Purpose Of The Gift Selected Poems:

The Purpose of the Gift Michael Smith, 2004 The Purpose of the Gift is a summing up of Michael Smith's career to date as a poet. Better known in Britain as a translator of Spanish baroque poetry, his own work has been obscured on the British side of the Irish Sea for too long. Collected Poems Michael Smith, 2009 Michael Smith was born in Dublin in 1942 and is well known for his poetry, his editorial work, his translations of Spanish poetry, many of them for Shearsman Books, and his polemical support for the lost generation of Irish modernist poets. This volume brings together for the first time under one set of covers all of the work that he wishes to preserve and demonstrates conclusively that this quiet but authoritative voice deserves greater recognition on both sides of the Irish Sea. The Prison Poems Miguel Hernández, 2008-11-21 THE PRISON POEMS is the first complete translation into English of Miguel Hernández's Cancionero y romancero de ausencias, a classic of 20th century Spanish poetry comparable in many respects to the work of Lorca and Pablo Neruda. The poems in this book were mostly written while he was in prison after the defeat of Republican Spain. A Selection of Hymns and Poems, for the Use of Believers Richard McNemar, 1833 A Selection of Hymns and Poetry for the use of infant schools and nurseries ... Prepared at the request of the Committee of the Home and Colonial Infant School Society. Second edition, enlarged, etc, 1840 Selected Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 2014-06-10 The late Kenneth Rexroth 1905-1982 is surely one of the most readable of this century's great American poets. He is also one of the most sophisticated. Like William Carlos Williams, he honed his writing to a controlled and direct language. His intellectual complexity matches Wallace Stevens, his polymath erudition Ezra Pound. He is first among our nature poets. His love poems and erotic lyrics are unsurpassed. Rexroth's Selected Poems brings together in a single volume a representative sampling of sixty years' work. Here are substantial passages from his longer poems: The Homestead Called Damascus 1920-1925, begun while the poet was in his teens; the cubist Prolegomenon to a Theodicy 1925-1927, the philosophical masterpiece; The Phoenix and the Tortoise 1940-1944 and The Dragon and the Unicorn 1944-1950 and the meditative The Heart's Garden, The Garden's Heart 1967. The shorter poems were originally gathered in In What Hour 1940, The Art of Wordly Wisdom 1949, The Signature of All Things 1950, In Defense of the Earth 1956, Natural Numbers 1964, New Poems 1974, and The Morning Star 1979. Selected Poems Kenneth Patchen, 1957 Poems of humor, protest, love, and wonder by one of America's most original voices. Selected Poems (1938-1958) Delmore Schwartz, 1967 Every point of view, every kind of knowledge, and every kind of experience is limited and ignorant; nevertheless, so far as I know, this volume seems to me to be as representative as it could be. Delmore Schwartz The Midland Gleaner; Or, Affection's Gift: a Selection of Sacred Poetry. [The Preface Signed: H. N.] H. N., 1837 Returning the Gift Joseph Bruchac, 1994 An unprecedented gathering of more than 300 Native writers was held in Norman, Oklahoma, in 1992. The Returning the Gift Festival brought more Native writers together in one place than at any other time in history. Returning the Gift observes co-organizer Joseph Bruchac both demonstrated and validated our literature.

and our devotion to it not just to the public but to ourselves In compiling this volume Bruchac invited every writer who attended the festival to submit new unpublished work he then selected the best of the more than 200 submissions to create a collection that includes established writers like Duane Niatum Simon Ortiz Lance Henson Elizabeth Woody Linda Hogan and Jeanette Armstrong and also introduces such lesser known or new voices as Tracy Bonneau Jeanetta Calhoun Kim Blaeser and Chris Fleet The anthology includes works from every corner of the continent representing a wide range of tribal affiliations languages and cultures By taking their peoples literature back to them in the form of stories and songs these writers see themselves as returning the gift of storytelling culture and continuance to the source from which it came In addition to contributions by 92 writers are two introductory chapters Joseph Bruchac comments on the current state of Native literature and the significance of the festival and Geary Hobson traces the evolution of the event itself

The Writer's Gift or the Patron's Pleasure? Deborah McGrady, 2019-02-24 The Writer's Gift or the Patron's Pleasure introduces a new approach to literary patronage through a reassessment of the medieval paragon of literary sponsorship Charles V of France Traditionally celebrated for his book commissions that promoted the vernacular Charles V also deserves credit for having profoundly altered the literary economy when bypassing the traditional system of acquiring books through gifting to favor the commission When upturning literary dynamics by soliciting works to satisfy his stated desires the king triggered a multi generational literary debate concerned with the effect a work's status as a solicited or unsolicited text had in determining the value and purpose of the literary enterprise Treating first the king's commissioned writers and then canonical French late medieval authors Deborah McGrady argues that continued discussion of these competing literary economies engendered the concept of the writer's gift which vernacular writers used to claim a distinctive role in society based on their triple gift of knowledge wisdom and literary talent

For You Hayden Carruth, 1978-01-17 This book collects five long poems that have previously appeared with one exception only in magazines and limited editions One critic has called them virtually secret Yet they are probably the heart of Carruth's poetic achievement both technically and thematically Rising from the experience of emotional illness and the asylum the poems move at intervals and over a period of nearly fifty years toward a sustained workable view of humanity in crisis I have tried to create a person Carruth writes specifically a seeing living surmounting person Modesty is important and so are winter and the north A man alone in the snow is still much in this world including the social world though his in ness is naturally a form of rebellion The poems included are The Asylum Journey to a Known Place North Winter Contra Mortem and My Father's Face
