Purple Decades:

The Purple Decades Tom Wolfe, 1982-10-01 The essential collection of Tom Wolfe's writing on a turning point era in modern American culture The Purple Decades brings together the author's selections from his list of critically acclaimed publications including the complete text of Mau Mauing and the Flak Catchers his account of the wild games the poverty program encouraged minority groups to play It was in the 1960s and 1970s those purple decades that Tom Wolfe rose to fame as one of the late twentieth century pioneers of American literature He became the foremost chronicler of the gaudiest period in American history much of which is spread out before us in these selections from nine of his books Wolfe's innovations in style his feats as a reporter and his insights into modern American life dominated a period of widespread experimentation in the writing of nonfiction Wolfe's contributions to the language of the purple decades range from the phrases the right stuff to radical chic the latter of which he coined in 1970 when Leonard Bernstein gave a party for the Black Panthers in his apartment on Park Avenue and on to the Me Decade as the 1970s were dubbed as soon as Wolfe's essay The Me Decade and the Third Great Awakening appeared in 1976 The complete texts of The Last American Hero and The Me Decade and the Third Great Awakening and long sections of Radical Chic and The Right Stuff are included here in The Purple Decades Generous selections from both From Bauhaus to Our House and The Painted Word also appear here as well as many stories from The Kandy Kolorado Tangerine Flake Streamline Baby The Pump House Gang and Mauve Gloves Madmen Clutter Vine When Tom Wolfe's first book The Kandy Kolorado Tangerine Flake Streamline Baby was published in 1965 Newsweek predicted This will be a sharp pleasure to reread years from now when it will bring back like a falcon in the sky of memory a whole world that is currently jetting and jazzing its way somewhere or other In these pages the falcon flies with big talons and an even bigger grin across the first two decades of Tom Wolfe's literary career The Purple Decades Tom Wolfe, 1982-10 This collection of Wolfe's essays articles and chapters from previous collections is filled with observations on U S popular culture in the 1960s and 1970s The Purple Decades Tom Wolfe, 1982 The Purple Decades, 1996

Shades of Purple Ingrid Ann Pole Hutchinson, 2021-12-22 Shades of Purple Ingrid Hutchinson, 2020-12-26 The Purple Decades Tom Wolfe, 1984 Conversations with Tom Wolfe Dorothy McInnis Scura, 1990 Literary journalist lowly social historian chronicler of his times and champion of realism are among the many epithets heaped upon Tom Wolfe by himself and his myriad admirers and critics In this collection of interviews spanning his richly productive career Wolfe is seen as a writer imitating no one and riding the crest of each latest wave in contemporary America For more than a quarter of a century he has been the vivid and varied chronicler of our time from the Californian car customizers and Ken Kesey's Merry Pranksters of the sixties to the ambition driven inhabitants of New York City in the eighties His hybrid of reporting and fiction writing has received perhaps more applause than any other literary journalism and his first major work of fiction Bonfire of the Vanities rested at the top of the bestseller lists for more than a year Here is Tom Wolfe talking about the subjects of his eight books about the writers he admires about the discipline of writing about his politics and his disposition to satire and parody As he explains his attempt to show the world life in our times this collection of delightfully witty and informative interviews reveals the insights and the intellect of one of America s brightest and most appealing authors

Higher Education and the New Society George Keller,2008-11-01 While he celebrated higher education as the engine of progress in every aspect of American life George Keller also challenged academia s sacred cows and entrenched practices with provocative ideas designed to induce creative discomfort Completed shortly before his death in 2007 Higher Education and the New Society caps the career of one of higher education s exceptional minds Refining and expanding ideas Keller developed over his fifty year career this book is a clarion call for change In the face of a transformed American society marked by population shifts technological upheavals and a volatile economic landscape Keller urges leaders in higher education to see and confront their own serious problems With characteristic forthrightness and inimitable wit Keller targets critical areas where bold thinking is especially important taking on such explosive issues as the configuration of academic disciplines the runaway problem of big time sports the decline of the liberal arts and the urgent problems of finances and costs Keller expected this book to ignite discussion and controversy within academic circles and he hoped fervently that it would also lead to real thinking real analysis and urgently needed transformation

