by Soviet aircraft Between 1956 and 1969 the elite crews of the iconic V Force of nuclear bombers trained to perform the ultimate mission striking targets deep in the heart of Russia Protecting British interests overseas personnel at stations across the Middle East and Far East were regularly engaged in supporting operations during the many colonial conflicts which occurred throughout the 1950s and 1960s Undertaking these duties were new British designed aircraft introduced to squadrons from the early 1950s The names of these extraordinary aircraft which included the Hunter Lightning Vulcan and Canberra became synonymous with the Cold War In this book Ian Proctor uses over 150 highly evocative colour images from a single remarkable Air Ministry collection to portray the RAF and its personnel between 1950 and 1970 He provides a selected insight into service life the aircraft recruitment and training and the operations and exercises undertaken by the RAF during a twenty year period of the Cold War Royal Air Force Quarterly and Commonwealth Air Forces Journal ,1942 RAF Tornado Units of Gulf War I Michael Napier,2021-05-27 When the Gulf Crisis of 1990 was triggered by the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait the RAF responded by sending Tornado F 3 fighters to Saudi Arabia to help defend the country against further aggression These aircraft were followed by the deployment of Tornado GR 1 strike attack aircraft to Bahrain Eventually three wings of Tornado GR 1s were established in Bahrain Tabuk and Dhahran as well as a detachment of Tornado GR 1A reconnaissance aircraft At the start of hostilities in January 1991 the Tornado GR 1 wings carried out night low level attacks against Iraqi Main Operating Bases using the JP233 runway denial weapon Meanwhile Combat Air Patrols from the Tornado F 3 wing ensured the integrity of Saudi airspace Once air supremacy had been established the Tornado GR 1 force moved to medium level operations initially by night and later by day to attack the Iraqi oil production and storage infrastructure The arrival in theatre of a laser designation capability with Pave Spike Buccaneer and TIALD Tornado enabled precision attacks against the Iraq transport system to cut off the frontline troops from resupply and reinforcement and then to carry out a systematic destruction of the airfield facilities Tornado GR 1A reconnaissance operations played a major role in the location of Scud missile launchers and in the planning and execution of the land offensive Throughout the conflict the Tornado F 3 wing at Dhahran carried out defensive counter air operations to ensure the safety of the base areas This volume publishing 30 years after the conflict to free Kuwait provides detailed first hand accounts of the missions undertaken by the Tornado crews It is illustrated by photographs taken by aircrew involved in the operation and includes 30 newly commissioned profile artworks and detailed nose art views of the aircraft ranged against Iraq Medical Support of the Army Air Forces in World War II Mae Mills Link,Hubert A. The Royal Air Force: The Trenchard Years, 1918-1929 Ian M. Philpott,2005-07-19 The inter war years between 1918 and 1939 saw the newly created Royal Air Force fighting for its very existence politically being dispatched to the remotest corners of the British Empire and its Protectorates in various policing roles and then finally engaged in a headlong rush to modernize in the face of the new German Fascist regime that was threatening British and European freedom Yet this important period in RAF history and its effect on political and military rationale during the period has never been completely documented This exhaustive and comprehensive reference is the most detailed work to be published on the subject The author gives full information on the changing structure of the Force during the period squadron operations political machinations and their effects the airplanes and their equipment the personnel technical advances in navigation and breakthroughs achieved in engine performance The book is cross referenced throughout extremely well illustrated and contains an abundance of location maps and other diagrams This book will become a Bible for anyone interested in the history of the RAF This work has been reviewed by personnel at the RAF Historical Branch who praise it The Royal Air Force John Buckley,Paul Beaver,2018-06-22 In 1918 the Royal Air Force became the first major independent air force in the world Formed to serve a strategic need in the most intensive war that Britain had then fought the RAF continued in the inter war era to play a key role in the political and diplomatic world and in defending the Empire During the Second World War the RAF was pivotal in defending Britain from invasion in the Battle of Britain and then in leading the assault on the Axis powers most notably through the contentious bomber offensive against Germany In the post war world the RAF adapted and developed into a force to meet the needs of the United Kingdom during the Cold War the retreat from Empire and most recently in the move to coalition warfare against low intensity threats all against a backdrop of diminishing resources and shifting priorities This is the story of the RAF over the first century of its existence how it has confronted the many challenges and threats it has faced from the Luftwaffe in 1940 through the spectre of nuclear holocaust in the Cold War to the fight against terrorism in the 21st century and how it has contributed to the defence of the United Kingdom throughout that period Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger,2013-10-31 This book contains some 600 entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders

Ferdinand Eberstadt,1945 The Royal Air Force: Re-Armament 1930 to 1939 Ian M. Philpott,2006-07-20 Volume II of this mammoth reference work covers the years in which the League of Nations failed because of the emerging dictatorships in Germany and Italy and the expansionist policies adopted by Japan Britain was still reeling from the consequences of World War I and the RAF was sadly far behind the other major world powers in aircraft design still relying on bi planes that were direct descendants of World War I thinking It gradually became apparent that despite UK government dithering the RAF needed to develop new aircraft engines and increase production to confront the bully boy tactics of the Axis powers As the turn of the decade approached extraordinary measures were taken to enable RAF to defend Britain's skies and this her freedom As with Volume 1 this book covers every conceivable part of the RAF's history through these pre War days It looks at the development and invention of new equipment such as radar monoplane fighters metal construction and the heavy bomber This was an era when science in aviation was rushing ahead and fortunately for Britain's freedom it laid the foundations of victory in 1943 The American Aircraft Factory in World War II Bill Yenne,2010-09-10 Few industrial phenomena have been as dramatic as the United States mid 20th century shift from peacetime to wartime production The American Aircraft Factory in World War II documents the production of legendary warbirds by companies like Boeing North American Curtiss Consolidated Douglas Grumman and Lockheed It was a production unmatched by any other country and a crucial part of why the allies won the war Author Bill Yenne considers the prewar governmental acts that got the plants rolling as well as the gender shift that occurred as women entered the work force like never before He also describes the construction of megafactories like Willow Run factory design considerations and the postwar conversion back to peacetime production Illustrated with 175 period photographs including 50 rare color photos never before seen in print
