English, 2011-01-11 This fully updated Second Edition offers an unflinching and comprehensive overview of the full range of both practical and theoretical issues facing educational leadership today Editor Fenwick W English and 30 renowned authors boldly address the most fundamental and contested issues in the field including culturally relevant and distributed leadership critical policy and practice issues predicting the new century's conflict the paradox of changes and the promises paradoxes and pitfalls of standards for educational leaders

The SAGE Handbook of School Organization Michael Connolly, David H. Eddy-Spicer, Chris James, Sharon D. Kruse, 2018-12-10 The SAGE Handbook of School Organization provides a substantial review of the history current status and future prospects of the field of school organization Bringing together chapters exploring key issues important debates and points of tension the Handbook highlights school and system organisational structure processes and dynamics coupled with insights into important theoretical foundations from diverse perspectives This volume is designed to provide a much needed critically informed and coherent account of the field against a backdrop of increasing complexity in which schooling as an institution and schools as organisations operate

Leaders Who Dare Linda L. Lyman, Dianne E. Ashby, Jenny S. Tripses, 2005-07-21 Here the authors focus on educators who dare to lead their schools districts universities and educational organizations to new possibilities The leadership practices of the individuals featured contribute significantly to craft knowledge and to the discourse on contemporary issues of educational leadership These leaders develop collaborative decision making processes push the bureaucratic boundaries claim power through politics and live and lead from values The authors contend that the leadership practices depicted reflect a redefinition of leadership that emanates from a constructive postmodern paradigm aimed at social reconstruction These leaders are redefining leadership by integrating doing and being This book is a report of the results of a collective qualitative inquiry into the leadership of eighteen impressive women educational leaders from Illinois representing a diversity of roles community sizes institutional types and racial perspectives The chapters intertwine personal stories with the scholarship about leadership No pseudonyms are used Although several recent books have been published about the experiences of women as leaders leadership studies have generally not included women or failed to point to women leaders as role models who could even should be emulated by leaders of both genders It is past time to close the gender leadership gap in educational administration This book will contribute to the ongoing redefinition of leadership and perhaps after reading this book leaders who dare will move themselves and our culture closer to gender inclusive perceptions of what leadership is and who leaders are

Caring Leadership in Turbulent Times

Mary G. Green, 2014-06-01 This book analyzes education reform through the eyes of those entrenched in the process policy makers administrators middle managers principals and teachers in the context of care A senior administrator who participated in the implementation of an unprecedented series of reforms that flattened the education system in a Canadian province and rebuilt it with a new mandate examines learning from the shortcomings of the past and provides a critical enquiry that can help determine the success or failure of future reform efforts by shedding light on the obstacles to avoid problems to correct and methods to embrace in order to overcome hurt and disappointment in a turbulent environment and foster more caring and effective educational organizations Few attempts have been made to write a book about women s work from the perspective of those in senior leadership roles in education others have written about it but not experienced it firsthand This book illuminates the controversial debate between women and gender in education and challenges assumptions about equity and the caring and democratic nature of education It contributes to a broader understanding and knowledge of the complexities of leadership work within education which in turn can lead to improvement in professional relationships as well as organizational effectiveness The book contains enlightening and compelling stories about the unique and shared experiences of people navigating turbulence within an organization Author Mary Green draws on her career spent teaching and learning to provide a unique Canadian perspective and context She offers a rigorous self social historical and political reflection of educators who despite experiencing particular challenges draw purpose from faith in the possibilities and potential of more caring practice in education The content will prove useful to those committed to infusing more humanity into work in education with reference to individuals institutions and the social and political challenges in the field Specifically this book is relevant to graduate students in faculties of education policy makers principals other administrators and organizational leaders Universal issues of power and politics reveal interconnections between the personal and the global workplace underscoring the importance of care in the workplace Rural Teacher Education Michael Corbett,Dianne Gereluk,2020-02-15 This book examines challenges associated with the education of teachers in and for rural places It offers a new perspective with respect to how Canadian educators are shifting the conversation toward a hopeful discourse concerning how educators can foster meaningful rural learning environments which will contribute to building stronger rural communities and regions A central focus of the book is emerging reconceptualization of education place and indigeneity in Canadian education in the wake of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Though the challenge of addressing rural teaching and learning lies partly in the nuances and complexities of unique places there are also common threads that affect virtually all communities in rural regional and remote educational cultural economic and social geographies Chapters in this collection provide current research in Canadian rural education including examples and stories from the field contributed by teachers administrators and superintendents on the challenges and creative opportunities that they have discovered in their own rural context giving hope and inspiration for what is possible The book will appeal to all readers interested in rural education and teacher education as well as to those concerned with educational inequality and indigenous education Diversity in Leadership Joy Damousi,Kim Rubenstein,Mary Tomsic,2014-11-25 While leadership is an over used term today how it is defined for women and the contexts in which it emerges remains elusive Moreover women are exhorted to exercise leadership but occupying leadership positions has its challenges Issues of access acceptable behaviour and the development of skills to be successful leaders are just some of them Diversity in Leadership Australian women past and presentprovides a new understanding of the historical and contemporary aspects of Indigenous and non Indigenous women s leadership in a range of local national and international contexts It brings interdisciplinary expertise to the topic from leading scholars in a range of fields and diverse backgrounds The aims of the essays in the collection document the extent and diverse nature of women s social and political leadership across various pursuits and endeavours within democratic political structures Socioculturally Responsive Assessment Randy E. Bennett,Linda Darling-Hammond,Aneesha Badrinarayan,2025-05-01 Socioculturally Responsive Assessment assembles the best available thinking from within and outside the educational measurement community about the theoretical foundations and systems level policy implications of formal assessment programs designed to be socioculturally responsive Synthesized from culturally responsive assessment design and practices culturally relevant pedagogy and funds of knowledge universal design for learning the learning sciences and other literatures this emerging concept affirms that students learning and performance is inextricably tied to the social cultural and linguistic contexts in which they live and develop knowledge Across four sections this book provides an argument and initial evidence for impact on students users and assessment quality offers guidance for implementation and examines the potential limitations pitfalls barriers and measurement issues that such programs will inevitably raise Scholars teaching faculty test developers and policymakers will come away with integral foundations new assessment approaches and a greater sense of the potential for positive impact that these assessments may afford

