

Public Sculpture Of Liverpool

John Price

Public Sculpture Of Liverpool:

Public Sculpture of Liverpool Terry Cavanagh, 1997 It is the purpose of the present catalogue to document as fully as possible the complete range of the public monuments and sculpture of Liverpool from the earliest surviving item to the most recently erected Just one clearly defined category has been excluded from the survey sculpture in an ecclesiastical context or executed for a sepulchral purpose What remains is a rich and multifarious concentration within the city of not only independent pieces such as grand monuments portrait statues abstract sculptures and commemorative fountains but also sculpture executed to embellish the city's civic and commercial architecture The volume is arranged with works in order by location and details are given of materials dimensions ownership condition and literature with photographic illustration provided for almost all of the works included

Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe Imogen Hart, Claire Jones, 2020-10-29 By foregrounding the overlaps between sculpture and the decorative this volume of essays offers a model for a more integrated form of art history writing Through distinct case studies from a seventeenth century Danish altarpiece to contemporary British ceramics it brings to centre stage makers objects concepts and spaces that have been marginalized by the enforcement of boundaries within art and design discourse These essays challenge the classed raced and gendered categories that have structured the histories and languages of art and its making Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe is essential reading for anyone interested in the history and practice of sculpture and the decorative arts and the methodologies of art history

Sculpture and the Garden Patrick Eyres, 2017-07-05 Although the integration of sculpture in gardens is part of a long tradition dating back at least to antiquity the sculptures themselves are often overlooked both in the history of art and in the history of the garden This collection of essays considers the changing relationship between sculpture and gardens over the last three centuries focusing on four British archetypes the Georgian landscape garden the Victorian urban park the outdoor spaces of twentieth century modernism and the late twentieth century sculpture park Through a series of case studies exploring the contemporaneous audiences of gardens the book uncovers the social political and gendered messages revealed by sculpture's placement and suggests that the garden can itself be read as a sculptural landscape

The Persistence of Memory Jessica Moody, 2020 The Persistence of Memory tells the history of the public memory of transatlantic slavery in the largest slave trading port city in the world from the end of the 18th century into the 21st century revealing the persistence of slavery memory in Liverpool as an ongoing contested debate

"Art in the North of England, 1979-2008" Gabriel N. Gee, 2017-07-05 Based on rare archival material and numerous interviews with practitioners Art in the North of England 1979-2008 analyses the relation between political and economic changes stemming from the 1980s and artistic developments in the principal cities of the North of England in the late 20th century Looking in particular at the art scenes of Liverpool Manchester Leeds Sheffield and Newcastle Gabriel Gee unveils a set of powerful aesthetic reactions to industrial change and urban reconstruction during this period on the part of artists including John Davies Pete Clarke the Amber collective Richard Wilson Karen Watson Nick Crowe Ian Rawlinson John Kippin and the contribution of organisations such as Projects UK Locus East Street Arts the Henry Moore Sculpture Trust and the Bluecoat Gallery in Liverpool While the geographical focus of this study is highly specific a key concern throughout is the relationship between regional national and international artistic practices and identities Of interest to all scholars and students concerned with the developments of British art in the second half of the 20th century the study is also of direct pertinence to observers of global narratives which are here described and analysed through the concept of trans industriality

"William Reid Dick, Sculptor " Dennis Wardleworth, 2017-07-05 William Reid Dick 1878 1961 was one of a generation of British sculptors air brushed out of art history by the Modernist critics of the late twentieth century This long overdue monograph adds to the recent revival of interest in this group of forgotten sculptors by describing the life and work of arguably the leading figure of the group in unprecedented depth The facts of Reid Dick s life and his most important works are presented against a backdrop of the historical social and aesthetic changes taking place during his lifetime Dennis Wardleworth elucidates why Reid Dick s reputation plummeted so quickly and why his position in the history of British art deserves to be restored This study draws upon a wealth of previously unpublished material including over 2000 letters and press cuttings and photographs in the Tate Archive as well as letters and photographs held by Reid Dick s family It traces the sculptor s story from his birth in the Gorbals in Glasgow to his election to the Royal Academy and knighting by George V to the decline of his career and his late life connection with American millionaire and art collector Huntington Hartford The first monograph on Reid Dick since 1945 the book also includes images of over 40 of his works and a listing of over 200 works identified by the author Art, Space and the City Malcolm Miles, 1997 This book sees public art outside the normal confines of art criticism and place it within broader contexts of public space and gender Using different perspectives it explores both the aesthetic and political aspects of the medium Reading the Royal Monument in Eighteenth-Century

