Intervisuality Andrea Capra,Lucia Floridi,2023-03-06 Intertextuality is a well known tool in literary criticism and has been widely applied to ancient literature with perhaps surprisingly classical scholarship being at the frontline in developing new theoretical approaches By contrast the seemingly parallel notion of intervisuality has only recently begun to appear in classical studies In fact intervisuality still lacks a clear definition and scope Unlike intertextuality which is consistently used with reference to the interrelationship between texts the term intervisuality is used not only to trace the interrelationship between images in the visual domain but also to explore the complex interplay between the visual and the verbal It is precisely this hybridity that interests us Intervisuality has proved extremely productive in fields such as art history and visual culture studies By bringing together a diverse team of scholars this project aims to bring intervisuality into sharper focus and turn it into a powerful tool to explore the research field traditionally referred to as Greek literature