Secularization and Religious Innovation in the North Atlantic World David Hempton,Hugh McLeod,2017 In the early twenty first century it had become a cliché that there was a God Gap between a more religious United States and a more secular Europe The apparent religious differences between the United States and western Europe continue to be a focus of intense and sometimes bitter debate between three of the main schools in the sociology of religion According to the influential Secularization Thesis secularization has been an integral part of the processes of modernization in the Western world since around 1800 For proponents of this thesis the United States appears as an anomaly and they accordingly give considerable attention to explaining why it is different For other sociologists however the apparently high level of religiosity in the USA provides a major argument in their attempts to refute the Thesis Secularization and Religious Innovation in the North Atlantic World provides a systematic comparison between the religious histories of the United States and western European countries from the eighteenth to the late twentieth century noting parallels as well as divergences examining their causes and especially highlighting change over time This is achieved by a series of themes which seem especially relevant to this agenda and in each case the theme is considered by two scholars The volume examines whether American Christians have been more innovative and if so how far this explains the apparent God Gap It goes beyond the simple American European binary to ask what is American or European in the Christianity of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and in what ways national or regional differences outweigh these commonalities

Affect Poetics of the New Hollywood Hauke Lehmann,2019-12-02 How is affective experience produced in the cinema And how can we write a history of this experience By asking these questions this study by

Hauke Lehmann aims at rethinking our conception of a critical period in US film history the New Hollywood as a moment of crisis that can neither be reduced to economic processes of adaption nor to a collection of masterpieces Rather the fine grained analysis of core films reveals the power of cinematic images to affect their audiences to confront them with the new The films of the New Hollywood redefine the divisions of the classical genre system in a radical way and thereby transform the way spectators are addressed affectively in the cinema The study describes a complex interplay between three modes of affectivity suspense paranoia and melancholy All three each in their own way implicate spectators in the deep seated contradictions of their own feelings and their ways of being in the world their relations to history to society and to cultural fantasy On this basis Affect Poetics of the New Hollywood projects an original conception of film history as an affective history which can be re written up to the present day

Stayin' Alive Jefferson Cowie,2010 An epic account of how middle class America hit the rocks in the political and economic upheavals of the 1970s this wide ranging cultural and political history rewrites the 1970s as the crucial pivotal era of our time Jefferson Cowie s edgy and incisive book part political intrigue part labor history with large doses of American musical film and TV lore makes new sense of the 1970s as a crucial and poorly understood transition from New Deal America with its large optimistic middle class to the widening economic inequalities poverty and dampened expectations of the 1980s and into the present Stayin Alive takes us from the factory floors of Ohio Pittsburgh and Detroit to the Washington of Nixon Ford and Carter Cowie also connects politics to culture showing how the big screen and the jukebox can help us understand how America turned away from the radicalism of the 1960s and toward the patriotic promise of Ronald Reagan Cowie makes unexpected connections between the secrets of the Nixon White House and the failings of George McGovern campaign radicalism and the blue collar backlash the earthy twang of Merle Haggard s country music and the falsetto highs of Saturday Night Fever Like Jeff Perlstein s acclaimed Nixonland Stayin Alive moves beyond conventional understandings of the period and brilliantly plumbs it for insights into our current way of life

The Age of Great Dreams David Farber,1994-04 In this absorbing new book David Farber gives us the history of our collective and individual memories of the 1960s the brilliant colors of revolt and rapture of flames and raised fists of napalm and tear gas of people desperate to make history even as others fought fiercely to stop them More than thirty years after the assassination of John F Kennedy this book grounds our understanding of the terrible events of that era by linking them to our country s grand projects of previous decades the forging of a national system of social provision in the New Deal our new agenda as global superpower after World War II the creation of the national security state and the maturation of a national consumer driven mass mediated marketplace Farber s account based on years of research in archives and oral histories as well as in the historical literature deals in full not only with nation building in Vietnam the 1964 Civil Rights Act the 1965 Watts riot and the War on Poverty but with the entertainment business the drug culture and much more

