

A black and white historical photograph of a street scene in Worcester, Massachusetts. In the foreground, a trolley is stopped on a street. Several people are visible, some standing near the trolley and others further down the street. In the background, there are several buildings, including one with a sign that reads "MACHINE COMPANY". The title "Once-Told Tales of Worcester County" is overlaid on the image in a large, stylized font.

Southwick,1985-01-01      More Once-told Tales of Worcester County Albert B. Southwick,1994      Remembering Lake Quinsigamond Michael P. Perna,1998 Less than a centruy ago Lake Quinsigamond was the home of countless social and athletic clubs and recreational facilities which delighted many visitors Michael Perna describes popular places and exciting events in detail in this pictorial history through photographs of boats beaches trains amusements and the multitudes of people that once flocked to the lake all summer long      THE SHADOW OF SACRIFICE Donald D. Deignan,2016-10-24 On March 18 1942 barely one hundred days after Japan s devastating surprise attack on the United States Navy s Pacific Fleet based at Pearl Harbor a group of American soldiers were guarding a beach on the north shore of the Hawaiian island of Oahu against an expected Japanese amphibious invasion The atmosphere was tense Suddenly a gunshot shattered the almost perfect silence of that tropical night In its aftermath one young American soldier lay dead not far from the beach he was guarding But who was he And what were the circumstances which had led to his tragic death The Shadow of Sacrifice answers these questions and in the process tells the compelling and poignant story of the way in which that single gunshot has echoed down through the generations of one typical American family Here is a mystery a tragedy a kind of love story a tale of survival and transformation and the unfolding record of promises made and kept The young American soldier who died mysteriously on that Hawaiian beach in 1942 was my beloved uncle Private First Class Donald Joseph John Deignan for whom I was proudly named Our lives have always been closely and positively connected Here just in time for the 75th Anniversary of the Pearl Harbor Attack is a thorough examination of the unbreakable and mutually beneficial bonds of love and loyalty which still unite us today Veterans and their families Baby boomers immigrants and people with disabilities will all find themselves reflected in our particular story      Women and Reform in a New England Community, 1815-1860 Carolyn J. Lawes,2021-10-21 Interpretations of women in the antebellum period have long dwelt upon the notion of public versus private gender spheres As part of the ongoing reevaluation of the prehistory of the women s movement Carolyn Lawes challenges this paradigm and the primacy of class motivation She studies the women of antebellum Worcester Massachusetts discovering that whatever their economic background women there publicly worked to remake and improve their community in their own image Lawes analyzes the organized social activism of the mostly middle class urban white women of Worcester and finds that they were at the center of community life and leadership Drawing on rich local history collections Lawes weaves together information from city and state documents court cases medical records church collections newspapers and diaries and letters to create a portrait of a group of women for whom constant personal and social change was the norm Throughout Women and Reform in a New England Community conventional women make seemingly unconventional choices A wealthy Worcester matron helped spark a women led rebellion against ministerial authority in the town s orthodox

Calvinist church Similarly a close look at the town's sewing circles reveals that they were vehicles for political exchange as well as social gatherings that included men but intentionally restricted them to a subordinate role By the middle of the nineteenth century the women of Worcester had taken up explicitly political and social causes such as an orphan asylum they founded funded and directed Lawes argues that economic and personal instability rather than a desire for social control motivated women even relatively privileged ones into social activism She concludes that the local activism of the women of Worcester stimulated and was stimulated by their interest in the first two national women's rights conventions held in Worcester in 1850 and 1851 Far from being marginalized from the vital economic social and political issues of their day the women of this antebellum New England community insisted upon being active and ongoing participants in the debates and decisions of their society and nation

Armenians of Worcester Pamela Apkarian-Russell, 2000 At the beginning of the twentieth century millions of immigrants came to the United States in search of a better life and greater opportunities for their families However the Armenians who came to Worcester between 1894 and 1930 were escaping a devastating genocide that tore their country apart What they found and how they became an integral part of Worcester culture and history is the story found in Armenians of Worcester Worcester was a mecca for many Armenians who had escaped with little more than their lives There were mills that provided work and there was a growing number of Armenians who were struggling to make sense of what had happened in their homeland The first Armenian Apostolic church and the first Armenian Protestant church in America were both in this city and both helped to build new foundations for a community that was to enrich the city and slowly resurrect the art theater music and food that celebrates the Armenian culture The Armenian picnics that were an integrating influence in the early years continue even today as a gathering of clans and all who join in on these days of celebration

