Fiction of Henry James provides for the first time a scholarly edition of a major writer whose work continues to be read quoted adapted and studied Published in three volumes in 1886 The Princess Casamassima follows Hyacinth Robinson a young London craftsman who carries the stigma of his illegitimate birth and his French mother s murder of his patrician English father Deeply impressed by the poverty around him he is driven to association with political dissidents and anarchists including the charismatic Princess Casamassima who embodies the problems of personal and political loyalty by which Hyacinth is progressively torn apart This edition is the first to provide a full account of the context in which the book was composed and received Extensive explanatory notes enable modern readers to understand its nuanced historical cultural and literary references and its complex textual history Domesticus William Allen Butler,1886 Jimmy's Leprechaun Trap

Our Savage Art William Logan, 2009 Our Savage Art features the corrosive wit and substantial critiques that are the trademarks of William Logan's style Opening with a defence of the critical eye this collection features essays on Robert Lowell's correspondence Elizabeth Bishop's unfinished poems and the inflated reputation of Hart Crane Transnational Politics in the Post-9/11 Novel Joseph Conte, 2019-11-22 Transnational Politics in the Post 9 11 Novel suggests that literature after September 11 2001 reflects the shift from bilateral nation state politics to the multilateralism of transnational politics While much of the criticism regarding novels of 9 11 tends to approach these works through theories of personal and collective trauma this book argues for the evolution of a post 9 11 novel that pursues a transversal approach to global conflicts that are unlikely to be resolved without diverse peoples willing to set aside sectarian interests These novels embrace not only American writers such as Don DeLillo Dave Eggers Ken Kalfus Thomas Pynchon and Amy Waldman but also the countervailing perspectives of global novelists such as J M Coetzee Orhan Pamuk Mohsin Hamid and Laila Halaby These are not novels about terrorism nor do they seek comfort in the respectful cloak of national mourning Rather they are instances of the novel in terror which recognizes that everything having been changed after 9 11 only the formally inventive presentation will suffice to acknowledge the event's unrepresentability and its shock to the political order The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia: The Century dictionary, prepared under the superintendence of William Dwight Whitney; rev. & enl. under the superintendence of Benjamin E.
