AN EXPLOSIVE LOVE STORY

RED FIRECRACKER GREEN FIRECRACKER

Yang & Yim's return to cinema is marked by two films that are a double-edged sword. From the perspective of Yang & Yim, the story of their relationship is a love story. From the perspective of the audience, it is a story of two people who are torn apart by the forces of nature. The film is a masterpiece of Chinese cinema. It is a film that should be seen by everyone who loves cinema. It is a film that should be seen by everyone who loves cinema. It is a film that should be seen by everyone who loves cinema.

Yorker Theater and Other Scenes from a Life at the Movies Toby Talbot, 2009-10-20 The nation didn't know it but 1960 would change American film forever and the revolution would occur nowhere near a Hollywood set. With the opening of the New Yorker Theater, a cinema located at the heart of Manhattan's Upper West Side, cutting edge films from around the world were screened for an eager audience including the city's most influential producers, directors, critics, and writers. Woody Allen, Martin Scorsese, Susan Sontag, Andrew Sarris, and Pauline Kael among many others would make the New Yorker their home, trusting in the owners' impeccable taste and incorporating much of what they viewed into their work. In this irresistible memoir, Toby Talbot, co-owner and proud matron of the New Yorker Theater, reveals the story behind Manhattan's wild and wonderful affair with art house film. With her husband Dan Talbot, she showcased a range of eclectic films, introducing French New Wave and New German cinema along with other groundbreaking genres and styles. As Vietnam protests and the struggle for civil rights raged outside, the Talbots also took the lead in distributing political films such as Bernard Bertolucci's Before the Revolution and documentaries such as Shoah and Point of Order. Talbot enhances her stories with selections from the New Yorker's essential archives, including program notes by Jack Kerouac, Jules Feiffer, Peter Bogdanovich, Jonas Mekas, Jack Gelber, and Harold Humes. These artifacts testify to the deeply engaged and collaborative spirit behind each showing and they illuminate the myriad and often entertaining aspects of theater operation. All in all, Talbot's tales capture the highs and lows of a thrilling era in filmmaking. Biographical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China Yuwu Song, 2014-01-10

This biographical dictionary is an indispensable research tool for information about the prominent persons of the past seven decades in China. The book documents nearly 600 Chinese individuals who contributed for better or worse to the development of Chinese life and culture since the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949. Though the book is weighted toward political figures, it includes persons in business, the military, academia, medicine, social movements, the arts, entertainment, and athletics. In addition to an objective description of the person's life, an analysis is provided that identifies the individual's contributions and importance. Encyclopedia of Contemporary Chinese Culture Edward Lawrence

Advancing Technology Industrialization Through Intelligent Software Methodologies, Tools and Techniques H. Fujita, A. Selamat, 2019-09-17 Software has become ever more crucial as an enabler from daily routines to important national decisions. But from time to time, as society adapts to frequent and rapid changes in technology, software development fails to come up to expectations due to issues with efficiency, reliability, and security, and with the robustness of methodologies, tools, and techniques not keeping pace with the rapidly evolving market. This book presents the proceedings of SoMeT_19, the 18th International Conference on New Trends in Intelligent Software Methodologies Tools and Techniques held in Kuching Malaysia from 23-25 September 2019. The book explores new trends and theories that highlight the direction and development of software methodologies, tools and techniques and aims to capture the essence of a new state of the art in software science and its supporting technology and to identify the challenges that such a technology will have to master. The book also investigates other comparable theories and practices in software science including emerging technologies from their computational foundations in terms of models, methodologies and tools. The 56 papers included here are divided into 5 chapters: Intelligent software systems design and techniques in software engineering; Machine learning techniques for software systems; Requirements engineering software design and development techniques; Software methodologies, tools and techniques for industry and Knowledge science and intelligent computing. This comprehensive overview of information systems and research projects will be invaluable to all those whose work involves the assessment and solution of real world software problems.

Film Music Kathryn Marie Kalinak, 2023. Film music is as old as cinema. The first projected moving images were accompanied by music through a variety of performers from single piano players to small orchestras that brought images to life. Film music has since become its own industry, an aesthetic platform for expression, creative visions and a commercial vehicle for growing musical stars of all varieties. This Very Short Introduction takes the reader behind the scenes to understand both the practical aspects of film music and the theories behind why it works. The updated second edition includes the music from film industries in Africa, Asia and South Asia and Latin America and the stories of musicians from previously under-represented groups.

Jia Zhangke's 'Hometown Trilogy' Michael Berry, 2019-07-25. The three films comprising director Jia Zhangke's Hometown Trilogy: Xiao Wu (1997), Platform (2000) and Unknown Pleasures (2002) represent key contributions to the cinema of contemporary China. The films, which are set in Jia's home province of Shanxi, highlight the plight of marginalised individuals: singers, dancers, pickpockets, prostitutes and drifters as they struggle to navigate through the radically transforming terrain of contemporary China. Xiao Wu tells the story of a small-time pickpocket who faces the breakdown of his relationships with his friends, family and girlfriend. Platform, often considered Jia's most ambitious film, is an epic narrative that bears witness to China's roaring eighties and the radical transformation from socialism to capitalism. Jia's third feature, Unknown Pleasures, continues his meditation on China in transition, tracing the story of two delinquent teenagers who live on a diet of saccharine Chinese pop music, karaoke, Pulp Fiction and Coca-Cola while entertaining pipe dreams of joining the army and becoming small-time gangsters. Michael Berry's in-depth study of the three films considers them as an ambitious attempt to re-examine the transformation and fate of provincial China, its places and people as it is caught up in a whirlwind of sweeping social, cultural and economic change. At the heart of the book lies a series of close readings of each of the three films through which Berry teases out their central narrative themes, highlighting Jia's use of editing, cinematic language and mise en scene. He pays special attention to the place of intertextuality in Jia's oeuvre as well as the central themes of destruction and change stagnation and movement political verses popular culture and of course the ceaseless search for home Michael Berry is Associate Professor of Contemporary Chinese Cultural Studies at the University of California Santa Barbara He is the author of Speaking in Images Interviews with Contemporary Chinese Filmmakers 2005 and A History of Pain Trauma in Modern Chinese Literature and Film 2008 He is also the translator of several novels including The Song of Everlasting Sorrow 2008 To Live 2004 Nanjing 1937 A Love Story 2002 and Wild Kids 2000

