Arms and the Man, The Devil's Disciple, and Caesar and Cleopatra George Bernard Shaw, 2021 The three plays in this volume are some of George Bernard Shaw's most popular and frequently performed works. They demonstrate the development of Shawian comedy and contain early formulations of his idea of the Superman, an extraordinary individual who catalyzes the evolution of mankind. Arms and the Man 1894 was Shaw's first commercial success and the first public confirmation that he could make playwriting his profession. It is the first of what Shaw called his pleasant plays, comedies that critique idealism in general rather than specific social problems as his earlier plays did. Specifically, Shaw undermines the romance of wartime courage, reckless heroism, and nationalist pride among British spectators while using the Serbo-Bulgarian War of 1886 as an exotic veneer. Shaw wrote The Devil's Disciple 1897 for William Terriss, an actor known for his swashbuckling roles who had requested a play that would contain every surefire melodramatic situation: mistaken identities, terrifying adventures, and last-second escapes and frequent emotional outpourings. Caesar and Cleopatra 1898 is Shaw's revision of Shakespeare's Julius Caesar and Antony and Cleopatra, as well as a fusion of the pragmatism and unconventionality of the heroes of Arms and the Man and The Devil's Disciple into a portrait of jocular, morally serious leadership.

The World According to Color James Fox, 2022-04-12 A kaleidoscopic exploration that traverses history, literature, art, and science to reveal humans' unique and vibrant relationship with color. We have an extraordinary connection to color; we give it meanings, associations, and properties that last millennia and span cultures, continents, and languages. In The World According to Color, James Fox takes seven elemental colors—black, red, yellow, blue, white, purple, and green—and uncovers behind each a root idea based on visual resemblances and common symbolism throughout history. Through a series of stories and vignettes, the book then traces these meanings to show how they morphed and multiplied and ultimately how they reveal a great deal about the societies that produced them, reflecting and shaping their hopes, fears, prejudices, and preoccupations. Fox also examines the science of how our eyes and brains interpret light and color and shows how this is inherently linked with the meanings we give to hue. And using his background as an art historian, he explores many of the milestones in the history of art, from Bronze Age gold work to Turner, Titian to Yves Klein, in a fresh way. Fox also weaves in literature, philosophy, cinema, archaeology, and art, moving from Monet to Marco Polo, early Japanese ink artists to Shakespeare and Goethe to James Bond. By creating a new history of color, Fox reveals a new story about humans and our place in the universe: second only to language, color is the greatest carrier of cultural meaning in our world.
