Reconciliation and Conflict Dieter T. Hessel, 1969 The Great Reversal David Moberg, 2007-01-01 Why did the evangelical church which had been the leader in social welfare and reform prior to the twentieth century discontinue its involvement in social concerns Is a commitment to personal evangelism incompatible with an interest in social issues In this provocative book Dr Moberg analyzes the Great Reversal of the early twentieth century and discusses its causes and effects all in the context of seeing the Bible as the guide to faith and conduct The importance of recognizing and coping with social evil as well as personal sin is emphasized and the author concludes with a summary of developments that are helping to reverse the Great Reversal and restore evangelical Christianity to its rightful place of leadership Interreligious

The Vietnam War and its polarizing era challenged splintered and changed The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U S A NCC which was motivated by its ecumenical Christian vision to oppose that war and unify people The NCC s efforts on the war exposed its strengths and imploded its weaknesses in ways instructive for religious institutions that bring their faith into politics Embattled Ecumenism explores the ecumenical vision anti Vietnam War efforts and legacy of the NCC Gill s monumental study serves as a window into the mainline Protestant manner of engaging political issues at a unique time of national crisis and religious transformation In vibrant prose Gill illuminates an ecumenical institution vision and movement that has been largely misrepresented by the religious right dismissed by the secular left misunderstood by laity and ignored by scholars outside of ecumenical circles At a time when the majority of scholarly work is committed to looking at the Social Ministry Dieter T. Hessel, 1992-01-01 This work challenges pastors, seminarians and active members of the laity to rethink the social character of their ministry. Healing Wounds of Ethnic Conflicts Through Feet-Washing Endy (Endalkachew) Kidanewold, 2022-09-13 This book is about reconciliation. It is about winning forgiveness and healing for self and others at a price. That price in this book is foot washing. The research based on descriptions and stories told shed light on the depth of foot washing as a powerful alternative tool that can break the cycle of conflict and facilitate dialogue. Stories tell that foot washing generated emotions of tears and joy, eliciting trust, forgiveness, reconciliation and restoration of lost relationships in the process of mediation and conflict resolution. Endy and his wife are small business owners in travel and commercial cleaning trades since 1995. Endy is currently a certified mediator in Superior Court Civil Actions in the state of North Carolina.

They were written over two decades and reflect the times in which they originated, always intended for specific audiences, always addressing issues of the particular moment.

Mediation in Political Conflicts Jacques Faget, 2011-04-28 This book provides a vivid reader on experiences of mediation throughout history and in many different regional, cultural and legal contexts. For experts in the field of mediation and legal anthropology it provides a series of fascinating case studies not previously reported on. For those not familiar with the field it provides a window on an alternative possibility for peacemaking in political conflicts. The book is held together by the editor's introduction which defines political mediation, the research methodologies employed, the relationship of mediation to participatory democracy and the growth of mediation in the past twenty years. The chapters which follow provide the anatomy of successful and unsuccessful mediations in contexts as widely diverse as the 30 Years War 1618-1648 which was ended following the intercession of the future Pope Alexander VII. Three further chapters examine the role of the Catholic Church in other mediations in the Basque conflict in Burundi and in Chiapas while a further group of chapters looks at conflicts in Ethiopia, Northern Ireland, Central America and Congo.
