how our urban infrastructure developed and how it has shaped American culture ever since Watching the Traffic Go By emphasizes the narratives underlying our perceptions of innovations in transportation by looking at the stories we have built around these innovations Fotsch finds such stories in the General Motors Futurama exhibit at the 1939 World's Fair debates in Munsey's magazine films such as Double Indemnity and even in footage of the O J Simpson chase along Los Angeles freeways Juxtaposed with contemporaneous critiques by Lewis Mumford Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer Fotsch argues that these narratives celebrated new technologies that fostered stability for business and the white middle class At the same time transportation became another system of excluding women and the poor especially African Americans by isolating them in homes and urban ghettos A timely interdisciplinary analysis Watching the Traffic Go By exposes the ugly side of transportation politics through the seldom used lens of popular culture
