Maturation of Devotion Michael Toombs, 2005-06-01 Throughout the history of the spoken word poetry has been used to express feelings and emotions These emotions have come in numerous forms and degrees of maturity Love the most powerful emotion has been the vehicle to carry a person to many other exciting destinations Passion euphoria playfulness and sadness are all a part of the human experience and the loving heart has visited them all probably many times over Contemplating our surroundings wondering how it all came to be and what lies beyond this world all tend to lead a person into a sense of devotion to life and everything it involves Simply existing is not living To fully live we must strive to make the lives of those around us better The world should be a better place because we were here not in spite of the fact Otherwise we are just taking up space that could be put to better use

Melancholia and Maturation Eric L. Tribunella, 2010-01-15 Coming of age in children s fiction often means achieving maturity through the experience of trauma In classics ranging from Old Yeller to The Outsiders a narrative of psychological pain defies expectations of childhood as a time of innocence and play In this provocative new book Eric L. Tribunella explores why trauma especially the loss of a loved object occurs in some of the most popular and critically acclaimed twentieth century American fiction for children Tribunella draws on queer theory and feminist revisions of Freud s notion of melancholia which is described as a fundamental response to loss arguing that the low grade symptoms of melancholia are in fact what characterize the mature sober and responsible American adult Melancholia and Maturation looks at how this effect is achieved in a society that purports to protect youngsters from every possible source of danger thus requiring melancholia to be induced artificially Each of the book s five chapters focuses on a different kind of lost object sacrificed so as to propel the child toward a distinctively gendered sexual ethical and national adulthood from same sex friends to the companionship of boy and his dog stories from the lost ideals of historical fiction about the American Revolution to the children killed or traumatized in Holocaust novels The author examines a wide spectrum of works including

Jack London's dog tales the contemporary realistic novels of S E Hinton and Newbery Medal winners like Johnny Tremain and Bridge to Terabithia Tribunella raises fundamental questions about the value of children's literature as a whole and provides context for understanding why certain books become required reading for youth Eric L Tribunella is assistant professor of English at the University of Southern Mississippi His articles have been published in Children's Literature Association Quarterly Children's Literature in Education The Lion and the Unicorn A Critical Journal of Children's Literature and Children's Literature The genius of the gospel; a homiletical commentary on the Gospel of st. Devoted to Death R. Andrew Chesnut,2025 This new third edition of Devoted to Death Santa Muerte the Skeleton Saint offers a fascinating portrayal of Santa Muerte a skeleton saint whose cult has become the fastest growing new religious movement worldwide over the past two decades Although condemned by mainstream churches this folk saint's supernatural powers appeal to millions in Latin America the U S and beyond Devotees believe the Bony Lady as she is affectionately called to be the fastest and most effective miracle worker and as such her statuettes and paraphernalia now outsell those of the Virgin of Guadalupe and Saint Jude two other giants of Mexican religiosity In particular Santa Muerte has become the patron saint of drug traffickers playing an important role as protector of peddlers of fentanyl and marijuana DEA agents and Mexican police often find her altars in the safe houses of drug smugglers Yet Saint Death plays other important roles she is a supernatural healer love doctor money maker lawyer and angel of death She has become without doubt one of the most popular and powerful saints of both the Latin American and American religious landscapes The Irish Ecclesiastical Record ,1920 Awakenings Chittister, Joan,2022-03-23 Selected essays by Benedictine Sister Joan Chittister on themes of women in the church spirituality and the Benedictine vision The God-Image Lionel Corbett,2021-11-01 This book describes the development of images of God beginning in antiquity and culminating in Jung's notion of the Self an image of God in the psyche that Jung calls the God within Over the course of history the Self has been projected onto many local gods and goddesses and given different names and attributes These deities are typically imagined as existing in a heavenly realm but Jung s approach recalls them to their origins in the objective psyche This book shows how Jung s approach avoids many of the philosophical problems produced by traditional anthropomorphic images of God and describes the myriad symbolic ways in which the Self may appear independently of doctrinal images of God By focusing on the empirical psychological manifestations of the Self Jung s approach avoids arguments for and against the existence of a metaphysical God
