Publieke Bijstandsgeheimen Het Ontstaan Van Een Onderklabe In Nederland:

Publieke Bijstandsgeheimen Godfried Engbersen, 2006-05-24 De studie Publieke bijstandsgeheimen Het ontstaan van een onderklasse in Nederland verscheen in 1990 In deze studie werd betoogd dat een etnische onderklasse aan het ontstaan is die geen werk heeft en duurzaam afhankelijk is geworden van de staat Inmiddels kan gesproken worden van het bestaan van een onderklasse De in Publieke bijstandsgeheimen beschreven mechanismen van uitsluiting van langdurig werklozen inclusief de kritische analyse van de uitvoering van de sociale zekerheid hebben niet aan betekenis ingeboet Zij zijn van groot belang om hedendaagse vormen van ongelijkheid in de eenentwintigste eeuw te begrijpen In deze heruitgave wordt in een nieuwe inleiding uitgebreid ingegaan op de actuele stand van zaken over onderklassenvorming in de Nederlandse samenleving Het Amsterdam Academic Archive is een initiatief van Amsterdam University Press In de serie verschijnen populair wetenschappelijke publicaties die niet meer leverbaar zijn maar waarnaar nog wel vraag is in binnen en buitenland

Networked Urbanism Talja Blokland, 2016-04-22 Despite considerable interest in social capital amongst urban policy makers and academics alike there is currently little direct focus on its urban dimensions In this volume leading urban researchers from the Netherlands the UK the USA Australia Italy and France explore the nature of social networks and the significance of voluntary associations for contemporary urban life Networked Urbanism recognizes that there is currently a sense of crisis in the cohesion of the city which has led to public attempts to encourage networking and the fostering of social capital However the contributors collectively demonstrate how new kinds of networked urbanism associated with ghettoization suburbanization and segregation have broken from the kind of textured urban communities that existed in the past This has generated new forms of exclusionary social capital which fail to significantly resolve the problems of poor residents whilst strengthening the position of the advantaged Grounded in theoretical reflection and empirical research Networked Urbanism will be of interest to scholars and students of sociology geography and urban studies as well as to policy makers

The Public Services under Reconstruction Marja Gastelaars, 2009-01-13 This book examines the services in and around the public domain The author analyses a number of socio cultural changes that are generally considered relevant to these services including the rationalising efforts of the New Public Management and the introduction of IT The book particularly addresses the diversity of services It focuses on the local complexities of their day to day processes of service delivery and on the diversity of client experiences and professional roles associated with various client relationships A practical objective of this book is to encourage its readers to redefine the services they professionally deal with and move beyond the standard requirements of the New Public Management that are so often taken for granted as a starting point Professional managers are for instance invited to reconsider their currently quite dominant technical managerial perspective Service professionals are encouraged to make sense of the risks and responsibilities involved with their day to day negotiations including the impact of the services on the lives of their clients Gastelaars adopts an interpretive approach to her subject combining discourse analysis and ethnographic research to concentrate on the actual practices associated with service delivery rather than on theories and justifications

Cultures of Unemployment Godfried Engbersen, Kees Schuyt, Jaap Timmer, Frans van Waarden, 2006 An extraordinarily rich and detailed study of the social and economic life of unemployed and poor households Michael Sherraden in Social Work

The Randstad: A Research and Policy Laboratory F.M. Dieleman, S. Musterd, 2013-06-29 Randstad Holland is the urbanized western part of the Netherlands It contains the four largest cities of the country Amsterdam Rotterdam The Hague and Utrecht The name Randstad rim city refers to the distinctive shape of the conurbation a horseshoe of cities around an open agricultural and recreational area known as the Green Heart This book analyzes the restructuring of the region The volume summarizes the research of the Urban Networks research program The discussion is focused on four themes housing labor market and employment infrastructure and transportation and the provision of public services The Randstad is internationally known as the playground of urban and regional planners Their debates on present policy issues are extensively reviewed in the book Teachers and students of urban change and planning and policy makers and planners in The Netherlands and abroad will find much valuable information in this book

Of States and Cities Peter Marcuse, Ronald van Kempen, 2002 The nature and effects of globalization are coming under critical scrutiny across all continents This book focuses on one aspect the globalization of cities It examines the claim that the state is powerless to influence events and that history geography and culture have become irrelevant in the worldwide trend towards a uniform urban model a model which features increased segregation decline of the central city and social polarization The international team of contributors is well placed to put these claims in perspective Drawing on their experiences of cities as diverse as New York and Warsaw Istanbul and Sao Paulo they demonstrate that states and cities have adopted widely varying approaches to the advent of globalization and that its impact has been constrained by each city's history physical layout location environment role in the international economy and demographic composition The diversity of urban development and political response revealed is enormous and provides ample practical examples of what might be done to bring about improvements for the increasing number of people who live in cities

