Recovering Spains Feminist Tradition:

Recovering Spain's Feminist Tradition Lisa Vollendorf, 2001 Feminist scholarship has entered an age of internationalism during the past two decades Yet as Lisa Vollendorf points out in her introduction to this volume Spain is one of the countries that remain on the margins of the debate Despite a growing number of feminists in all regions of Spain Spanish women do not appear either as authors or subjects in anthologies of feminist thinking and criticism published in English To redress this neglect the editor of Recovering Spain's Feminist Tradition has gathered nineteen new essays on women writers who either call themselves feminist or deal with feminist issues in their work Hailing from the medieval period to the present and representing a broad range of genres and topics these women court writers nuns housewives journalists politicians trace the historical roots of Spain's feminist consciousness and emphasize its rich intellectual traditions The contributions provide a balance between writers well known in Spain and those who have only recently received critical attention from Santa Teresa de Jesus and Maria de Zayas to Emilia Pardo Bazan and Montserrat Roig The last three essays in the volume focus on Spain's double minorities Catalan women writers

Remapping the Humanities Mary Garrett, Heidi Gottfried, Sandra F. VanBurkleo, 2008 An innovative collection demonstrating the rich potential for interdisciplinary learning found within the network of university based humanities centers Remapping the Humanities celebrates the tenth anniversary of the Wayne State University Humanities Center by bringing together essays that illustrate the richness of public conversations developed in interdisciplinary humanities centers The contributors to this collection represent more than a dozen disciplines including philosophy English political science history law comparative literature and Spanish and taken together their essays illustrate an ongoing remapping of the intellectual landscape as scholars from across university departments engage one another in unpredictable ways This volume is divided into four thematic sections Identity and Community Remembering and Forgetting Nationalism and Globalism and Toward Post Modernity Yet the essays deliberately represent a range of theoretical perspectives that interact synergistically such as feminism and postcolonial studies or literary criticism and art history They also tackle topics as varied as the formation of the modern family in France and the inculcation of civic virtue in American cities and they draw freely from different sources of evidence like newspaper accounts popular literature paintings and diaries Remapping the Humanities includes unique touches such as a portfolio of full color images and an audio CD of Celtic inspired jazz In addition a preface by Walter Edwards academic director of the Humanities Center at Wayne State University gives some background on this institution and the work being done there The importance of Remapping the Humanities ultimately lies in its refusal to say that learning has ended and the example it provides of the value of calculated ferment and intellectual instability Educators involved with or wanting to learn more about interdisciplinary research will appreciate this unique collection explosion It was an exciting period in the history of travel a golden age While transportation had improved mass tourism had not yet robbed journeys of their aura of adventure Although British women were at the forefront of this movement a number of intrepid Spanish women also participated in this new era of travel and travel writing They transcended general societal limitations imposed on Spanish women at a time when the refrain la mujer en casa y con la pata quebrada described most of their female compatriots who suffered from legal constraints lack of education a husband's dictates or little or no money of their own Spanish Women Travelers at Home and Abroad 1850-1920 From Tierra del Fuego to the Land of the Midnight Sun analyzes the travels and the travel writings of eleven extraordinary women Emilia Pardo Baz n Carmen de Burgos pseud Colombine Rosario de Acu a Carolina Coronado Emilia Serrano Baronesa de Wilson Eva Canel Cecilia B hl de Faber pseud Fern n Caballero Princesses Paz and Eulalia de Borb n Sof a Casanova and Mother Mar a de Jes s G ell These Spanish women travelers climbed mountain peaks in their native country traveled by horseback in the Amazon observed the Indians of Tierra del Fuego suffered from el soroche altitude sickness in the Andes admired the midnight sun in Norway traveled to mission fields in sub Saharan Africa and reported on wars in Europe and North Africa to mention only a few of their accomplishments The goal of this study is to acquaint English speaking readers with the narratives of these remarkable women whose works are not available in translation Besides analyzing their travel narratives and the role of travel in their lives Spanish Women Travelers includes many long excerpts translated into English for the first time Feminism and Motherhood in Western Europe, 1890-1970 A. Allen, 2005-06-30 According to Allen motherhood and citizenship are terms that are closely linked and have been redefined over the past century due to changes in women's status feminist movements and political developments Mother child relationships were greatly affected by political decisions during the early 1900s and the maternal role has been transformed over the years To understand the dilemmas faced by women concerning motherhood and work for example Allen argues that the problem must be examined in terms of its demographic and political development through history Allen highlights the feminist movements in Western Europe primarily Britain France Germany and the Netherlands and explores the implications of the maternal role for women's aspirations to the rights of citizenship Among the topics Allen explores the history of the maternal role psychoanalysis and theories on the mother child relationship changes in family law from 1890-1914 the economic status of mothers and reproductive responsibility Major Concepts in Spanish Feminist Theory Roberta Johnson, 2019-06-01 First book in English to offer a thorough introduction to key concepts and figures in Spanish feminist thought Major Concepts in Spanish Feminist Theory is the first book in English to offer a substantial overview of Spanish feminist thought It focuses on six concepts solitude personality social class work difference and equality and distinguishes Spanish feminist theory from that of other countries Roberta Johnson employs a chronological format to highlight continuity and polemics in Spanish feminist thinking from the eighteenth century to the present She brings together arguments from well known names such as Benito Jer nimo Feijoo Concepci n Arenal Emilia Pardo Baz n Mar a Mart nez Sierra Carmen de Burgos and Carmen Laforet as well as less familiar figures such as the Countess Campo Alange Mar a Laffitte and Lil lvarez who defied restrictions on feminist activity during the Franco dictatorship to publish feminist books The topics of difference and equality are explored and the book recounts the long tension between theorists of each persuasion a tension that erupted publicly during Spain s democratic era Each theorist s arguments are laid out in straightforward non jargonistic prose making this book a useful classroom tool for courses on Spanish women writers Spanish culture and cross cultural feminist studies This book is a significant overview of the theoretical concepts and authors that make up the history of Spanish feminism from the eighteenth century to the present The organization of the book around concepts is not only its great strength but is also refreshing a novel approach to a chronological history of Spanish feminism Alda Blanco San Diego State University
