Public Transportation in Detroit-Southeast Michigan Region Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Quade & Douglas, 1967
Rapid Transit System for the City of Detroit Detroit (Mich.). Rapid Transit Commission, 1926 Public Transportation Morris Jerome Rothenberg, 1980 This report initially designed as a training course is made available to those just getting involved in public transportation as well as to those who are familiar with only certain aspects of the field This report provides a comprehensive introduction into the history financing planning and operations for public transportation facilities and services A large number of topics are covered in this report which are geared to broadening the perspective of public transportation and its role during times of high energy prices short supplies and national concerns on air pollution redevelopment of the city centers and urban mobility for all segments of society Public transportation JHK & Associates, 1977 Urban Public Transportation , 1966 Urban Public Transportation United States. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Library, 1966 Public Transportation Alternatives Analysis in Wayne/Oakland/Macomb Counties , 1979 Urban Transportation and the Detroit Bus System Detroit (Mich.). City Plan Commission. Social Planning Division, 1972 Detroit's Street Railways Kenneth Schramm, 2006 Detroit s Street Railways tells the story of public transportation in the Motor City Dating back to 1863 when horse drawn streetcars serviced the citizenry public transportation in Detroit has a proud and colorful history Early on a host of streetcar companies carried Detroiters about their daily business This period was followed by consolidation into one company the Detroit United Railway and later the establishment of the municipally owned Department of Street Railways The Department of Street Railways established May 15 1922 inherited a vast system of streetcar lines throughout Detroit the first city in the United States to establish municipally owned transit system It was a leader and innovator in the transit industry with continued streetcar service until April 8 1956 when the last streetcars on Woodward Avenue were replaced by buses When the Department of Street Railways began coach operations in 1925 the intent was to provide feeder service to the established streetcar lines as expansion costs were prohibitive Sadly the program implemented to complement the city s streetcar operations led to the demise of the streetcar as the principal mode of transportation in the Motor City A Directory of regularly scheduled, fixed route, local rural public transportation service , 19?? A Directory of Regularly Scheduled, Fixed Route, Local Public Transportation Service in Urbanized Areas Over 50,000 Population , 1978 Public Transportation in Detroit Harry Dahlheimer, 1951 , Advanced Public Transportation Systems , 1992 Transportation Planning and Priorities for the Seventies United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Public Works. Subcommittee on Transportation, 1974
Transportation Planning and Priorities for the Seventies, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on Transportation of ... United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Public Works, 1974 Equity in the Urban Built Environment Bradley Bereitschaft, 2024-12-30 This book explores inequities in the urban built environment across a diverse range of places and considers practical solutions and strategies aimed at building more just inclusive and sustainable cities Achieving more equitable and prosperous urban places requires a critical examination of the design and layout of our cities The 16 chapters of this book illuminate the ways in which the built environment including buildings roads public spaces and other infrastructure shapes our health and prosperity through a complex set of physical and social interactions It brings together experts from a variety of fields to identify and suggest workable solutions for inequities in the spatial distribution of amenities and disamenities and the processes and policies that give rise to these unjust patterns Blending scholarly knowledge and practical experience many of these strategies and solutions are presented through the lens of real world case studies One key takeaway is that the planning of our cities should be a communal effort that properly reflects the needs of all residents Equity in the built environment can only be realized when people of diverse backgrounds ethnicities ages and abilities feel welcome to both shape and enjoy the shared public realm This book is intended for a wide audience that primarily includes scholars students and professionals in the fields of urban geography urban planning landscape architecture and urban studies Professionals in urban planning and policy with a desire to advance equity goals will likely appreciate the strategies recommendations and best practices discussed within
