Reckoning With Homelessness Illustrated:

Reckoning with Homelessness Kim Hopper, 2014-07-15 It must be some kind of experiment or something to see how long people can live without food without shelter without security Homeless woman in Grand Central Station Kim Hopper has dedicated his career to trying to address the problem of homelessness in the United States In this powerful book he draws upon his dual strengths as anthropologist and advocate to provide a deeper understanding of the roots of homelessness He also investigates the complex attitudes brought to bear on the issue since his pioneering fieldwork with Ellen Baxter twenty years ago helped put homelessness on the public agenda Beginning with his own introduction to the problem in New York Hopper uses ethnography literature history and activism to place homelessness into historical context and to trace the process by which homelessness came to be recognized as an issue He tells the largely neglected story of homelessness among African Americans and vividly portrays various sites of public homelessness such as airports His accounts of life on the streets make for powerful reading

Faces of Homelessness in the Asia Pacific Carole Zufferey, Nilan Yu, 2017-07-20 Across the Asia Pacific there are a vast range of experiences of homelessness and an equally diverse range of responses from state systems Since understandings of homelessness are also heavily dependent on geographical cultural and historical contexts attitudes towards it as a social problem are essentially underpinned by ideological considerations With a particular focus on critical and international policy and practice this book builds upon the current scholarship of homelessness across the Asia Pacific Through examining and comparing a range of state responses it explores the differing definitions and lived experiences of the issue in a number of countries including Japan China India Korea and Australia The book analyses a range of key themes from welfare provision and legislation to the services provided and the roles played by non governmental organisations whilst also recognising the effects of class gender and ethnicity on homelessness in the region Taking an interdisciplinary approach Faces of Homelessness in the Asia Pacific will be useful to students and scholars of Social Policy Urban Sociology Psychology and Asian Studies

Reagan seemed a magician who carries a bright ideal America like a holograph in his mind and projects its image in the air Not since the rhapsody about Camelot that surrounded John F Kennedy in the wake of his assassination had a president been spoken of so reverently Reagan pledged to bring Americans a little good news and during the next eight years through recession and recovery cold war and detente success and scandal Reagan forged a powerful bond with the public His popularity appeared so unrelated to actual achievements and so undiminished by failure that Colorado Representative Pat Schroeder dubbed him the Teflon president Providing a brief but comprehensive and non polemical overview of what exactly took place during the Reagan years Michael Schaller presents a lively account of the Reagan presidency weighing the president s great personal and political popularity against the effects of his economic social diplomatic and strategic decisions Much more than an account of Reagan the man Schaller offers us a fascinating evaluation of the Reagan phenomenon providing an accessible introduction for Americans struggling to understand the illusory and actual impact of the Reagan administration on the 1980s and on years to come
