Recipes and Reminiscences of New Orleans, 1971 Recipes and Reminiscences of New Orleans: Our Cultural Heritage The Parents' Club of Ursuline Academy, Inc, 1981 New Orleans Memories Carolyn Kolb, 2013-09-18 Carolyn Kolb provides a delightful and detailed look into the heart of her city New Orleans She is a former Times Picayune reporter and current columnist for New Orleans Magazine where versions of these essays appeared as Chronicles of Recent History Kolb takes her readers both those who live in New Orleans and those who love it as visitors on a virtual tour of her favorite people and places Divided into sections on food Mardi Gras literature and music these short essays can be read in one gulp or devoured slowly over time Either way the reader will find a welcome companion and guide in Kolb In bringing her stories up to date Kolb's writings reflect an ongoing pattern of life in her fascinating city Since the devastation of Hurricane Katrina in 2005 some of these things remembered will never return Some of the people whose stories Kolb tells are no longer with us It is important to her and to us that they are not forgotten Kolb and her readers can honor them by sharing and enjoying their stories As Kolb says When things fail when the lights go out and the roof caves in and the water rises all that remains ultimately is the story This collection of such stories was made with love Recipes and Reminiscences of New Orleans

Recipes for Reading Anne Bower, 1997 The community cookbook is a familiar item in many kitchens Usually compiled by women and sold to raise funds for a charitable cause these collections of recipes may seem to be utilitarian objects that exhibit little if any narrative interest But this is hardly the case In Recipes for Reading scholars from a variety of disciplines examine community cookbooks as complex texts deserving serious study The contributors contend that such cookbooks have stories to tell about the lives and values of the women who wrote them stories that are autobiographical in most cases historical in some and fictive in others

Gumbo Life: Tales from the Roux Bayou Ken Wells,2019-02-26 A sprightly deeply personal narrative about how gumbo for 250 years a Cajun and Creole secret has become one of the world s most beloved dishes Ask any self respecting Louisianan who makes the best gumbo and the answer is universal Momma The product of a melting pot of culinary influences gumbo in fact reflects the diversity of the people who cooked it up French aristocrats West Africans in bondage Cajun refugees German settlers Native Americans all had a hand in the pot What is it about gumbo that continues to delight and nourish so many And what explains its spread around the world A seasoned journalist Ken Wells sleuths out the answers His obsession goes back to his childhood in the Cajun bastion of Bayou Black where his French speaking mother s gumbo often began with a chicken chased down in the yard Back then gumbo was a humble soup little known beyond the boundaries of Louisiana So when a homesick young Ken at college in Missouri realized there wasn t a restaurant that could satisfy his gumbo cravings he called his momma for the recipe That phone taught gumbo was a disaster The second cooked at his mother s side fueled a lifelong quest to explore gumbo s roots and mysteries In Gumbo Life Tales from the Roux Bayou Wells does just that He spends time with octogenarian chefs who turn the lowly coot into gourmet gumbo joins a team at a highly competitive gumbo contest visits a factory that churns out gumbo by the ton observes the gumbo making rituals of an iconic New Orleans restaurant where high end Creole cooking and Cajun cuisine first merged Gumbo Life rendered in Wells affable prose makes clear that gumbo is more than simply a delicious dish it s an attitude a way of seeing the world For all who read its pages this is a tasty culinary memoir to be enjoyed and shared like a simmering pot of gumbo

American Woman, Italian Style Carol Bonomo Albright,Christine Palamidessi Moore,2011 With writings that span more than thirty five years American Woman Italian Style is a rich collection of essays that fleshes out the realities of today's Italian American women and explores the myriad ways they continue to add to the American experience. The status of modern Italian American women in the United States is noteworthy; their quiet and continued growth into respected positions in the professional worlds of law and medicine surpasses the success achieved in that of the general population, so too does their educational attainment and income. Contributions include Donna Gabaccia on the oral to written history of cookbooks, Carol Helstosky on the Tradition of Invention, an interview with Sandra Gilbert, Paul Levitt's look at Lucy Mancini as a metaphor for the modern world, William Egelman's survey of women's work patterns, and Edvige Giunta on the importance of a self-conscious understanding of memory. There are explorations of Jewish Italian intermarriages and interpretations of entrepreneurship in Milwaukee. Readers will find challenges to common assumptions and stereotypes, departures from normal samplings and springboards to further research.

American Woman: Italian Style Italian Americana's Best Writings on Women offers unique insights into issues of gender and ethnicity and is a voice for the less heard and less seen side of the Italian American experience from immigrant times to the present. Instead of seeking consensus or ideological orthodoxy, this collection brings together writers with a wide range of backgrounds, outlooks, ideas, and experiences. It is an impressive postmodern collection for interdisciplinary studies, a book and a look about being and becoming an American.

Nathalie Dupree's Southern Memories Nathalie Dupree, 2004-03-01 Offering an intimate anecdotal and informative look at Southern food traditions and lifestyles, a popular television chef presents an illustrated culinary tour of the South with more than 150 delicious southern recipes. Winner of the James Beard Award Reprint.

Memoir of a Gourmet Club Carolyn Garvin, 2015-07-24 This memoir begins in 1975 when six couples came together to form a gourmet club. For over forty years, this disparate group experienced camaraderie and poignant moments during meetings at which recipes were gleaned from around the world, creating cooking successes and disasters. Memories of this period were taken from a diary which chronicled the dates and menus for each dinner, yellowed newspaper pages of recipes used and saved, and aged and tattered letters from members informing the recipient of the themes and recipes they wanted to use. You will learn from this book how to form a club of your own, the responsibilities of each member, the themes you may want to use, recipes from many cultures, and hilarious stories of mishaps and mayhem that occurred during the gourmet club meetings. It is a memoir of the gourmet club of how the affection for each other grew and of the fellowship and sense of community they created. It is a love story of food and friends.
