Designing Government Pearl Eliadis, Margaret M Hill, Michael Howlett, 2005-02-14 How do governments govern today and how well do they do it How do governments choose the tools or instruments they will use to get things done In today's world how could these decisions be improved from the standpoint of efficiency effectiveness legitimacy and accountability Designing Government brings together leading experts to examine the instrument choice perspective on government and public policy over the past two decades The authors examine such issues as accountability effectiveness sustainability legitimacy and the impact of globalization The debate is enriched by contributors from several countries who provide a comparative context and most importantly help chart a course for the future Moving beyond the traditional regulatory sphere and its preoccupations with deregulation and efficiency the authors trace the complex relationships between instrument choices and governance Designing Government encourages the reader to consider factors in the design of complex mixes such as issues of redundancy context the rule of law and accountability These latter factors are especially central in today s world to the design and implementation of effective instrument choices by governments and ultimately to good governance The authors conclude in fact that seeing instrument choice itself as part and parcel of designing government and achieving good governance is both the promise and the challenge for instrument based perspectives in the years ahead Contributors include Hans Bressers University of Twente Neil Gunningham Australian National University John Hoornbeck University of Pittsburgh Margaret Hill Infrastructure Canada Michael Howlett Simon Fraser University Bridget Hutter London School of Economics and Political Science Pierre Issalys Universit Laval R jean Landry Laval University Roderick A Macdonald McGill University Larry O Toole University of Georgia B Guy Peters University of Pittsburgh Michael J Prince University of Victoria Sean Rehaag University of Toronto Arthur B Ringeling Erasmus University Stephen J Toope McGill University Michael J Trebilcock University of Toronto Fr d ric Varone Universit Catholique de Louvain Belgium and Kernaghan Webb Carleton University
