Out Of The Ruins Of Europe:

Out of the Ruins of Europe Walter Laqueur, 1971

Studies in the Interwar European Economy Derek H.

Aldcroft, 2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this book analyses some of the key economic issues facing Europe in the interwar period against the uncertain international political and economic background of the time Among the subjects discussed are the legacy of the peace settlements inflation trade and reconstruction international lending depression and recovery the position of Eastern and Central Europe and the progress of the peripheral nations The book contends that the peace treaties raised more problems than they solved while the policy mistakes of the Allied powers after the First World War and their failure to devise an adequate programme of economic and financial reconstruction weakened the already divided continent contributing to its disintegration Michael Oakeshott Selected Writings Collection Michael

Oakeshott, 2014-08-26 A collection of 6 volumes of Oakeshott's work Notebooks 1922-86 Early Political Writings 1925-30 The Concept of a Philosophical Jurisprudence Vocabulary of a Modern European State Lectures in the History of Political Thought and What is History The Cambridge History of the European Union: Volume 1, European Integration Outside-In Mathieu

Segers, Steven Van Hecke, 2023-11-09 Volume I examines the history of the European Union from an outside in perspective asking the following questions how does the European Union look from the outside and which outside forces shaped and guided the process of European integration Split into three parts the first addresses the main external events that have steered the European integration process with emphasis placed on critical junctures following the Second World War such as the division and reunification of Germany and the Eastern enlargement Part II considers the various international trends that have shaped European integration with particular focus on globalisation and geopolitics While the first two parts pay special attention to institutions countries international organisations and the main actors Part III focuses on the role of ideas networks public opinion and memory that influenced the development of the European Union Capital of the World

Charlene Mires, 2015-04-08 From 1944 to 1946 as the world pivoted from the Second World War to an unsteady peace Americans in more than two hundred cities and towns mobilized to chase an implausible dream The newly created United Nations needed a meeting place a central place for global diplomacy a Capital of the World But what would it look like and where would it be Without invitation civic boosters in every region of the United States leapt at the prospect of transforming their hometowns into the Capital of the World The idea stirred in big cities Chicago San Francisco St Louis New Orleans Denver and more It fired imaginations in the Black Hills of South Dakota and in small towns from coast to coast Meanwhile within the United Nations the search for a headquarters site became a debacle that threatened to undermine the organization in its earliest days At times it seemed the world's diplomats could agree on only one thing under no circumstances did they want the United Nations to be based in New York And for its part New York worked mightily just to stay in the race it would eventually win With a sweeping view of the United States place in the world at the end of World War

II Capital of the World tells the dramatic surprising and at times comic story of hometown promoters in pursuit of an extraordinary prize and the diplomats who struggled with the balance of power at a pivotal moment in history

Eurocentrism in European History and Memory Marjet Brolsma, Robin Bruin, Matthijs Lok, 2025-10-01 Eurocentrism means seeing the world in Europe's terms and through European eyes. This may not be unreasonable for Europeans but there are unforeseen consequences. Eurocentric history implies that a scientific modernity has diffused out from Europe to benefit the rest of the world through colonies and development aid. It involves the imposition of European norms on places and times where they are often quite inappropriate. In Eurocentrism in European History and Memory well-known scholars explore and critically analyse manifestations of Eurocentrism in representations of the European past from different disciplines: history, literature, art, memory, and cultural policy, as well as from different geographical perspectives. The book investigates the role imaginings of the European past since the eighteenth century played in the construction of a Europeanist worldview and the ways in which Europe was constructed in literature and art.

Nightmare Envy and Other Stories George Blaustein, 2018. What has it meant to be an Americanist? What did it mean to be an Americanist through fascism, war, and occupation? Nightmare Envy and Other Stories is a study of Americanist writing and institutions in the 20th century. Four chapters trace four routes through the mid-twentieth century. The first chapter is the hidden history of American Studies in the United States, Europe, and Japan. The second is the strange career of national character in anthropology. The third is a contest between military occupation and cultural diplomacy in Europe. The fourth is the emergence and fate of the American Renaissance as the scholar and literary critic F. O. Matthiessen carried a canon of radical literature across the Iron Curtain. Each chapter culminates in the postwar period when the ruin of postwar Europe led writers and intellectuals on both sides of the Atlantic to understand America in new ways. Many of our modern myths of the United States and Europe were formed in this moment. Some saw the United States assume the mantle of cultural redeemer. Others saw a stereotypical America rich in civilization but poor in culture overtake a stereotypical Europe rich in culture and equally rich in disaster. Drawing on American and European archives, the book weaves cultural, intellectual, and diplomatic history with portraits of Matthiessen, Margaret Mead, Ruth Benedict, David Riesman, Alfred Kazin, and Ralph Ellison. It excavates the history of the Salzburg Seminar in American Civilization where displaced persons, former Nazis, budding Communists, and glad-handing Americans met on the common ground of American culture. Others found keys to their own contexts in American books, reading Moby-Dick in the ruins. Nightmare Envy and Other Stories chronicles American encounters with European disaster, European encounters with American fiction, and the chasms over which culture had to reach.

