Red Gods:

The Red Gods (Les Dieux Rouges) Jean d' Esme,1924 Red God Xiaorong Han,2014-11-06 Robin Hood style revolutionary Wei Baqun is often described as one of China's three great peasant leaders alongside Mao Zedong and Peng Pai In his home county of Donglan where he started organizing peasants in the early 1920s Wei Baqun came to be considered a demigod after his death a communist revolutionary with supernatural powers So much legend has grown up around this fascinating figure that it is difficult to know the truth from the tale Presenting Wei Baqun's life in light of interactions between his local community and the Chinese nation Red God is organized around the journeys he made from his multiethnic frontier county to major cities where he picked up ideas methods and contacts and around the three revolts he launched back home Xiaorong Han explores the congruencies and conflicts of local regional and national forces at play during Wei Baqun's lifetime while examining his role as a link between his Zhuang people and the Han majority between the village and the city and between the periphery and the center The Red God C. E. Albertson,2000-09 Archeology blends with the supernatural in international intrigue With a KGB contract out on him agent John Ashly dodges the KGB while pursued by an international crime cartel Stabbed shot almost run over drugged poisoned slugged and buried alive in an ancient Egyptian tomb agent Ashly lives on the edge which may be too much for a man who has lost his memory and can't even recall his name Ashly becomes a pawn as world events lead from Chicago to the powder keg of the Near East Beautiful women dead cities and ancient gods allow archeology to blend with the supernatural in a modern world controlled by a shadowy overlord Hour of the Red God Richard Crompton,2013-05-07 The Maasai believe in two gods Enkai Narok the Black God is benign Enkai Nanyokie the Red God is the god of anger vengeance and death Nairobi 2007 In Africa's sprawling megacity a small elite holds power over an impoverished restless majority Corruption exploitation and ethnic rivalry are part of everyday life Amid claims of vote rigging and fraud the presidential elections could be the spark that sets this city ablaze With chaos looming few care about one dead prostitute But Detective Mollel does For Mollel is a former Maasai warrior and the dead girl was a Maasai too As he ventures from slums to skyscrapers from suburbs to sewers Mollel begins to realize that there is more at stake than just this murder But even as he is forced to confront his turbulent past he begins to doubt his warrior's instincts Can Mollel manage to find the killer and solve the case before the Red God consumes all With the sophistication of Ian Rankin and Colin Harrison and set against the backdrop of Kenya's turbulent 2007 elections Richard Crompton's Hour of the Red God brings Nairobi vividly to life gritty and modern with an extraordinary blend of tribal and urban elements In this dark thriller tradition and power collide arriving at a shocking unforgettable end And in the Maasai hero Mollel a new detective icon is born One of Publishers Weekly's Best Mystery Thriller Books of 2013 Of Men and Marshes Paul Errington,2012-10-15 Standing with such environmental classics as Loren Eiseley's The Immense Journey his friend and mentor Aldo Leopold's A Sand County Almanac and Joseph Wood Krutch's The Voice of the Desert Paul Errington's Of Men and Marshes remains an evocative reminder of the great beauty and intrinsic value of the glacial marshland Prescient and stirring steeped in insights from Errington's biological fieldwork his experiences as a hunter and trapper and his days exploring the marshes of his rural South Dakota childhood this vibrant work of nature writing reveals his deep knowledge of the marshland environments he championed Examining the marsh from a dynamic range of perspectives Errington begins by inviting us to consider how immense spans of time coupled with profound geological events shaped the unique marshland ecosystems of the Midwest He then follows this wetland environment across seasons and over the years creating a compelling portrait of a natural place too little appreciated and too often destroyed Reminding us of the intricate relationships between the marsh and the animals who call it home Errington records his experiences with hundreds of wetland creatures He follows minks and muskrats snapping turtles and white pelicans red foxes and blue winged teals all the while underscoring our responsibility to preserve this remarkable and fragile environment and challenging us to change the way we think about and value marshlands This classic of twentieth century nature writing a landmark work that is still a joy to read offers a stirring portrait of the Midwest's endangered glacial marshland ecosystems by one of the most influential biologists of his day A cautionary book whose advice has not been heeded a must read of American environmental literature Of Men and Marshes should inspire a new generation of conservationists Irish women's writing, 1878-1922 Anna Pilz, Whitney Standlee, 2016-07-01 Irish women writers entered the British and international publishing scene in unprecedented numbers in the period between 1878 and 1922 Literary history is only now beginning to give them the attention they deserve for their contributions to the literary landscape of Ireland which has included far more women writers with far more diverse identities than hitherto acknowledged This collection of new essays by leading scholars explores how women writers including Emily Lawless L T Meade Katharine Tynan Lady Gregory Rosa Mulholland Ella Young and Beatrice Grimshaw used their work to advance their own private and public political concerns through astute manoeuvrings both in the expanding publishing industry and against the partisan expectations of an ever growing readership The chapters investigate their dialogue with a contemporary politics that included the topics of education cosmopolitanism language empire economics philanthropy socialism the marriage market the publishing industry readership's the commercial market and employment Hearings United States. The Peking Temple of the Eastern Peak Anne Swann Goodrich, 2024-12-11 The Tung yUeh Miao in Peking is a veritable pantheon housing hundreds of deities with scores of attendants presided over by the Great God of the Eastern Peak Mrs Goodrich in her delightful narrative relates the stories of these deities how they came to be deified how they secured the faith and trust of thousands of devotees and how they managed to accomodate themselves to each other without interfering with the rights and responsibilities of the neighboring deities Here is the story of how a faithful people common fold gradually built up a religious syncretistic system happily free from any shackles of logic and historical accuracy Yet it worked so well that the Chinese flocked to this temple at regular intervals If there is a popular demand a common need a private hope or anxiety there must be a deity who answers to it If not people will create such a deity and show that its worship is not useless and therefore justified Anne S Goodrich lived in China for seven years spending most of her time in Peking but making trips that took her as far north as Jehol and as far south as Changsha and Canton In 1923 she married L Carrington Goodrich With her husband she has traveled extensively in Asia Janet R Ten Broeck made detailed studies of the Tung yUeh Miao part of which she has published together with Dr Yiu Tung in T oung Pao XL 1950 1951 She lived in Peking with her husband who for seven years 1920 1927 held a professorship at the Peking Union Medical College
