Innovative queer research and interpretation take exciting new directions Book jacket An Invisible Spectator

Christopher Sawyer-Laucanno, 1999 Filled with insights into an enigma USA Today An Invisible Spectator chronicles Paul Bowles's life and work interwoven with vivid depictions of the writer's intimates including Truman Capote Gertrude Stein Allen Ginsberg and William Burroughs Musical Meaning Lawrence Kramer, 2002 Lawrence Kramer has been a pivotal figure in the development of the controversial new musicology integrating the study of music with social and cultural issues This accessible and eloquently written book continues and deepens the trajectory of Kramer's thinking as it boldly argues that humanistic not just technical meaning is a basic force in music history and an indispensable factor in how where and when music is heard Kramer draws on a broad range of music and theory to show that the problem of musical meaning is not just an intellectual puzzle but a musical phenomenon in its own right How have romantic narratives involving Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata affected how we hear this famous piece and what do they reveal about its music How does John Coltrane's African American identity affect the way we hear him perform a relatively white pop standard like My Favorite Things Why does music requiring great virtuosity have different cultural meanings than music that is not particularly virtuosic Focusing on the classical repertoire from Beethoven to Shostakovich and also discussing jazz popular music and film and television music Musical Meaning uncovers the historical importance of asking about meaning in the lived experience of musical works styles and performances Kramer's writing clear and full of memorable formulations demonstrates that thinking about music can become a vital means of thinking about general questions of meaning subjectivity and value In addition to providing theoretical advances and insights on particular pieces and repertoires Musical Meaning will be provocative reading for those interested in issues of identity gender and cultural theory This book includes a CD of Kramer's own composition Revenants 32 Variations in C Minor which he discusses in his final chapter Elliott Carter John F.