Europe Charlotte Chastel-Rousseau, 2017-07-05 Reading the Royal Monument in Eighteenth Century Europe is the first in depth study of the major role played by royal monuments in the public space of expanding cities across eighteenth century Europe Using the royal public statues as the basis for its examination of modern European cities the book considers the development of urban landscapes from the creation of capital cities to the last embers of the Ancien R me and at how the royal politics of the arts affected the cityscapes of the time The focus of the book thereby intersects across a spectrum of disciplines including the social and architectural history of cities the politics of urban planning the history of monumental sculpture and the material culture of the eighteenth century London's Statues and Monuments Peter

Matthews, 2018-02-22 The streets and public spaces of London are rich with statues and monuments commemorating the city s great figures and events from Nelson s Column in Trafalgar Square and Sir Christopher Wren s Great Fire Monument to the charming Peter Pan statue in Kensington Gardens Executed in stone bronze and a range of other materials London s statues and monuments include work by some of the world's greatest sculptors. This newly revised book takes account of the many statues erected between 2012 and 2017 including those of Mary Seacole at St Thomas Hospital and Amy Winehouse in Camden. London's Statues and Monuments is a fully illustrated guide to these artworks and their stories, sometimes surprising and occasionally controversial but always fascinating.

Public Pantheons in Revolutionary Europe E. Bouwers, 2011-11-21. The story of how the concept of a pantheon, a building honouring great individuals, spread across Revolutionary Europe and interacted with socio-political and cultural changes. Analysing the canon and iconography of each pantheon, Bouwers shows how the commemoration of war and celebration of nationhood gave way to the protection of elite interests.

Everyday Heroism: Victorian Constructions of the Heroic Civilian John Price, 2014-01-16. Heroism in the 19th and early 20th centuries is synonymous with military endeavours, imperial adventures and the great men of history. There was, however, another prominent and influential strand of the idea which has until now been largely overlooked. This book seeks to address this oversight and establish new avenues of study by revealing and examining everyday heroism: acts of life-risking bravery undertaken by otherwise ordinary individuals, largely in the course of their daily lives and within quotidian surroundings. Adopting an interdisciplinary approach, John Price charts and investigates the growth and development of this important discourse, presenting in depth case studies of The Albert Medal and the Carnegie Hero Fund alongside a nationwide analysis of heroism monuments and an exploration of radical approaches to the concept. Unlike its military and imperial counterparts, everyday heroism embraced the heroine, and this study reflects that, with an examination of female heroism. Discovering why certain individuals or acts were accorded the status of being heroic also provides insights into those that recognized them. Heroism is a flexible and malleable constellation of ideas, shaped or constructed along different lines by different people, so if you want to identify the characteristics of a group or society, much can be learnt by studying those it holds up as heroic. Consequently, Everyday Heroism: Victorian Constructions of the Heroic Civilian provides valuable and revealing evidence for a wide range of social and cultural topics, including class, gender, identity, memory, celebrity and literary and visual culture.

Liverpool Joseph Sharples, Richard Pollard, 2004-01-01. Guidebook to significant and interesting architectural sites in Liverpool.