Historical Dictionary of Chinese Cinema Tan Ye, Yun Zhu, 2012-10-04 Motion pictures were first introduced to China in 1896 and today China has become a major player in the film industry However the story of how Chinese cinema became what it is today is an exceptionally turbulent one It encompasses incursions by foreign powers warfare among contending rulers the collapse of the Chinese empire and the massive setback of the Cultural Revolution The Historical Dictionary of Chinese Cinema covers the history of Chinese cinema from its very beginning in 1896 to the present This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section contains several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on films directors and historical figures This book is an excellent access point for anyone interested in Chinese cinema and for scholars interested in investigating ideas for future research

Spaces of Their Own Mayfair Mei-hui Yang, 1999 How are the public and political lives of Chinese women constrained by states and economies And how have pockets of women s consciousness come to be produced in and disseminated from this traditionally masculine milieu The essays in this volume examine the possibilities for a public sphere for Chinese women one that would both emerge from concrete historical situations and local contexts and cut across the political boundaries separating the Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and the West The challenges of this project are taken up in essays on the legacy of state feminism on the Mainland as contrasted with a grassroots women s movement challenging the state in Taiwan on the role of the capitalist consumer economy in the emerging lesbian movement in Taiwan and on the increased trafficking of women as brides prostitutes and mistresses between the Mainland and wealthy male patrons in Taiwan and Hong Kong The writers examples of masculine domination in the media include the reformulation of Chinese women in Fifth Generation films for a transnational Western male film audience and the portrayal of Mainland women in Taiwanese and Hong Kong media The contributors also consider male nationalism as it is revealed through both international sports coverage on television and in a Chinese television drama Other works examine a women s museum a telephone hotline in Beijing the films of Hong Kong filmmaker Ann Hui the transnational contacts of a Taiwanese feminist organization the diaspora of Mainland women writers and the differences between Chinese and Western feminist themes

From Tian'anmen to Times Square Gina Marchetti, 2006 From Tian anmen to Times Square Transnational China and the Chinese Diaspora on Global Screens 1989 1997 explores the important interconnections involving questions of race ethnicity gender and sexuality on world screens by examining a range of films videos and digital works associated with global Chinese culture The ways in which the world has imagined China and the images the Chinese have used to depict themselves have changed dramatically since 1989. The media spotlight placed on Beijing during the spring of 1989 created repercussions that continue to affect how China is seen globally, how it sees itself, and how the Chinese outside the People's Republic see themselves. The films and other texts included in this book represent a range of work by media artists working within China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Singapore, and on transnational co-productions involving those places. The book also features media from other positions within the Chinese diaspora, including Chinese America, and work produced on China by non-Chinese. Highlighting questions of the circulation of images, people, and commodities, the book explores the important interconnections involving questions of race, ethnicity, gender, and sexuality on global screens. Beginning and ending with Tiananmen and world image culture, a portrait emerges of momentous change and persistent challenges facing media artists and filmmakers working within Greater China.

Countervisions Darrell Y. Hamamoto, Sandra Liu, 2000. Spotlights Asian Americans on both sides of the motion picture camera. Countervisions examines the aesthetics, material circumstances, and politics of a broad spectrum of films released in the last thirty years. This anthology focuses in particular on the growing presence of Asian Americans as makers of independent films and cross-over successes. Essays of film criticism and interviews with film makers emphasize matters of cultural agency, that is, the practices through which Asian American actors, directors, and audience members have shaped their own cinematic images. One of the anthology's key contributions is to trace the evolution of Asian American independent film practice over thirty years. Essays on the Japanese American internment and historical memory, essays on films by women and queer artists, and the reflections of individual film makers discuss independent productions as subverting or opposing the conventions of commercial cinema. But Countervisions also resists simplistic readings of mainstream film representations of Asian Americans and enumerations of negative images. Writing about Hollywood stars Anna May Wong and Nancy Kwan, director Wayne Wang, and erotic films, several contributors probe into the complex and ambivalent responses of Asian American audiences to stereotypical roles and commercial success. Taken together, the spirited, illuminating essays in this collection offer an unprecedented examination of a flourishing cultural production.

Author note: Darrell Y. Hamamoto is Associate Professor in the Asian American Studies Program at the University of California, Davis. He is the author of Nervous Laughter: Television Situation Comedy and Liberal Democratic Ideology Monitored, Peril: Asian Americans and the Politics of Television Representation, and New American Destinies: A Reader in Contemporary Asian and Latino Immigration. Sandra Liu is a Ph.D. candidate in the Department of Ethnic Studies, University of California, Berkeley.

The Top Books of the Year Red Firecracker Green Firecracker The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Red Firecracker Green Firecracker : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