Out of Character Rogier van Reekum, 2023-12-28 This book offers a detailed and innovative study of the Dutch case of politics of citizenship and nationalism by focusing on public and political controversies in the crucial period of 1973-2015 By foregrounding the crucial role of performance and narration in public and political debates this book shows how discourses of citizenship and nationhood are deeply shaped by established repertoires and long lasting lines of disagreement about difference and belonging in the Netherlands While change did occur within the Dutch context during this period this book reveals that these transformations were not primarily driven by purportedly permissive and accommodating responses to immigration and cultural diversity Instead it unveils a Dutch landscape deeply marked by challenges related to race democracy and liberal exceptionalism In doing so the book contributes to ongoing debates in the study of citizenship nationalism and intellectual history around the merits and limitations of liberal politics of inclusion It critically extends concepts and arguments in cultural pragmatics and problematizes the common hope that public debate may progressively resolve antagonisms over difference With a focus on empirical research the book meticulously reconstructs the emergence of national identity debates in recent decades and vividly portrays the dynamics and tensions of these public performances while dissecting their role in shaping the nation's identity and its boundaries The book covers a crucial period of the European politics of citizenship and nationhood in which anti immigrant politics new modes of racism and the bordering of Europe took shape It locates the Dutch case within these developments and insists on the importance of historical continuity and narrative performance This book demonstrates that the Netherlands and Europe more broadly has not overcome the profound consequences of its past

Welfare to Work in Contemporary European Welfare States Anja Eleveld, Thomas Kampen, Josien Arts, 2020-01-29 With welfare to work programmes under intense scrutiny this book reviews a wide range of existing and future policies across Europe Seventeen contributors provide case studies and legal sociological and philosophical perspectives from around the continent building a rich picture of welfare to work policies and their impact They show how many schemes do not adequately address social rights and lived experiences and consider alternatives based on theories of non domination For anyone interested in the justice of welfare to work this book is an important step along the path towards more fair and adequate legislation

Unequal Networks Gwen van Eijk, 2010 Delft Centre for Sustainable Urban Areas carries out research in the field of the built environment and is one of the multidisciplinary research centres at TU Delft The Delft Research Centres bundle TU Delft's excellent research and provide integrated solutions for today's and tomorrow's problems in society OTB Research Institute for Housing Urban and Mobility Studies and the Faculties of Architecture Technology Policy and Management and Civil Engineering and Geosciences participate in this Delft Research Centre

On the Mysteries of Unemployment, 2013-04-09 Since the beginning of the economic crisis of the 1980s considerable research has been dedicated to the study of the unemployment problem Nevertheless the phenomenon has not become fully understood nor are its consequences adequately prevented In this important new volume On the Mysteries of Unemployment economists and social scientists come together to offer the reader the latest insights on unemployment and policies regarding unemployment from the perspectives of both disciplines On the Mysteries of Unemployment contains four main sections Part One provides an introductory chapter and general overview Part Two contains rich contributions that provide new insights from an economic science perspective while Part Three offers a balanced view from social scientists The final section is devoted to the examination of policy issues concerning unemployment This volume unique in its field will be of interest to researchers students politicians and policy makers

'An offer you can't refuse' Lødemel, Ivar, Trickey, Heather, 2001-01-24 In the last decade developed welfare states have witnessed a pendulum swing away from unconditional entitlement to social assistance towards greater emphasis on obligations and conditions tied to the receipt of financial aid Through administrative reforms conditions of entitlement have been narrowed With the introduction of compulsory work for recipients the contract between the state and uninsured unemployed people is changing The product of research funded by the European Union this book compares work for welfare or workfare programmes objectively for the first time It considers well publicised schemes from the United States alongside more overlooked examples of workfare programmes from six European countries France Germany the Netherlands Norway Denmark and Britain It is the first time that details of workfare programmes have been collated in such an easily accessible format An offer you can't refuse provides an analysis of the ideological debates that surround compulsory work programmes and gives a detailed overview of the programmes implemented in each country including their political and policy contexts and the forces that have combined to facilitate their implementation Similarities and differences between programmes are explored Explanations for differences and lessons for policy makers are discussed