The History of Woodbury and Company Kent Ljungquist, James P. Hanlan, Rodney G. Obien, 2007 This volume presents for the first time an edited version of Harold D Woodbury's Notes on the History of Woodbury Company Inc This history offers a fascinating glimpse into the workings of a family firm that emerged as the largest commercial engraver in central New England in the 1890s The company specialized in Bird's Eye Views of factories and industrial buildings large numbers of which graced the walls of boardrooms and executive suites in the Northeast and throughout North America A notable success for the company in addition to its excellence in engraved letterheads was its series of First Day Covers pictorial impressions of commemorative stamps The introduction to this volume focuses on printing and printing related businesses in Worcester Massachusetts their founders' contributions to technological innovation and contributions to New England's workforce

Homelands and Waterways Adele Logan Alexander, 2007-12-18 This monumental history traces the rise of a resolute African American family the author's own from privation to the middle class In doing so it explodes the stereotypes that have shaped and distorted our thinking about African Americans both in slavery and in freedom Beginning with John Robert Bond who emigrated from England to fight in the Union Army during the Civil War and married a recently freed slave Alexander shows three generations of Bonds as they take chances and break new ground From Victorian England to antebellum Virginia from Herman Melville s New England to the Jim Crow South from urban race riots to the battlefields of World War I this fascinating chronicle sheds new light on eighty crucial years in our nation s troubled history The Bond family s rise from slavery their interaction with prominent figures such as W E B DuBois and Booker T Washington and their eventual uneasy realization of the American dream shed a great deal of light on our nation s troubled heritage Favorite Places of Worcester County Lawrence J. Abramoff, Larry Abramoff, Gloria Abramoff, Ann Lindblad, 1995 Looking Back on a Half Century William J. Larkin, 2014-08-05 Sixty two stories about growing up in Worcester MA around the turn of the 20th century written by William J Larkin a first generation Irish Catholic who for over fifty years made his career reporting on Worcester news The stories were first published in a Worcester Evening Post newspaper column called Looking Back on a Half Century in 1935 This version includes an introduction forward and biography of William J Larkin Arab-American Faces and Voices Elizabeth Boosahda, 2010-01-01 As Arab Americans seek to claim their communal identity and rightful place in American society at a time of heightened tension between the United States and the Middle East an understanding look back at more than one hundred years of the Arab American community is especially timely In this book Elizabeth Boosahda a third generation Arab American draws on over two hundred personal interviews as well as photographs and historical documents that are contemporaneous with the first generation of Arab Americans Syrians Lebanese Palestinians both Christians and Muslims who immigrated to the Americas between 1880 and 1915 and their descendants Boosahda focuses on the Arab American community in Worcester Massachusetts a major northeastern center for Arab immigration and Worcester s links to and similarities with Arab American communities throughout North and South America Using the voices of Arab immigrants and their families she explores their entire experience from emigration at the turn of the twentieth century to the present day lives of their descendants This rich documentation sheds light on many aspects of Arab American life including the Arab entrepreneurial motivation and success family life education religious and community organizations and the role of women in initiating immigration and the economic success they achieved Who Owns the Sky? Stuart Banner, 2008-11-30 A collection of curious tales questioning the ownership of airspace and a reconstruction of a truly novel moment in the history of American law Banner s book reminds us of the powerful and reciprocal relationship between technological innovation and the law Bibliographic Guide to North American History, 1986 New England Joseph E. Coduri, Committee for a New England Bibliography, 1989 Ernest Thayer's "Casey at the Bat" Jim Moore, Natalie Vermilyea, 1994 Ernest Thayer s Casey at the Bat was first published in the San Francisco Daily Examiner on June 3 1888 Its popularity owed much to the universality of its subject every city seemed to have a Casey on its team Thayer a Harvard graduate said little about the real Casey though he did leave a few clues The verses owe their existence he wrote in 1930 to my enthusiasm for college baseball and to my association with Will Hearst Thayer s background is examined here as the basis for determining the origins of the colorfast cast of characters behind his Ballad of the Republic men who may have been Casey Flynn Cooney and other members of the Mudville Nine      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1995-02      The Cumulative Book Index ,1996 A world list of books in the English language      □□□□□□ ,1995      Memories Marty Civin,2009-07-13 My writing of Memories has been a labor of love for several seasons The first section covers the years from 1932 to 1951 The second edition details 1951 to 1964 and the third covers 1964 to the present The day after Labor Day in 2002 marked the 70th anniversary of the arrival of the Civin family in Spencer It was in the heart of the Great Depression when my parents established a tiny dry goods store at 47 Mechanic Street in Spencer MA Marty Civin <http://memoriesbymartycivin.blogspot.com>
