Public Policies In Singapore Changes In The 1980s Future Signposts:

Social Policy in Post-Industrial Singapore Kwen Fee Lian, Chee-Kiong Tong, 2008-03-27 The contributors to this edited volume covering a range of social issues ranging from family and aging to sexuality and culture and the arts critically examine the relevance of social policy as it is understood in the West and addresses the question of whether Singapore's response is unique

Law and Development in East and South-East Asia Christoph Antons, 2005-10-05 During the 1980s and 1990s Asian developmental states attracted much attention in political science and economics literature but the role of law in the economic development was neglected It was only after the Asian crisis of 1997 that many analysts began to focus on a lack of regulation and transparency as a major factor triggering the crisis The crucial questions now are how successful the current reforms will be and which features of the Asian approach to commercial law will be resistant to reform pressures This book examines the prospects for commercial law reform in Asia giving particular attention to Japan and Singapore as frequently cited role models for Asian developmentalism and also examining development related business laws in countries such as China Korea Indonesia Malaysia Vietnam and the Philippines

Economic growth and development in Singapore Peter Wilson, 2002-10-29 In this book Gavin Peebles and Peter Wilson offer an historical overview of the rapid growth and development of the Singapore economy detailing the institutions and policies which have made this growth possible They examine the current state of the economy and its future in terms of prospective growth and structural change

Health Insurance Reforms in Asia Sabrina Ching Yuen Luk, 2014-03-26 This book empirically examines health care financing reforms and popular responses in three major cities in East Asia Shanghai Singapore and Hong Kong It adopts a new revised version of the theory of historical institutionalism to compare and explain the divergent reform paths in these three places over the past three decades It also examines forces that propel institutional change The book provides three detailed case studies on the development of health care financing reforms and the politics of implementing them It shows that health care systems in Shanghai Singapore and Hong Kong were the products of Western presence in the nineteenth century It illustrates how greater attention is paid to the roles played by ideas actors and environmental triggers without abandoning the core assumptions that political institutions and policy feedback remain central to impact health care financing reforms It shows that health care financing reform is shaped by a complex interplay of forces over time It also provides the most updated material about health care financing reforms in Shanghai Singapore and Hong Kong The central argument of this book is that health care financing reform is both an evolving process responding to changing circumstances and a political process revealing an intricate interplay of power relationships and diverse interests It shows that institutional changes in health care financing system can be incremental but transformative in nature It argues that social policies will continue to develop and welfare states will continue to adapt and evolve in order to cope with new risks and needs This book sheds new lights on understanding the politics of health care financing reform and sources and modes of institutional change