Oudere mensen zijn als bomen die schaduw geven. Oudere Marokkaanse vrouwen en mannen in de Nederlandse verzorgingsstaat. Eva Abraham-van der Mark, 1996 Onderzoek onder oudere Marokkaanse mannen en vrouwen die zijn opgegroeid met het traditionele Marokkaanse model van zorg voor ouderen binnen de familie Nagegaan wordt wat het voor hen betekent om oud te worden in de Nederlandse verzorgingsstaat Newcomers Navigating the Welfare State Hanne Vandermeerschen, Elsa Mescoli, Jean-Michel Lafleur, Peter De Cuyper, 2023-12-15 The topic of social assistance for migrant newcomers often sparks heated public debate and remains a prominent concern on the policy agenda Society has experienced a growing level of diversity This reality gives rise to new demands and changing profiles of individuals who benefit from welfare services Welfare institutions which are responsible for providing social assistance play a crucial role in granting access to social benefits for newcomers Moreover the provision of social assistance can significantly influence the settlement and integration processes of migrants This book provides empirical insights into the alignment between the needs of newcomers and the service provided to them It examines the accessibility of social assistance for newcomers from a comprehensive perspective encompassing aspects such as gaining access including equal access for all and service availability By focusing on the Belgian Public Centres for Social Welfare as a case study the authors explore the policies and practices related to social assistance and labour market activation for newcomers and the factors that influence individuals access to their rights By incorporating the perspectives of all the relevant stakeholders involved drawing on the insights of social workers and managers as well as the experiences of newcomers themselves this book offers a unique understanding of the interactions between immigrants the welfare state and street level bureaucrats It provides valuable insights for enhancing service provision striving for a more inclusive approach Vluchtige verbondenheid Marco van der Land, 2004 Toen in 1995 de vorming van een Stadsprovincie door de Rotterdamse bevolking per referendum werd afgewezen bleek dat de emotionele binding met de stad allerlei logische argumenten voor een stadsprovincie overvleugelde Stedelijke binding is een onderwerp dat zowel stedelijke beleidsmakers en bestuurders als beoefenaars van de sociale wetenschappen bezighoudt Voor dit boek zijn stedelijke bindingen op klassieke sociologische wijze onderzocht namelijk door ideaaltypen op te stellen van stedelijke bindingen en deze te vergelijken met resultaten uit empirisch onderzoek in de stad Rotterdam Centraal staat een categorie mensen die vanwege hun hoge opleiding en bovengemiddelde koopkracht veel voor de stad zouden kunnen betekenen de nieuwe middenklasse Uit de studie blijkt dat binding niet alleen te maken heeft met afkomst woonplek of vormen van maatschappelijke betrokkenheid maar ook ontstaat doordat men deelneemt aan stedelijke cultuur en diverse vormen van vermaak in de stad

Labour Market Research and Policy Making in Flanders Jan Vranken, 2005

Public Policy and Political Institutions Frank Hendriks, 1999-01-01 With this important collection Hardy Hanappi and Wolfram Elsner have brought together an outstanding volume that is likely to have its impact on the development of evolutionary economics Expansive in its scope the innovative contributions range from evolutionary and institutional mechanisms dynamic market complexity as well as ontological groundwork of the rapidly emerging new evolutionary economics science The book will be of great interest to academics students and researchers of evolutionary and institutional economics Kurt Dopfer University of St Gallen Switzerland

The Urban Connection Luuk Boelens, 2009 The urban connection develops a promising actor relational approach to urban planning With respect to the usual governmental planning it is focused outside in instead of inside out It derives its leitmotif from the actual debate about state controlled versus neo liberal planning and reflects on innovative post structuralist scholars in the field of planning economics social geography and governance It then takes its own position in that debate reflecting on actor oriented experiments in planning practices These experiments deal with the daily planning practice with a pro active and operational attitude contrary to the usual retrospective case studies Therefore it results in concrete suggestions on how to develop a more robust planning approach in an ongoing globalising and fragmenting world

Basic Income on the Agenda Robert-Jan van der Veen, Loek Groot, 2000 Persisting unemployment poverty and social exclusion labour market flexibility job insecurity and higher wage inequality changing patters of work and family life are among the factors that exert pressure on welfare states in Europe This book explores the potential of an unconditional basic income without means test or work requirement to meet the challenges posed by the new social question compared to policies of subsidized insertion in work It also assesses the political chances of basic income in various European countries These themes are highly relevant to policy makers in the field of labour markets and social security economists political philosophers and a social science audience in general

Town Hall Tales Merlijn J. van Hulst, 2008

Macht en verantwoordelijkheid Jan Willem Duyvendak, G. Engbersen, M. Teeuwen, 2007 In het publieke debat staat steeds vaker de verantwoordelijkheid ter discussie Burgers moeten meer eigen verantwoordelijkheid tonen Politici moeten verantwoording afleggen Professionals in zorg en onderwijs moeten meer verantwoordelijkheid terugkrijgen Topmanagers in publieke sector en bedrijfsleven moeten zich verantwoordelijker gedragen in hun salariseisen Achter al deze discussies over verantwoordelijkheid schuilen zeer uiteenlopende vragen over machtsposities en machtsuitoefening die vaak

niet worden onderkend of ter discussie komen te staan In dit boek staat expliciet het verband tussen vragen van macht en verantwoordelijkheid centraal In empirische en theoretische beschouwingen wordt deze besproken binnen thematische gebieden het recht de politiek de maatschappelijke dienstverlening de gebouwde omgeving verdelingen tussen arm en rijk de posities van intellectuelen van universiteiten en van burgers Niet alleen biedt dit boek waar veertig toonaangevende wetenschappers aan hebben bijgedragen een actueel overzicht van de huidige verantwoordelijkheidsthematiek maar het boek gaat verder door het thema verantwoordelijkheid in verband te brengen met het thema macht Dit is binnen het Nederlandse taalgebied nog niet eerder zo expliciet gedaan
