Our Hidden Settlement Mona Ballge Miron,2023-08-07 My journey goes back in time to Burton Michigan s history when it was still the Atherton Settlement 1835 1855 Genesee County was formed in 1836 Michigan wasn t even a state until 1837 This was an exciting time for new families to settle here finding land of their own for the first time freedom of religion and new adventures I ll be going through the yearly traditions behind the holidays and inventions along the way I hope you enjoy my historical journey Learning about the settlers on Thread River was a lot of fun how they made the Atherton Trail the four Atherton families working together to survive the cold winters They built strong shelters saved food and wood for the winter with the help of the natives In 1835 the Atherton Settlement was established the Atherton families built a strong community over the next twelve months with thirty families They built their homes barns wagons three churches a mill and a trading post The first school in the settlement was founded in 1836 the Atherton School was a one room schoolhouse built on the corner of Atherton Trail and Center Road where the Burton Memorial Library sits now Betsey Atherton was the first teacher Throughout my research we have a lot to be thankful for especially the four Atherton men that were brave enough to stay and never give up on the settlement As more people joined the settlement for the next 20 years some had military backgrounds and mostly coming from New York With all manner of trades to prosper as the community when more schools were needed the farmers would build one in each area for the children 1855 Atherton Settlement combined with other farms to become Burton Township the second largest township but without a post office so HIDDEN

Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 The Dogs of Bedlam Farm Jon Katz,2005-09-13 Dogs are blameless devoid of calculation neither blessed nor cursed with human motives They can t really be held responsible for what they do But we can from The Dogs of Bedlam Farm When Jon Katz adopted a border collie named Orson his whole world changed Gone were the two yellow Labs he wrote about in A Dog Year as was the mountaintop cabin they loved Katz moved into an old farmhouse on forty two acres of pasture and woods with a menagerie a ram named Nesbitt fifteen ewes a lonely donkey named Carol a baby donkey named Fanny and three border collies Training Orson was a demanding project But a perceptive dog trainer and friend told Katz If you want to have a better dog you will just have to be a better goddamned human It was a lesson Katz took to heart He now sees his dogs as a reflection of his willingness to improve as well as a critical reminder of his shortcomings Katz shows us that dogs are often what we make them They may have their own traits and personalities but in the end they are mirrors of our own lives living breathing testaments to our strengths and frustrations our families and our pasts The Dogs of Bedlam Farm recounts a harrowing winter Katz spent on a remote windswept hillside in upstate New York with a few life saving friends ugly ghosts from the past and more livestock than any novice should attempt to manage Heartwarming and full of drama insight and hard won wisdom it is the story of his several dogs forced Katz to confront his sense of humanity and how he learned the places a dog could lead him and the ways a doge could change him Read, Rhyme, and Romp Heather McNeil, 2012-06-26 Designed to promote literacy in young children and to empower parents educators and librarians this guide is filled with simple strategies creative activities and detailed instructions that help make reading fun Encouraging a love of reading in young children can be a source of both great frustration and immense joy This handy resource provides essential tips techniques and strategies for making early literacy development fun and inspiring a lifelong love of reading Read Rhyme and Romp Early Literacy Skills and Activities for Librarians Teachers and Parents explores the six basic pre literacy skills that experts agree are necessary for a young child to be ready to learn to read Special sections within each chapter are dedicated to the specific needs of preschool teachers parents and librarians making the content relevant to different settings Recommended book lists personal anecdotes and literacy rich activities combine to create an effective and accessible plan for implementing an early literacy program A to Zoo Rebecca L.