Europe's Nightmare Miron Rezun, 2001-02-28. Recent bombing campaigns and peacekeeping efforts have achieved a fragile and uncertain peace in Kosovo. However, NATO will need help from both the European Union and the United Nations to create and maintain a lasting peace in the region An expert in the affairs of the troubled region Rezun traveled to the crisis zone to interview Kosovar refugees and foreign statesmen He offers a sharp critique of the conflict taking NATO and the entire Western Alliance to task and emphasizing the villainous behavior of the Milosevic regime One cannot consider what happened in Kosovo to be an isolated affair Rezun contends Based on the widest possible range of sources including documentation in nearly every European language this study will appeal to experts and laymen alike Rezun refuses to take sides In addition to his criticisms of foreign intervention exaggerated statistics and reverse ethnic cleansing he is merciless in his condemnation of the Serbs in particular the corrupt influence of Milosevic and the late Arkan In writing laced with irony wit and satire he reveals the foibles of limited war and the errors committed by all parties Yet his primary focus remains on the sufferings of the men women and children who filled the refugee camps and the devastated villages to which they have returned Pilgrimage to the National Parks Lynn Ross-Bryant,2013 National Parks America s Best Idea were from the first seen as sacred sites embodying the God given specialness of American people and American land and from the first they were also marked as tourist attractions The inherent tensions between these two realities ensured the parks would be stages where the country s conflicting values would be performed and contested As pilgrimage sites embody the values and beliefs of those who are drawn to them so Americans could travel to these sacred places to honor experience and be restored by the powers that had created the American land and the American enterprise This book explores the importance of the discourse of nature in American culture arguing that the attributes and symbolic power that had first been associated with the new world and then the frontier were embodied in the National Parks Author Ross Bryant focuses on National Parks as pilgrimage sites around which a discourse of nature developed and argues the centrality of religion in understanding the dynamics of both the language and the ritual manifestations related to National Parks Beyond the specific contribution to a richer analysis of the National Parks and their role in understanding nature and religion in the U S this volume contributes to the emerging field of religion and the environment larger issues in the study of religion e g cultural events and the spatial element in meaning making and the study of non institutional religion The Origins of the Cold War in Europe David Reynolds,1994-01-01

Although the Cold War is over the writing of its history has only just begun This book presents an analysis of the origins of the Cold War in the decade after the Second World War discussing the development of the United States and the Soviet Union as superpowers and the reactions of the Western European states to the growing Soviet American rivalry Drawing on recently opened archives from the former Soviet Union as well as on existing research largely unavailable in English distinguished authorities from each of the countries discussed provide new insight into the Cold War and into the Europe that has been molded by it The book begins with an overview of United States Cold War policy after the war and a pioneering post communist examination of Russian involvement The next chapters focus on the other two members of the wartime alliance Britain and France for which the Cold War was interwoven with concerns such as the maintenance of empire and the continued fear of Germany The book then examines the vanquished countries of World War II Italy and Germany who particularly in the case of divided Germany were struggling to recover their international status and come to terms with their past The last part of the book considers how the small states Benelux and Scandinavia forged new groupings in the search for security even though conflicts of national interest still persisted between them The authors not only show the impact of superpower policies on each country but also reveal the many ways in which West European states were active participants in Cold War politics trying to draw the Americans into Europe and shaping the blocs that emerged The book sheds light on the European Community in many ways a response to uneasiness about Germany and on NATO whose purpose was once described as keeping the Russians out the Americans in and the Germans down

Visual Culture of Post-Industrial Europe Frances Guerin, Magda Szczesniak, 2025-10-01 Visual Culture of Post Industrial Europe investigates visual cultural projects in Europe from the 1970s onwards in response to industrial closures resultant unemployment diminished social services and shattered identities Typically art and visual cultural creations at one time thriving European heartlands strive to make the industrial past visible negotiable and re imaginable Authors discuss varied and multiple types of art and visual culture that remember the sometimes invisible past create community in the face of social disintegration and navigate the dissonance between past and present material reality They also examine art and visual objects at post industrial European sites for their aesthetic historical and sociological role within official and unofficial government and community regeneration and re vitalisation efforts Sites range from former coal and steel plants in Duisburg through shipyards and harbours of Gdansk and Hamburg a Moscow paper factory and textile factories in Albania to still functioning Croatian metalworks
