Recollections Of A Life:

Recollections of My Life as a Woman Diane di Prima, 2002-03-26 In Recollections of My Life as a Woman Diane di Prima explores the first three decades of her extraordinary life Born into a conservative Italian American family di Prima grew up in Brooklyn but broke away from her roots to follow through on a lifelong commitment to become a poet first made when she was in high school Immersing herself in Manhattan s early 1950s Bohemia di Prima quickly emerged as a renowned poet an influential editor and a single mother at a time when this was unheard of Vividly chronicling the intense creative cauldron of those years she recounts her revolutionary relationships and sexuality and how her experimentation led her to define herself as a woman What emerges is a fascinating narrative about the courage and triumph of the imagination and how one woman discovered her role in the world

Recollections of a Busy Life Horace Greeley, 1868 Autobiographical reminiscences of Horace Greeley which form a record of the inner life and inspiration of one who actively shared in the many strange intellectual and political phases through which America went during years of intense vitality Horace Greeley himself gives the best indication of their nature I shall never write anything else into which I shall put so much of myself my experiences notions convictions and modes of thought as these Recollections I give with small reserve my mental history

Recollections of a Happy Life Marianne North, 1993 Marianne North was a Victorian figure of some consequence An amateur botanist and painter she journeyed to the world s farthest reaches to its ancient and new civilizations She also wrote one of the major travel accounts of the Victorian period Written after she retired from travel because of ill health Recollections of a Happy Life incorporates journals and letters from throughout her travelling years The huge manuscript left at her death was reduced and edited by her sister and published in 1892 in three volumes Volume 1 is reprinted here In a new Introduction Susan Morgan raises issues of gender imperialism and the Victorian approach to science

Alger Hiss's Looking-Glass Wars G. Edward White, 2004-03-11 For decades a great number of Americans saw Alger Hiss as an innocent victim of McCarthyism a distinguished diplomat railroaded by an ambitious Richard Nixon And even as the case against Hiss grew over time his dignified demeanor helped create an aura of innocence that outshone the facts in many minds Now G Edward White deftly draws together the countless details of Hiss s life from his upper middle class childhood in Baltimore and his brilliant success at Harvard to his later career as a self made martyr to McCarthyism to paint a fascinating portrait of a man whose life was devoted to perpetuating a lie White catalogs the evidence that proved Hiss s guilt from Whittaker Chambers s famous testimony to copies of State Department documents typed on Hiss s typewriter to Allen Weinstein s groundbreaking investigation in the 1970s The author then explores the central conundrums of Hiss s life Why did this talented lawyer become a Communist and a Soviet spy Why did he devote so much of his life to an extensive public campaign to deny his espionage And how without producing any new evidence did he convince many people that he was innocent White offers a compelling analysis of Hiss s behavior in the face of growing evidence of his guilt revealing how this behavior fit into an ongoing pattern of denial and duplicity in his life The story of Alger Hiss is in part a reflection of Cold War America a time of ideological passions partisan battles and secret lives It is also a story that transcends a particular historical era a story about individuals who choose to engage in espionage for foreign powers and the secret worlds they choose to conceal In White s skilled hands the life of Alger Hiss comes to illuminate both of those themes
