Empires of Entertainment Jennifer Holt, 2011 Empires of Entertainment integrates legal regulatory industrial and political histories to chronicle the dramatic transformation within the media between 1980 and 1996 Through the use of case studies that highlight key moments in this transformation Holt skillfully expands the conventional models and boundaries of media history Index de Périodiques Canadiens, 2001 Canadiana, 1991 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Quill & Quire, 1990 Screen Traffic Charles R. Acland, 2003-11-13 A study of Hollywood the international markets and the way movies are actually shown in theaters CM, 1991 The Political Economy of Canada Michael Howlett, Alex Netherton, M. Ramesh, 1999 Debates on the role of the state and the viability of Canadian economic development are especially intense during periods of change such as the contemporary era of globalization In this completely revised updated and enlarged second edition of The Political Economy of Canada Professors Howlett Netherton and Ramesh outline the principal structural elements of the Canadian political economy and describe the importance of such factors as resources social class and international trade The authors stress the significance of political institutions at the national international and subnational levels that substantially affect the production and distribution of wealth Three chapters consider the strengths and weaknesses of major approaches to Canada's political economy the liberal and socialist theories as well as the staples approach pioneered by Harold Innis Subsequent chapters explore the structure and organization of and the interrelationships between the state labour and capital in Canada and show how their fragmented and decentralized nature limits the capacity of governments to manage a globalized economy The book outlines the history of the domestic political economy and examines how Canada is linked to the international political economy through the World Trade Organization and NAFTA Particular attention is devoted to the constraints imposed on the Canadian state by a market oriented resource exporting economy and by growing reliance on US trade The final chapters examine monetary and fiscal management and industrial policy demonstrating how these policy arenas are shaped by ideology new globalizing and regionalizing constraints and the disorganization of the major policy actors International Books in Print, 1991

Canadian Books in Print, 2003 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler, 2002-02 Product Placement in Hollywood Films Kerry Segrave, 2014-11-18 This is the history of advertising in motion pictures from the slide ads of the 1890s to the common practice of product placement in the present Initially product placement was seen as a somewhat sleazy practice and also faced opposition from the film industry itself it has grown dramatically in the past 25 years From Maillard's Chocolates advertising with a shot of Cardinal Richelieu enjoying a hot cup of cocoa in 1895 to product placements in 2002's Minority Report for which advertisers were rumored to have paid 25 million this book explores the developing union of corporate America and Hollywood This work addresses such topics as television's conditioning of filmgoers to accept commercials companies donation of props the debate about advertising such activities as smoking and drinking in films and product displacement or demands by companies to keep their products absent from unpopular or controversial films Film stills and a bibliography complete the book