Educational Leadership and Nancy Fraser Jill Blackmore, 2016-06-10 Drawing on the work of Nancy Fraser this book offers a critical view of contemporary educational leadership and reform discourses exploring how her key concepts of redistribution recognition and representation may apply to social and therefore educational justice Fraser offers a political and pragmatic reconciliation between feminist neo Marxist critical and post structuralist theories This book outlines how Fraser has worked on and worked over theories of social justice and how this can inform how we can understand educational theory policy and practice generally In particular the book focuses on the field of educational administration and leadership ELMA as it relates to equity issues such as school choice and inequality gender and inclusive leadership and alternative schooling Fraser s argument about scaling up social justice theory is shown to be highly salient given the emergence of the field of transnational education policy and its role in the context of intensified nation state and edu business competition Overall through the lens of Nancy Fraser s unitary framework this book considers epistemological questions about the nature of knowledge examines the relationship between the state the individual education and social movements addresses the difficulties and dilemmas which arise due to the intersections of gender class race sexuality and culture in a globalized context and illustrates how the principles of social justice can be mobilized by leaders in everyday practice Educational Leadership and Nancy Fraser is an illuminating read for those policymakers researchers and practitioners engaged in the field of educational administration leadership and social justice

Women Leading Education Across the Continents

Helen C. Sobehart, 2009-01-16 Women Leading Education across the Continents is the first collection of research about and stories of women in basic and higher education leadership from every region of the globe The chapters are authored by scholars representing every continent including a keynote from the first all female team to traverse Antarctica The book captures not only statistical data about the position of women in basic and higher education in over 17 countries but relates compelling insights and stories about the challenges that women face in leadership the limited access to education by young women and some strategies for success that have fanned a flame to light the way for both women and men to follow toward equity and social justice

Performing and Reforming Leaders Jill Blackmore, Judyth Sachs, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2007 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association Performing and Reforming Leaders critically analyzes how women negotiate the dilemmas they face in leadership and managerial roles in Australian schools universities and continuing education To meet the economic needs of the post welfare nation state of the past decade Australian education systems were restructured and this restructuring coincided with many female teachers and academics moving into middle management as change agents The authors examine how new managerialism and markets in education transformed how academics and teachers did their work and in turn changed the nature of educational leadership in ways that were dissonant with the leadership practices and values women brought to the job While largely focused on Australia Performing and Reforming Leaders strongly resonates with the experiences of leaders in the United States and other nations that have undergone similar educational reforms in recent decades
