Guillaume Favre

A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red and then into the white background of the slide.

Ndebele The Art Of An African Tribe:

Ndebele Margaret Courtney-Clarke, 2002 For generations the women of the Ndebele of southern Africa have produced an art of remarkable richness and vitality In their ceremonial beadwork and in large murals that cover the exterior walls of their mud dwellings these women have created designs that are at once ancient and modern in their simplicity bright colours and abstract patterns Ndebele Ivor Powell, 1995 Ndebele; the art of an African Tribe M. COURTNEY-CLARKE, 1986 Ndebele, 1986 The Art of Africa Christa Clarke, Rebecca Arkenberg, 2006 By focusing on forty works from the Metropolitan's collection this educator's resource kit presents the rich and diverse artistic heritage of sub-Saharan Africa Included are a brief introduction and history of the continent an explanation of the role of visual expression in Africa descriptions of the form and function of the works lesson plans class activities map bibliography and glossary The Conservation of Decorated Surfaces on Earthen Architecture L. Rainer (ed.), Angelyn Bass Rivera, 2006 For millennia people of all cultures have decorated the surfaces of their domestic religious and public buildings Earthen architecture in particular has been and continues to be a common ground for surface decoration such as paintings sculpted bas-relief and ornamental plasterwork This volume explores the complex issues associated with preserving these surfaces Case studies from Asia Europe Africa the Middle East and the Americas are presented The publication is the result of a colloquium held in 2004 at Mesa Verde National Park Colorado co-organized by the Getty Conservation Institute GCI and the National Park Service NPS The meeting brought together fifty-five conservators cultural resource managers materials scientists engineers architects archaeologists anthropologists and artists from eleven countries Divided into four themes Archaeological Sites Museum Practice Historic Buildings and Living Traditions the papers examine the conservation of decorated surfaces on earthen architecture within these different contexts Geometry from Africa Paulus Gerdes, 1999-12-31 This book draws on geometric ideas from cultural activities from Sub-Saharan Africa and demonstrates how they may be explored to develop mathematical reasoning from school level through to university standard Paulus Gerdes provides a thoroughly illustrated and researched exploration of mathematical ideas motifs and patterns Many important mathematical points are brought to the fore not via the formal theorem proof method but in a more schematic and diagrammatic manner African artifacts oral traditions sand drawing and other forms of artwork with a geometric basis all provide mathematical ideas for discussion in this unique book Mathematicians and teachers of mathematics at all levels will be fascinated as will anybody with an interest in African cultures Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana: The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia's coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in Africa itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth

Africa in the American Imagination Carol Magee, 2012-04-26 In the American world the presence of African culture is sometimes fully embodied and sometimes leaves only a trace Africa in the American Imagination Popular Culture Racialized Identities and African Visual Culture explores this presence examining Mattel's world of Barbie the 1996 Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue and Disney World each of which repackages African visual culture for consumers Because these cultural icons permeate American life they represent the broader U.S. culture and its relationship to African culture This study integrates approaches from art history and visual culture studies with those from culture race and popular culture studies to analyze this interchange Two major threads weave throughout One analyzes how the presentation of African visual culture in these popular culture forms conceptualizes Africa for the American public The other investigates the way the uses of African visual culture focuses America's own self-awareness particularly around black and white racialized identities In exploring the multiple meanings that Africa has in American popular culture Africa in the American Imagination argues that these cultural products embody multiple perspectives and speak to various sociopolitical contexts the Cold War civil rights and contemporary eras of the United States the apartheid and post-apartheid eras of South Africa the colonial and postcolonial eras of Ghana and the European era of African colonization

O'Connell,2012-11-01 The idea and ideal of beauty has been used to oppress women of different ages body types skin color and physical ability The theoretical discussion of aesthetics has also been conditioned by these same dynamics of power and oppression In She Who Imagines a diverse set of scholars challenges the exclusion and false definitions while constructing capacious ideas that discover beauty in unexpected places In these essays the authors draw on a variety of arts media painting photography portraiture craftwork poetry and hip hop music thereby joining beauty to truth and in a richly defining way to the practice of justice In a variety of ways all the essays link women s definitions of beauty with experiences of suffering and hence with the yearning for justice All clearly prize resistance to degradation as an essential element of thought Africa Special Report ,1986 Northern Ghanaian Women's Artistry Brittany Sheldon,2023-12-06 Many existing studies present women s artistry as a consistent and enduring element of Indigenous culture emphasizing overarching systems of artistic practices aesthetic goals and symbolic repertoires Brittany Sheldon complicates this image within

Northern Ghanaian Women s Artistry Visualizing Culture by emphasizing variations in individual training knowledge experience techniques skills and ideas that inevitably exist among artists and within their communities This book traces women s wall painting known as bamb lse in northern Ghana Based on extensive observations and numerous interviews Sheldon digs into women artists experiences and knowledge and describes their technical processes This book delves into the history of bamb lse how this tradition has changed over time and how it is tied to understandings of gender social hierarchy cultural identity and memory Rather than portraying the tradition as static Sheldon demonstrates how women adapt their artistry to changing circumstances including shifting preferences incentives markets and audiences With its vivid descriptions and detailed discussions this book brings women artists and their wall paintings to life for readers and as such it is relevant to scholars and students of African art history anthropology and gender studies In Her Hands Paola

Gianturco,Toby Tuttle,2004 Foreword by Alice Walker From the dollmakers of Turkey to the batik artists of Indonesia women in developing economies provide for their families by creating and selling indigenous crafts which draw on cultural traditions Often driven by the harsh realities of poverty these craftswomen come together in groups creating a kind of micro enterprise often strengthened into cooperatives through financial aid In this volume we hear their individual voices culled from five years of travelling and meeting these resourceful and creative women The Idea of Africa V. Y. Mudimbe,1994-11-22 this is a remarkable book It will occupy a significant place in the critical literature of African Studies International Journal of African Historical Studies To read Mudimbe is to walk through a museum of many exhibits in the company of an erudite companion who explains with much learned commentary what you are seeing American Anthropologist Mudimbe's sympathetic yet rigorous accounts of such diverse Africanist discourses as Herskovits's cultural relativism and contemporary Afrocentricity bring to the surface the underlying goals and contexts in which these were produced Ivan Karp A sequel to his highly acclaimed The Invention of Africa this is V Y Mudimbe's exploration of how the idea of Africa was constructed by the Western world

Beads of life Marie-Louise Labelle, 2005-01-01 Beads of Life is a fascinating exploration of traditional beadwork from eastern and southern Africa as well as the socio religious principles upon which many aesthetic choices were based The author concludes with an examination of contemporary beadwork as seen in particular through the eyes of Canadians from these regions Published in English

Encyclopedia of Africa Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2010 The Encyclopedia of Africa presents the most up to date and thorough reference on this region of ever growing importance in world history politics and culture Its core is comprised of the entries focusing on African history and culture from 2005's acclaimed five volume Africana nearly two thirds of these 1 300 entries have been updated revised and expanded to reflect the most recent scholarship Organized in an A Z format the articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religions ethnic groups organizations and countries throughout Africa There are articles on contemporary nations of sub Saharan Africa ethnic groups from various regions of Africa and European colonial powers Other examples include Congo River Ivory trade Mau Mau rebellion and Pastoralism The Encyclopedia of Africa is sure to become the essential resource in the field
