Recollections Of A Regimental Medical Officer:

Recollections of a Regimental Medical Officer Henry Devenish Steward,1983 Military Essays and Recollections Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. Commandery of the State of Illinois,1899 Personal recollections of the war of the Rebellion, addresses delivered before the New York commandery of the Loyal legion of the United States, ed. by J.G. Wilson, T.M. Coan Military order of the loyal legion of the United States,1912 Fighting the Enemy Mark Johnston,2000-04-16 Fighting The Enemy first published in 2000 is about men with the job of killing each other Based on the wartime writings of hundreds of Australian front line soldiers during World War II this powerful and resonant book contains many moving descriptions of high emotion and drama Soldiers interactions with their enemies are central to war and their attitudes to their adversaries are crucial to the way wars are fought Yet few books look in detail at how enemies interpret each other This book is an unprecedented and thorough examination of the way Australian combat soldiers interacted with troops from the four powers engaged in World War II Germany Italy Vichy France and Japan Each opponent has themes peculiar to it the Italians were much ridiculed the Germans were the most respected of enemies the Vichy French were regarded with ambivalence while the Japanese were the subject of much hostility intensified by the real threat of occupation

Gona's Gone! David W. Cameron,2023-08-02 With the Australian troops crossing of the Kumusi River in mid November 1942 after pushing the Japanese back along the Kokoda Track to the north coast of Papua New Guinea the time had come to face the entrenched Japanese at their beachheads at Gona Sanananda and Buna The Japanese were determined to fight to the last man in the defence of these critical positions The first beach to be captured by the Australians was Gona which fell on 9 December after bitter fighting This however was not the end of the fighting around this beachhead as just west of Gona on the opposite side of Gona Creek a larger Japanese Force had been landed which was intent on not only reinforcing Gona but also Sanananda and Buna both located east of Gona The fighting west of Gona Creek would be just as brutal and deadly as the fighting to take the Gona Beachhead Even so after this fighting Australian and American troops operating together for the first time in the Pacific War were still bogged down in the battles to take Sanananda and Buna the fighting at these beachheads would continue into January 1943 Recollections Of A Military Life [Illustrated Edition] General Sir John Adye GCB,2015-11-06 Includes 24 maps plans and illustrations General Sir John Adye 1819 1900 served his country over a long and victorious career in the Royal artillery A pillar of the Victorian military establishment his first taste of action came during the Crimean War 1853 1856 and saw as much as any man could care to in the brutal battles of Alma Balaklava and Inkermann He and his men were part of the bombardment of Sevastopol his diaries are a brutal and frank reminder of the terrible conditions of the troops who fought there Appointed to the staff in India just before the Indian Mutiny 1857 1858 during which he was involved in the retaking of Cawnpore and testifies to the savagery of the fighting of the entire conflict His criticisms of the British administration that led to the revolt are very interesting and contrast with the more jingoist tone of other memoirs of the period His final active service was as chief of staff and second in command to the successful expedition to Egypt 1881-1882 under Sir Garnet Wolseley culminating in the battle of Tel El Kebir A fantastic Victorian war memoir highly recommended Personal Recollections of the War of the Rebellion Alexander Noel Blakeman, 1912

Personal Recollections of the War of the Rebellion, 1912 Epidemics and the American Military Jack E. McCallum, 2023-09-15 In Epidemics and the American Military Dr Jack McCallum examines the major role the military has played propagating and controlling disease throughout this nation's history The U S armed forces recruit young people from isolated rural areas and densely populated cities many of whom have been exposed to a smorgasbord of germs After training and living in close contact with each other for months soldiers are shipped across countries and continents and meet civilians and other armies McCallum argues that if one set out to design a perfect world for an aggressive pathogen it would be hard to do better than an army at war There are four ways to combat epidemic infectious diseases quarantine altering the ecology in which infections spread medical treatment of infection and immunization Each has played a specific but often overlooked role in American wars A case can be made that General George Washington saved the American Revolution when he mandated inoculation of the Continental Army with smallpox The Union Army might very well have taken Richmond in 1862 had it not been for an epidemic of typhoid fever during the Peninsular Campaign Yellow fever was a proximate cause of the American invasion of Cuba in 1898 and its control enabled a continued U S presence on the island and in the rest of the Caribbean Had it not been for influenza German Gen Erich Ludendorff might well have succeeded in his offensive in the closing years of World War I Before senior Army and Naval officers recognized the importance of anti malarial prophylaxis and forced its acceptance by hesitant troops the World War II Solomon and New Guinea campaigns were in danger of collapsing 'Personal Recollections' of the Right Reverend Robert William Willson, D.D. (First Bishop of Hobart Town) Robert William Willson, 1882 A History of War Surgery John Wright, 2011-04-15 The story of the men and women who throughout history have pitted themselves against the destruction caused in battle The Military Surgeon

, 1927 Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon General's Office, United States Army (Army Medical Library) Army Medical Library (U.S.), 1936 The Journal of the Indiana State Medical Association Indiana State Medical Association, 1909 Includes the association's membership roster and its complete program and annual reports Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1983 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Those Ragged Bloody Heroes Peter Brune, 2011-03-29 The definitive account of the Australians on the Kokoda Trail a story told through the eyes of the Australians who fought there many of whom have now passed away MUP Stuart Kells, 2023-02-07 Australia's oldest university press is also one of our best known and most trusted publishers Founded in 1921 as a bookshop for students at the University of Melbourne Melbourne University Press was soon publishing important works that contained the best of national scholarship Landmark MUP books and series include The Australian Dictionary of Biography Manning

Clark's History of Australia The Encyclopaedia of New Guinea and the journal Meanjin These and other MUP publications helped shape how Australians perceived themselves and how they talked about literature politics race the Pacific the world wars and public policy From its inception MUP grappled with hard questions How should a university press be governed To what extent should such a press be concerned with political polemical and radical works And can a university press be financially self sustaining if it focuses on books that commercial publishers overlook The respective leaders of MUP answered these questions in ways that regularly led the press into controversy Using a century of MUP publications and archives Stuart Kells has written a rich and fascinating history of an invaluable Australian institution one that is widely seen as public property and whose ups and downs have always been news All the Broken Soldiers Jan McLeod, Andrew McLeod, 2022-11-03 This is the story of a soldier without a gun It is personal yet universal It is the story of what is left behind when the battles have been fought and the war has moved on To the Australian Army Private Lawrence Nicholas Kennedy was NX21854 a soldier who served for 1907 days with the 2 4th Australian Army Field Ambulance in Australia the Middle East the Kokoda Track and New Guinea during World War II With older brother Bill by his side the Kennedy boys experienced the adventure and the joy the loss and the despair of war like too many others before and since To those who knew Nick Kennedy after the war he was a dedicated and professional psychiatric nurse To the author he was her gentle Uncle Nick remembered as a kind funny and generous man who seemed older than his years The small diary he kept during World War II helped her understand why that was so Kennedy's words and photographs tell the harrowing and compelling story of one young man who went to war not to kill the enemy but to save his fellow soldiers only to return home forever changed by the challenges hardships and tragedy he experienced All the Broken Soldiers provides a rare insight into an aspect of war fought by soldiers equipped with little more than a basic medical kit and a Red Cross armband those who cared for the broken soldiers that war leaves behind Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon-General's Office, United States Army National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1905 Journal of the Royal Army Medical Corps Great Britain. Army. Royal Army Medical Corps, 1923