Public Policies in Singapore Linda Low, Mun Heng Toh, 1992 Reframing Singapore Derek Thiam Soon Heng, Syed Muhd. Khairudin Aljunied, 2009 Over the past two decades Singapore has advanced rapidly towards becoming a both a global city state and a key nodal point in the international economic sphere These developments have caused us to reassess how we understand this changing nation including its history population and geography as well as its transregional and transnational experiences with the external world This collection spans several disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and draws on various theoretical approaches and methodologies in order to produce a more refined understanding of Singapore and to reconceptualize the challenges faced by the country and its peoples Singapore Studies Beng Huat Chua, Basant Kapur, 1986 This edition brings up to date a decade of research work developments of the Faculty of Arts and Social Science National University of Singapore since the first volume was published in 1985 The state of the respective disciplines covered are reviewed in terms of notable theoretical and conceptual developments major benchmarks during the past decade and research lacunae that need to be addressed as well as their substantive developments and contributions in the Singapore context and possible future directions resulting in a collection of essays that places the Faculty s studies in an international comparative framework Economics In Practice: Evidence-based Policymaking In Singapore Ming Leong Kuan, Chi Hoong Leong, Jamie Poh, Yik Wei Yong, Chun Seng Yip, Boon Loy Chua, 2021-12-10 Singapore is recognised to be one of the most successful economies in the world given its rapid economic and social transformation Its success is the result of a judicious blend of markets and government high quality governance and public policies that are coherent consistent and coordinated This book showcases the contribution of Economics to Singapore s public policymaking To illustrate the diverse areas that economic analysis has contributed to this book comprises three sections that span the economic and non economic policy domains in Singapore Section I covers economic policies relating to economic growth trade investments productivity innovation industrial development the enterprise landscape and manpower Section II highlights socioeconomic and security policies and covers themes such as income inequality and mobility families healthcare costs and crime In Section III the focus is on infrastructural policies relating to the environment housing and land transport This book commemorates the 20th anniversary of the Singapore Government s Economist Service As the premier service for economists in the Singapore public sector the Economist Service plays an integral role in supporting evidence based policymaking through rigorous economic research and analysis of public policies Bangladeshi Migration to Singapore Md Mizanur Rahman, 2017-03-07 This book examines international labour migrants in the context of South South migration with a focus on Bangladeshi migration to Singapore Two principal questions in the South South migration are addressed Why and how individuals migrate for work and what impact this temporary form of migration has for migrants and their families The book adopts a relatively new methodological approach to labour migration by linking different phases that migrants undergo in the migration process and by combining migrants in the host country with their families in the origin country This is achieved through identifying and addressing six key areas i migration policy ii social imperatives of migration iii recruitment iv social worlds of the migrants v remittance process and finally vi family development dynamics This book introduces the bari to migration research as a unit of analysis over and above individual and family units The book reveals how social and cultural forces both initiate and perpetuate migration and later on influence bari dynamics

Critical Reflections on Cities in Southeast Asia Tim Bunnell, Lisa Drummond, Ho, 2021-11-15 Critical Reflections draws together the multi disciplinary research of scholars working in on cities across Southeast Asia The fourteen essays collected in the volume are organised into three thematic sections re conceptualisation competition and intervention Collectively these reflections contribute to and interrogate the expanding urban and regional studies literature The volume constitutes a critical corrective to the existing literature which all too often seeks to diagnose contemporary urban trends everywhere from a small number of mostly Western paradigmatic cases Yet while acknowledging the increasing interconnectedness and shared global orientation of most cities in Southeast Asia the volume is wary of positing an equally generalising regional model Individually these essays attend to the diversity of contemporary urban experiences in Southeast Asia

The Singapore Economy Tilak Abeysinghe, Keen Meng Choy, 2007-03-12 Singapore's phenomenal transformation from Third World to First World status has been of great interest to economists around the world yet there has been little quantitative research done on its economy and institutions This innovative new research monograph fills the lacunae by presenting the Singapore economy through a macroeconomic model and laying the foundations for further research Using formal econometric analysis and novel modelling techniques Abeysinghe and Choy offer rare insights into how the Singapore economy works Each of the major chapters discusses the implications of the empirical findings for current policy and an entire chapter has been devoted to macroeconomic policy simulations This book is a unique introduction to the Singapore economy and would be of interest to econometric modellers and policy makers in Singapore as well as advanced undergraduates and graduate researchers interested in modelling small open economies

Exchange Rate Systems and Policies in Asia Paul Sau-Leung Yip, 2008 Contains papers on lessons learned from some major exchange rate and monetary experiences in Asia exchange rate crisis management in Asia and choice of exchange rate systems in Asia This book deals primarily with the exchange rate systems and policies in the three largest economies in Asia China Japan and India

Household Economics and the Asian Family Euston Quah, David Kuo Chen Lee, 2004 In the context of Asia household economics are particularly significant due to the belief that Asian culture with its emphasis on family values plays a central role in economic development This book examines the relationship between household economics the family and the emergence of strong Asian economies from a socioeconomic perspective Characteristics of Asian economies excluded from traditional models are analysed thereby constructing new models which incorporate modified assumptions consistent with Asian families and economies This reissue features a new introduction by the editors

The State and NGOs Shinichi Shigetomi, 2002 This volume examines the state NGO relationships in fifteen