written since the 1950s of American conservatism from the Founding to the Contract With America Life: The Movie Neal Gabler, 2000-02-29 The story of how our bottomless appetite for novelty gossip and melodrama has turned everything news politics religion high culture into one vast public entertainment Neal Gabler calls them lifies those blockbusters written in the medium of life that dominate the media and the national conversation for weeks months even years the death of Princess Diana the trial of O J Simpson Kenneth Starr vs William Jefferson Clinton Real Life as Entertainment is hardly a new phenomenon but the movies and now the new information technologies have so accelerated it that it is now the reigning popular art form How this came to pass and just what it means for our culture and our personal lives is the subject of this witty concerned and sometimes eye opening book A thoughtful in places chilling account of the way entertainment values have hollowed out American life The New York Times Book Review The Race Card Richard Thompson Ford, 2009-03-03 A New York Times Notable Book of the Year What do hurricane Katrina victims millionaire rappers buying vintage champagne and Ivy League professors waiting for taxis have in common All have claimed to be victims of racism But these days almost no one openly defends bigoted motives so either a lot of people are lying about their true beliefs or a lot of people are jumping to unwarranted conclusions or just playing the race card Daring entertaining and incisive The Race Card brings sophisticated legal analysis eye popping anecdotes and plain old common sense to this heated topic Jimmy Carter, American Moralist Kenneth E. Morris, 1997-10-01 In the first full scale biography of America's 39th president since 1980 Kenneth Morris shows readers that any conclusions about Carter's leadership and the adequacy of his challenges as a president cannot ignore the moral quandary that vexed the nation 35 photos Immunity Alfred I. Tauber, 2017-01-02 Modern immunology traditionally conceives of the immune system as providing defense against pathogens Alfred I Tauber criticizes this conception of immunity as too narrow because it discounts much of the immune system's other normal functions These include active tolerance of nutritional exchanges with the environment and the stabilization of cooperative relationships with resident micro organisms An expanded account extends immunity's functional role from singular defense to broadened discernment of environmental exchange This ecological perspective has profound theoretical implications for the basic notion of immune identity is reconfigured highlighting the organism as a holobiont a consortium of diverse organisms living in cooperative relationships challenges prevailing concepts of individuality and the self/nonself dichotomy heretofore organizing immune theory Indeed if theoretical interest is focused on the challenges of maintaining immune balance in the full ecological context of the organism then immune regulation assumes new complexity Tauber maintains that the key to unravelling that puzzle requires a critical re assessment of the cognitive processes that underlie immune effector functions Accordingly he provides the outline of a re formulated cognitive paradigm that dispenses with agent based models and adopts an ecologically conceived understanding of perception and information processing The implications of this revised configuration of immunity and its deconstructed notions of individuality and selfhood have wide significance for philosophers and life scientists working in immunology ecology and the cognitive sciences History Has Begun Bruno Mações,2020

Popular consensus says that the US rose over two centuries to Cold War victory and world domination and is now in slow decline But is this right History s great civilizations have always lasted much longer and for all its colossal power American culture was overshadowed by Europe until recently What if this isn t the end In History Has Begun Bruno Ma es offers a compelling vision of America s future both fascinating and unnerving From the early American Republic he takes us to the turbulent present when he argues America is finally forging its own path We can see the birth pangs of this new civilization in today s debates on guns religion foreign policy and the significance of Trump Should the coronavirus pandemic be regarded as an opportunity to build a new kind of society What will its values be and what will this new America look like Ma es traces the long arc of US history to argue that in contrast to those who see the US on the cusp of decline it may well be simply shifting to a new model one equally powerful but no longer liberal Consequently it is no longer enough to analyze America s current trajectory through the simple prism of decline vs progress which assumes a static model America as liberal leviathan Rather Ma es argues that America may be casting off the liberalism that has defined the country since its founding for a new model one more appropriate to succeeding in a transformed world The Concise Oxford Companion to American Literature James D.
