Red Ribbon On A White Horse:

Red Ribbon on a White Horse Anzia Yezierska, 1987      The Poems of John Dewey John Dewey, 1977 A literary discovery of considerable magnitude these 98 previously unpublished poems by John Dewey written principally in the 1910-18 period illuminate an emotive aspect in his intellectual life often not manifest in the prose works. Rumors of the existence of the poems have circulated among students of Dewey's life and writings since 1957 when Mrs. Roberta Dewey gained possession of them from the Columbia University Columbian collection. But except for the few persons who saw copies made by the French scholar Deladelle five years after Dewey's death the poems have remained inaccessible until now. None of the poems has hitherto been published. Mrs. Roberta Dewey and Dewey's children from his first marriage seem not to have known of Dewey's experiments in verse during his lifetime. And as evidence presented here now shows only two or three acquaintances knew of actual poems written by Dewey, one of them the Polish American novelist Anzia Yezierska who had a brief emotional involvement with Dewey in the 1917-18 period. The factual rather than inferential evidence of Dewey's relationship with Anzia Yezierska appears in the poems which taken as a whole provide revealing insights into Dewey's feelings and illuminate not only aspects of his emotions but of his thought as well. The fact that Dewey did not publish the poetry himself together with the circumstances of its discovery and unusual history has led to the exceptionally careful editorial treatment of the poems given here. Scholars will find all the evidence for the authorship of the manuscripts clearly presented and all the changes and alterations carefully recorded. This edition has received the Modern Language Association of America Center for Editions of American Authors Seal as an approved text.

The Jewish East Side Milton Hindus, This book originally published as The Old East Side is a collection of literature and documents ranging from the autobiography of the sculptor Jacob Epstein and the novels of Abraham Cahan to the reporting of William Dean Howells and the fictional reconstruction of a vanished world by Henry Roth. The world is that of the old shtetl transplanted to a new growing country where the ghetto in the years 1881-1924 was an unstable mixture of nostalgic elements and the pressures of American economic and social reality. The productivity both intellectual and material of the section of New York known as the East Side during those forty years around the turn of the twentieth century has become a legend among many Jews in this country and deserves to become better known to many more of other ethnic origins. The lower East Side was paradoxically a wilderness to be traversed and a portion of that promised land which had been glimpsed with so much hope from afar. To wonderfully talented and observant children like Jacob Epstein the streets there in the 1880s were as filled with excitement as those of the Arabian Nights. To serious philosophic young men like Morris Raphael Cohen they were as challenging as the marketplace of Athens had once been to Socrates to achieve intellectual enlightenment and the improvement of the social order. The conditions of abominable crowding and poverty described in the sociological tracts of Jacob Riis, Lillian Wald and others are better known perhaps to the average reader than the accounts of such pleasures as the dancing schools the Yiddish theaters the cafes the lectures the literary ferment and activities described in the pages of Abraham Cahan and Hutchins Hapgood But all the views presented in The Jewish East Side both dark and bright are recognizably parts of the same picture This book will be of value to sociologists historians researchers specializing in Judaic studies and students of literature Red Ribbon on the White Horse Anzia Yezierska, 1991 The Salome Ensemble Alan Robert Ginsberg, 2016-04-05 The Salome Ensemble probes the entangled lives works and passions of a political activist a novelist a screenwriter and a movie actress who collaborated in 1920s New York City Together they created the shape shifting genre crossing Salome of the Tenements first a popular novel and then a Hollywood movie The title character was a combination Cinderella and Salome like the women who conceived her Rose Pastor Stokes was the role model Anzia Yezierska wrote the novel Sonya Levien wrote the screenplay Jetta Goudal played her on the silver screen Ginsberg considers the women individually and collectively exploring how they shaped and reflected their cultural landscape These European Jewish immigrants pursued their own versions of the American dream escaped the squalor of sweatshops knew romance and heartache and achieved prominence in politics fashion journalism literature and film American Literary Dimensions Ben Siegel, Jay L. Halio, 1999 This is the first of two volumes commemorating Friedman s life and work and includes essays on American literature poetry and remembrances The New York Public Intellectuals and Beyond Ethan Goffman, Daniel Morris, 2009 Here a variety of distinguished scholars revisit and rethink the legacy of the New York intellectuals showing how this small predominantly Jewish group moved from communist and socialist roots to become a primary voice of liberal humanism and in the case of a few to launch a new conservative movement Reading 1922 Michael North, 2001-12-20 This engaging study returns to a truly remarkable year the year in which both Ulysses and The Waste Land were published in which The Great Gatsby was set and during which the Fascisti took over in Italy the Irish Free State was born the Harlem Renaissance reached its peak Charlie Chaplin s popularity crested and King Tutankhamen s tomb was discovered In short the year which not only in hindsight became the primal scene of literary modernism but which served as the cradle for a host of major political and aesthetic transformations resonating around the globe In his previous study the acclaimed Dialect of Modernism OUP 1994 Michael North looked at the racial and linguistic struggles over the English language which gave birth to the many strains of modernism Here he expands his vision to encompass the global stage and tells the story of how books changed the future of the world as we know it in one unforgettable year From Hester Street to Hollywood Bettina Berch, 2009 This is the first full scale biography of Jewish American author Anzia Yezierska Based on extensive research into her letters and writings it tells the real story of America s Sweatshop Cinderella "The Rest of Us" Stephen Birmingham, 2015-12-01 The New York Times bestselling history of the Jewish immigrants from Russia and Poland who altered the American landscape from New York to Hollywood The wave of Eastern European Jewish immigrants who swept into New York in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries by way of Ellis Island were not welcomed by the Jews who had arrived decades before These refugees from czarist Russia and the Polish shtetls who came to America to escape pogroms and persecution were considered barbaric uneducated and too steeped in the traditions of the old country to be accepted by the more refined and already well established German Jewish community But the new arrivals were tough passionate and determined and in no time they were moving up from the ghetto tenements of New York s Lower East Side to make their marks and their fortunes across the country in a variety of fields from media and popular music to fashion motion pictures and even organized crime Among the unforgettable personages author Stephen Birmingham profiles are radio pioneer David Sarnoff makeup mogul Helena Rubinstein Hollywood tycoons Samuel Goldwyn and Harry Cohn Broadway composer Irving Berlin and mobster Meyer Lansky From the author of Our Crowd comes this treasure trove of fascinating tales and unforgettable rags to riches success stories that celebrates the indomitable spirit of a unique community
