American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Preaching to a Postmodern World Graham M. Johnston, 2001-07-01 While growing churches dot our urban centers and country landscapes church goers and students today are actually less likely to maintain a Christian worldview than in the past In fact the majority of society does not even believe in objective truth A minister out of touch with this culture is like an uninformed missionary trying to teach in a foreign country To communicate God's Word effectively in the twenty first century teachers need to know how to connect with and confront an audience of postmodern listeners In Preaching to a Postmodern World Johnston shows pastors seminary students professors lay teachers and church leaders can reach the present age without selling out to it The book discusses how to distinguish between modernism and postmodernism understand postmodern worldviews change the style of preaching without compromising the substance take advantage of new opportunities provided by the cultural shift show an inattentive society the relevance of God's truth The author's keen insights into contemporary pop and media culture also help equip speakers to address today's listeners with clarity and relevance

The Shape of Preaching Dennis M. Cahill, 2007-01-01

Many pastors are just too busy to follow the latest theories on preaching and sermon form In The Shape of Preaching Dennis M Cahill seeks both to educate the working pastor on the current issues of sermon design and enable them to use this design in a way that can change their preaching After first laying the theoretical groundwork with discussions of the theological cultural and literary roots of the new approaches to sermon design Cahill expertly guides the preacher through a practical process for designing sermons that speak to people in the world today

The Persuasive Preacher David A.

Christensen, 2020-07-16 How can we preach persuasively without huckstering manipulating or coercing people Sadly we are seeing the fall of many pastors not for reasons of sexual immorality but the pursuit of pride and power The skillful use of marketing methods creates celebrity pastors who become significant influencers in the evangelical church The lure of success is seductive turning pastors into hucksters and Christians into consumers We need to heed the warnings of the New Testament about the pride of rhetoric and the pursuit of power David Christensen carefully analyzes the biblical warnings of Paul about the temptations of rhetorical sophistry in the first century church and applies them to pastoral ministry today God calls preachers to be ethical and effective persuaders David develops an ethical grid for pastoral persuasion using principles drawn from the Bible and social science along with practical illustrations from his years of ministry He calls preachers to be ethical and effective persuaders by emphasizing the centrality of the word of God while depending on the power of the Spirit of God