Public Art Collections in North-west England Edward Morris, 2001-01-01. There are over thirty public art galleries in north-west England with substantial permanent collections. The superb collections in Liverpool at the Walker Art Gallery and in Manchester at the City Art Gallery and at the Whitworth Art Gallery are well known, while Lord Leverhulme's splendid British paintings and sculptures preserved at the Lady Lever Art Gallery in Port Sunlight have an international reputation. For Pre-Raphaelite, Classical, Aesthetic and Impressionist British art and much else, north-west England cumulatively has public collections unmatched even in London. This book is both a guide and a history to these collections as well as other less famous public collections containing little-known masterpieces.

Thomas Brock Ian Thompson,Frederick Brock,Marjorie Trusted,John Sankey,2012-08-23 The Victoria Memorial in front of Buckingham Palace is a national icon yet few have heard of its sculptor Thomas Brock He left school at 12 to be an apprentice at the Worcester Royal Porcelain Works then joined the London studio of John Henry Foley He completed the figure of the Prince Consort for the Albert Memorial after Foleys death One of the young sculptors encouraged by Sir Frederic Leighton he became famous for his lifelike portrait statues of Queen Victoria Edward VII Gladstone Millais and other public figures Chosen in 1901 as sole sculptor of the Victoria Memorial he was knighted by King George V at its unveiling in 1911 Brocks remarkable story is told by his son Frederick in this entertaining biography written in the 1920s and now published by permission of the Victoria and Albert Museum A highly readable and intriguing perspective on a sculptors life in the late 19th and early 20th century one which reveals as much about the art world of his time as about the individual whose life forms its subject John Sankey has worked extensively on Brock and his edition of these memoirs is exemplary Dr Marjorie Trusted Senior Curator of Sculpture Victoria Albert Museum An astonishingly thorough record of the life of a sculptor who a hundred years back distilled from European traditions an idiom which now seems to be the appropriate indeed almost the only imaginable backdrop to royal ceremonial In bringing this record to a wider readership John Sankey reveals some of the less well known facets of Brocks extensive sculptural oeuvre disseminated around the globe from Copenhagen to Wellington NZ Philip Ward Jackson formerly Conway

Librarian Courtauld Institute of Art Heroes of Postman's Park Dr John Price, 2015-06-01 The Watts Memorial to Heroic Self Sacrifice in Postman's Park London is a Victorian monument containing fifty four ceramic plaques commemorating sixty two individuals each of whom lost their own life while attempting to save another Every plaque tells a tragic and moving story but the short narratives do little more than whet the appetite and stimulate the imagination about the lives and deaths of these brave characters Based upon extensive historical research this book will for the first time provide a full and engaging account of the dramatic circumstances behind each of the incidents and reveal the vibrant and colourful lives led by those who tragically died Memorializing the Anglo-Boer War of 1899-1902 Valerie B. Parkhouse, 2015-01-28

Memorializing the Anglo Boer War of 1899 1902 is a study of a group of memorials to soldiers who fought in a now nearly forgotten war and deals with the many factors influencing why there was such an unprecedented number of memorials compared to those to previous conflicts like the Crimean War fifty years earlier One of the most important issues was the impact of changes in the organization of the British Army in the late 1800s particularly the creation of locally based regiments heavily manned by volunteers drawn from local communities The book includes a detailed commentary on the social conditions in England that also account for the unprecedented number of commemorations of this conflict It discusses the variety of forms memorials took informal drinking fountains Spion Kop stands at football stadiums formal stained glass windows statues etc and the numerous and diverse places where they were located cathedrals town squares public schools and universities The growth of the national press and the rise of literacy is dealt with in detail as well as the telegraph whose invention meant that news became available overnight Space is given to discuss the expression of Victorian prosperity in public works The part played by the established church is well documented and an insight is given into the contribution of Imperialism patriotism and jingoism All these factors explain the motivation for the memorials creation The book is illustrated with photographs and articles from newspapers of the day Appendices cover those who are not commemorated lost memorials those who unveiled the memorials colonial involvement and more Memorializing the Anglo Boer War of 1899 1902 will appeal particularly to social historians and students of military and social history
