Negative Exposures Margaret Hillenbrand, 2020-03-06 When nations decide to disown their troubled pasts how does this strategic disavowal harden into social fact In Negative Exposures Margaret Hillenbrand investigates the erasure of key aspects of such momentous events as the Nanjing Massacre the Cultural Revolution and the Tiananmen Square protests from the Chinese historical consciousness not due to amnesia or censorship but through the operations of public secrecy Knowing what not to know she argues has many stakeholders willing and otherwise who keep quiet to protect themselves or their families out of shame pragmatism or the palliative effects of silence Hillenbrand shows how secrecy works as a powerful structuring force in Chinese society one hiding in plain sight and identifies aesthetic artifacts that serve as modes of reckoning against this phenomenon She analyses the proliferation of photo forms remediations of well known photographs of troubling historical events rendered in such media as paint celluloid fabric digital imagery and tattoos as imaginative spaces in which the shadows of secrecy are provocatively outlined

Inside/out Asia Society. Galleries, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1998-01-01 The late twentieth century has been marked by momentous political economic and social change throughout the Chinese world Deeply rooted cultural assumptions and ancient visual traditions have been challenged by rapid modernization and conflicting global ethnic and local identities Inside Out New Chinese Art was the first major international exhibition to explore the impact of these challenges on artists in the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and those of the 1980s Diaspora The multifaceted exhibition and accompanying catalog encompass an extensive range of artistic forms including installation video and performance art as well as more traditional media such as oils and ink The art is grouped according to themes some specific to regions and others that reflect widespread and overlapping trends With the inclusion of ambiguous territories like Hong Kong and Taiwan the exhibition opens up a perspective of modern Chinese art from the outside as well as a looking out from the inside The catalog features essays by eminent Chinese art scholars and curators along with leading curators and historians of Western art Together they promote Chinese art s rightful place in the contemporary global cultural arena and at the same time acknowledge the influence of its rich heritage The diversity and freshness of the exhibition reflects the explosion of creativity among Chinese artists during the past decade The ironic social commentary of Li Shan s The Rouge Series no 24 the apartment art of artists reacting against the traditional patronage of large museums and corporations and Wang Jin s sly humor in portraying consumer fetishes in today s China are a few examples of the spirited artistry awaiting the viewers of Inside Out

Inheritance of Loss Yukiko Koga,2016-11-28 In Inheritance of Loss anthropologist Yukiko Koga tackles complex questions of how two nations previously at war come to terms with their troubled past Her site is Northeast China where Japan s imperial ambitions were pursued to devastating and murderous ends in the twentieth century There the landscape which is still peppered with missiles and unexploded chemical weapons from the war is the backdrop for refurbished imperial architecture and revived Japanese businesses But the national wounds of China and Japan s history problem cannot be stitched together solely through international trade The author shows why mutual recognition of wartime atrocities is the only thing that can allay the persistent and sporadically explosive tensions between two of the most powerful countries in the Eastern hemisphere A milestone in memory studies that incorporates sorely needed attention to materiality and political economy Inheritance of Loss shows just how crucial imperial legacies will continue to be despite China s and Japan s attempts to leave the past behind in pursuit of a more prosperous future

Runaway Genres Yogita Goyal,2019-10-29 Winner 2021 Ren Wellek Prize given by the American Comparative Literature Association Winner 2021 Barbara Perkins and George Perkins Award given by the International Society for the Study of Narrative Honorable Mention 2020 James Russell Lowell Prize given by the Modern Language Association Argues that the slave narrative is a new world literary genre In Runaway Genres Yogita Goyal tracks the emergence of slavery as the defining template through which current forms of human rights abuses are understood The post black satire of Paul Beatty and Mat Johnson modern slave narratives from Sudan to Sierra Leone and the new Afropolitan diaspora of writers like Teju Cole and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie all are woven into Goyal s argument for the slave narrative as a new world literary genre exploring the full complexity of this new ethical globalism From the humanitarian spectacles of Kony 2012 and BringBackOurGirls through gothic literature Runaway Genres unravels for instance how and why the African child soldier has now appeared as the afterlife of the Atlantic slave Goyal argues that in order to fathom forms of freedom and bondage today from unlawful detention to sex trafficking to the refugee crisis to genocide we must turn to contemporary literature which reveals how the literary forms used to tell these stories derive from the antebellum genre of the slave narrative Exploring the ethics and aesthetics of globalism the book presents alternative conceptions of human rights showing that the revival and proliferation of slave narratives offers not just an occasion to revisit the Atlantic past but also for re narrating the global present In reassessing these legacies and their ongoing relation to race and the human Runaway Genres creates a new map with which to navigate contemporary black diaspora literature
