Pseudocapitalism And The Overpoliticized State Reconciling Politics And Anthropology In Zaire:

Pseudocapitalism and the Overpoliticized State S. N. Sangmpam, 1994 Pseudocapitalism and the Overpoliticized State S. N. Sangmpam, 1994 Using Zaire as a representative of African and Third World countries Sangmpam provides both a critique and an alternative view of the theory of the African state Governance, Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution Cedric Hilburn Grant, R. Mark Kirton, 2007 Decades after our contemporary international system witnessed the end of the Second World War the events that followed in its aftermath has fashioned an international system characterized by global conflict in the guise of the Cold War Although wars were part of the struggle between the two rival super powers the US and USSR their main theatre was the Third World and hostilities during the Cold War era were global It is against this backdrop that Governance Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution addresses conflict in the Caribbean and elsewhere exploring the linkages between conflict and development The book is divided into eight sections and offers diverse views on conflict conflict resolution and governance Part 1 Governance and Conflict Management in a Global Context Part II Management and resolution of Conflict in the Regional Context Part III Perspectives on Social Stratification Political Rivalry and Ethnic Insecurities Part IV High Intensity Conflicts Part V The Management and Resolution of Territorial Conflicts Part VI Poverty Economics and Conflict Management Part VII Advancing Conflict Resolution through Education and Part VIII Civil Society Governance and Social Consensus Militocracy vs. Democracy in West Africa 1960s – 1990s Godfrey Mwakikagile, This is a historical narrative and analysis of the unconstitutional changes of government in most West African countries where military rule became institutionalised more than in any other part of the continent from the sixties to the nineties There is no specific reason why the region has suffered from usurpation of power by soldiers more than any other part of the continent besides the desire by soldiers to rule recently demonstrated by coups in Mali in 2020 and 2021 Guinea in 2021 and Burkina Faso in 2022 Governments in West Africa are no more unstable or weaker than their counterparts in other parts of the continent Overthrowing governments became a continental phenomenon when military rulers went on to legitimise their seizure of power through rigged elections by turning themselves into civilian rulers They civilianised themselves not only to claim that they were no longer military rulers but were democratically elected leaders a manipulation of power that triggered counter coups by their opponents to end their rule resulting in many deaths in many countries where this violent change took place Military rule in Africa started soon after independence in the sixties The most ambitious goals in the postcolonial era were consolidation of the state and nation building with varying degrees of success in different parts of the continent Military rulers proved to be no better than their civilian counterparts they had replaced In most cases they were even worse and used coercive power of the state to perpetuate themselves in office just as their civilian counterparts did The result was consolidation of the state as an instrument of oppression the most oppressive apparatus being the executive branch itself invested with all the powers which evolved into the imperial presidency a phenomenon that persists in some

African countries legitimised through rigged elections enabling leaders to remain in office under the guise of democracy in the name of the people

Comparing Apples and Mangoes S. N. Sangmpam, 2012-02-01 Two competing approaches currently dominate the debate about the state and institutions in developing countries The first projects a picture of transnational vertical uniformity descending from the West to developing countries and views liberal democracy as the only game in town In this view the state and institutions resemble or ought to resemble those in the West The second by contrast explains political outcomes by local idiosyncrasies and regional variations in institutions In his original approach to third world politics S N Sangmpam challenges both views by uncovering important similarities in the political features of developing countries He shows that they share political behaviors and features unaccounted for in either local idiosyncratic or liberal democratic theories These behaviors converge toward a common property overpoliticization that defies political compromise leading to an overpoliticized state Sangmpam provides a wealth of empirical historical and quantitative evidence from Latin America Asia Africa and the West and demonstrates the overpoliticized state constitutes the cornerstone of an integrated theory of politics in developing countries
