Democracy, Real and Ideal Ricardo Blaug, 1999-03-18 Explores the political implications of Habermas's theory of discourse ethics through a resurrection of its radical potential when applied to participants in decision making groups

Public Life and Late Capitalism John Keane, 1984 The Information Society Reader with Raimo Blom, Erkki Karvonen, Harri Melin, Kaarle Nordenstreng, Ensio Puoskari, Frank Webster, Professor Frank Webster, 2020-04-02 There has been much debate over the idea of the information society Some thinkers have argued that information is becoming the key ordering principle in society whereas others suggest that the rise of information has been overstated Whatever the case it cannot be denied that informization has produced vast changes in advanced societies The Information Society Reader pulls together the main contributions to this debate from some of the key figures in the field Major topics addressed include post industrialism surveillance transformations the network society democracy digital divisions virtual relations With a comprehensive introduction from Frank Webster selections from Manuel Castells Anthony Giddens Michel Foucault and Christopher Lasch amongst others and section introductions contextualising the readings this book will be an invaluable resource for students and academics studying contemporary society and all things cyber Laclau and Mouffe Anna Marie Smith, 2012-10-12 Laclau and Mouffe The Radical Democratic Imaginary is the first full length overview of the important work of Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Mouffe Anna Marie Smith clearly shows how Laclau and Mouffe's work has brought Gramscian poststructuralist and psychoanalytic perspectives to revitalize traditional political theory With clarity and insight she shows how they have constructed a highly effective theory of identity formation and power relations that carefully draws from the criticism of political theory from postmodern anti foundationalist political theory China and the Challenge of Economic Globalization Hung-Gay Fung, Pei Changhong, Kevin H. Zhang, 2017-07-28 First Published in 2006 Social Division Alan Carling, 1991 Social divisions are systematic social inequalities which are frequently regarded as unjust and are fateful in the lives of individuals Management for the Public Domain Stewart Ranson, John Stewart, 1994-12-07 In this important attempt to reorient the theory and practice of public management Stewart Ranson and John Stewart argue that public organisations must be analysed in terms of the distinctive values purposes tasks and conditions of the public domain They show how it is only on this basis that they can meet the needs of citizens in a mature democracy and support the processes of a learning society Global Communication and Transnational Public Spheres A. Crack, 2008-02-04 Information and communication technologies ICT enable citizens to communicate across state borders with greater ease than ever before exciting much speculation about the emergence of transnational public spheres This highly original work introduces this debate to International Relations Politics and the Ends of Identity Kathryn Dean, 2018-08-13 First published in 1997 this volume responds to the issue that identity can no longer be taken for granted and features contributions from experts in politics history and social theory on the concepts of identity politics and selfhood in cultures around the world Stemming from the work of Erik Erikson on the concept of identity these articles expand to include Islam Japan India and America along with a contemplation of international ideas of national sovereignty They argue as a whole against notions of a growing global homogeneity of identity and against an end to history Bible-carrying Christians David Harrington Watt,2002 Drawn from years of fieldwork Watt presents a reinterpretation of the way that conservative Protestants influence American politics and culture He analyses the forms of social power that are assumed to be natural among Bible carrying Christians

Critical Theory Now Philip Wexler,2003-05-20 First Published in 1991 The first wave of North American critical theory was at once both academic and political Interest in the works of the early Frankfurt School may have belonged to a more general renaissance of academic social theory that occurred in North America during the late 1960s and early 1970s There is a new voice that comes through the historic political struggles of a student movement of feminism and of anti racist and ecological social movements It is a voice also schooled in a sensitivity to the theories of social disintegration or an implosion that characterizes the post modernist moment The authors represented in this reader are neither scholastic nor dogmatic They do not eschew postmodernism for hackneyed slogans nor do they embrace theory as an aesthetic substitute for theory as a socially transformative practice They are committed both to social theory and social practice and it is this which unifies the papers which follow The authors are a new generation of North American critical theorists who do not retreat to European humanism in the face of social cultural and self transformation Habermas and the Public Sphere Craig Calhoun,1993-03-02 In this book scholars from a wide range of disciplines respond to Habermas s most directly relevant work The Structural Transformation of the Public Sphere The relationship between civil society and public life is in the forefront of contemporary discussion No single scholarly voice informs this discussion more than that of Jürgen Habermas His contributions have shaped the nature of debates over critical theory feminism cultural studies and democratic politics In this book scholars from a wide range of disciplines respond to Habermas s most directly relevant work The Structural Transformation of the Public Sphere From political theory to cultural criticism from ethics to gender studies from history to media studies these essays challenge refine and extend our understanding of the social foundations and changing character of democracy and public discourse Contributors Hannah Arendt Keith Baker Seyla Benhabib Harry C Boyte Craig Calhoun Geoff Eley Nancy Fraser Nicholas Garnham Jürgen Habermas Peter Hohendahl Lloyd Kramer Benjamin Lee Thomas McCarthy Moishe Postone Mary P Ryan Michael Schudson Michael Warner David Zaret and streets in general for future design and planning of our cities this collection of essays encourages greater interest in this subject and therefore more interdisciplinary research Accordingly this book should interest not only urban planners architects and other design and building professionals but also environmentalists sociologists anthropologists geographers and historians as well as the general public
